A trip to foreign lands was given as a treat to the members of the Y. P. S. C. E. who, under the captainship of C. B. Stone, defeated a division under the leadership of Ivy Cornett in a contest, closed the last of December. The trip was made last Friday night, the party starting from the Presbyterian church after listening to a lecture by the pastor, Rev. Thomas Robinson, on the countries to be visited. William Fisher acted as guide and gave very interesting descriptions of the country enroute. Japan was first visited at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Townsend, which was gaily decorated with fans, parasols and lanterns. The visitors were greeted by Misses Alta Wilcox and Eva Townsend in Japanese costume. Messrs. W. E. Tegart and W. E. Townsend also assisted the hostess in entertaining with games. Refreshments served were, crackers, small fish, tea and Japanese oranges. From Japan the guide conducted his party to Switzerland, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellison. Mr. and Mrs. Luscher loaned for the occasion a number of fine paintings of Switzerland scenery and a number of other articles brought from that country by them a few years ago. These together with Swiss flags and evergreens formed the decoration. Misses Rosalie and Lily Luscher and Ivy Cornett, dressed in Swiss costume, assisted the hostess, who was also in costume, in entertaining the guests. Swiss songs were sung by the Misses Luscher. Jack Luscher, Jr., and Willie Butler, dressed as Swiss lads sang and played Swiss music on the phonograph and a Swiss music box. Mrs. M. C. Cornett assisted in serving the refreshments, which were composed of imported Swiss cheese, Swiss cookies and coffee. The residence of G. O. Dolph was the scene of the joyous home coming and Uncle Sam, impersonated by Reed Eldridge, and the goddess of liberty, impersonated by Miss Lillian Copeland, welcomed their people back to their native land. Candy was served and games played until after midnight, when the pilgrims separated for their several homes. Flags and evergreens were profusely used in decorations for America. Miss Copeland and Mr. Eldridge were assisted in entertaining by Miss Blythe Copeland, Willie Cree, Caryl Heslin, Richard Anderson, Sr., and Jerry Moller. The guests of the evening were: C. B. Stone, Miss Lyril Eldridge, Mrs. J. Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dimmock, Miss Murl Dimmock, Miss Zella Dimmock, Miss Edith McKillip, Mr. and Mrs. J. Luscher, Miss Frida Herbert, Miss Blanche Eldredge, Miss Florence Gustafson, Miss Nannie Anderson, Raymond Dunbar, Harry Gustafson, Clyde Stone, Ellsworth Baker, Lloyd Anderson, Richard Angerson, Jr., Josie Townsend, Rado ph and Julius Luscher.

Misses Helen Franklin and Lulu Hummel of Portland, are making a visit of a fortnight with Mrs. E. Holte.

Life Saved at Death's Door

"I never felt so near my grave" writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Tex., "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick, safe, sure, its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, lagrippe, as hma, croup and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

PLEASANT HOME

The machine the railroad company is building to extricate on the cut at this place will soon be in operation.

The Vetch creamery driver had a lively runaway Tuesday. The team became frightened, throwing the large cans by the roadside and ran three miles before being caught.

Bert Griffith and family are visiting relatives.

Mrs. A. Louderback of the city called on friends.

B. C. Altman is on the sick list.

Mrs. Shumay was called to Sandy on account of her daughter's illness.

Will Calvin has returned from Idaho.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Chase this week.

Preaching every Sunday at 11 a. m. through February.

SANDY

Sandy, February 16—Mrs. J. M. Donahue has been on the sick list the past week.

Mr. Pridemore of Three-Six was a Sandy visitor on his way to Portland Monday. He reports about three feet of snow in that section.

Mrs. Phoebe Friel died at her home near Cherryville, Feb. 13th, at 4 p. m. The immediate cause of her death was apoplexy, though she had a stroke of paralysis three years ago. She had been ailing for several days but kept up until Sunday and was conscious up to within a half hour of her death. Besides her husband, J. T. Friel, Sr., she leaves seven children. Mrs. W. R. Allen, Mrs. Glenn McIntyre, Mrs. B. C. Murry, Mrs. B. F. Hart, Mrs. T. E. Kirby, J. T. Friel, Jr., and Jerry Friel. With the exception of Mrs. Kirby, who lives in Portland, the children all live in this community.

The entertainment given by the Sandy Commercial club Saturday evening was a success in every way. The program went off with a swing although there were two or three numbers that had to be omitted on account of the absence of a piano. When it came to the sale of the baskets, there was no hanging back and under the lively auctioneering of F. E. McGugin, the bidding was brisk. The proceeds from the baskets and pies amounted to $77.40. All those interested worked hard to make it a go and their efforts were crowned with success.

There is some talk of organizing a Shakespeare club in town. Sandy needs something of the sort to fill the social and intellectual needs of the people. More of this later.

Mrs. Reed, the minister's wife is at home after a prolonged stay in southern California, where she went in the hope that the change would benefit her. She returns much improved.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, there will be an effort made to organize a singing school. All those who are interested, please meet with Mr. Reed at the Methodist church at 7:30 on the above date. It is hoped there will be enough interested to organize a good school. It is planned to devote some time to rudiments of music, some to note reading and some to chorus singing. Come and bring some interested friend with you. No tuition. All these things help the social life of the town and the people.

The sand and some of the lumber is on the ground for the new building Mr. Meinig is going to erect for his store and postoffice.

Saturday, Feb. 4, is the regular meeting night of the Rebekahs. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. Reed preached an interesting sermon last Sunday evening. A special solo by Mrs. Talmage was much appreciated.

Entertainment at Sandy

Mrs. Marguerite Shelby Walter, formerly the assistant teacher in the Gillespie School of Expression of Portland, but now of Hood River, will give an entertainment at the Sandy M. E. church Wednesday evening, Feb. 22. The entertainment will consist of humorous and pathetic readings and monologues. Adults, 35 cents; children under twelve, 25 cents.

The preliminary rounds in the High School Debating League will practically all run through by the close of the present week. Half of the school contesting are eliminated. After the quarterly and semi-finals, the championship of the state is decided in the finals at the state university, in the spring.

Service

There are three kinds of Service -- Good, Bad and Indifferent.

Do you know when you are getting first-class service? You do and I know you do. That is the reason I cater to your wants for I pride myself on my good service. Good service every hour of every day is one of my highest ambitions.

Good Goods

Good Goods and Good Service are necessary in the building up of a first-class mercantile business. Successful merchants slight neither. I specialize both and you appreciate all I offer.

Right Prices

Good goods, good service right prices and the privilege of buying what you want—my customers receive all these. Is it any wonder they are satisfied? I want to please you.
