IMITATION

Dedicated to J. C. D. S., with compliments.

Fair poetess mine, have you been tasting wine,
Made from the juice of the grape?
Your poem is divine; in the world you will shine.

When the songs of a poet you ape,
If the ghost of Shakespeare could only be here
To see "Evolution" thus deked,
I sadly fear, my poetess, dear,
"Reiteration" would be badly wrecked.

Life Saved at Death's Door

"I never felt so near my grave" writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Tex., "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick, safe, sure, its best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, lagrippe, as hms, crump and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Herald and Farm Journal $1.50. The Journal will come for two years and your choice of Horse Secrets, Poultry Secrets, Corn Secrets, Corn Egg Book, with each order. Order at once.

Service

There are three kinds of Service -- Good, Bad and Indifferent.

Do you know when you are getting first-class service? You do and I know you do. That is the reason I cater to your wants for I pride myself on my good service. Good service every hour of every day is one of my highest ambitions.

Good Goods

Good Goods and Good Service are necessary in the building up of a first-class mercantile business. Successful merchants slight neither. I specialize both and you appreciate all I offer.

Right Prices

Good goods, good service right prices and the privilege of buying what you want—my customers receive all these. Is it any wonder they are satisfied? I want to please you.
