The rock crusher near this place expects to double its capacity in the near future.

SANDY

Miss Clara Meinig was brought home Sunday from Portland where she has been for some time past, recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Hope Shelley visited her brother, P. T. Shelley Saturday, enroute to Hood River, from Ann Arbor, Mich., where she has been attending medical college.

Children's Day was observed with appropriate exercises at the M. E. church last Sunday evening. Mr. Runyon will preach as usual next Sunday evening.

Miss Ester Spillman of Sandy Ridge is at home for the summer after a term at Forest Grove University, where she has been taking music and German.

A stranger in town giving his name as "Tennessee Charles" and who claims to have done time in two states, began to misbehave freely Monday and by late afternoon, became so vile in his language on the street that it became necessary to take care of him. He was locked up over night, but was released Tuesday forenoon and sent out of town. However the call of the saloon was too strong and by the middle of the afternoon he was back and at his old game. He was again locked up and by evening had sobered up sufficiently to be released. He and his two pals were started out of town and ordered to stay out. Such problems as these are difficult for an unincorporated town to handle, for they can be dealt with only upon issuance of a complaint.

Mrs. Lupton's sister visited her last week.

Mr. Dahlgren has built a stand by the side of his store and equipped it with a table and benches. Ice cream and cooling drinks will be served there during the hot weather.

Cheer up! This is only a June shower.

A number of people gathered in town Saturday to see the race between "Tommy" and "Starlight" owned by Shelley. It was a pretty race and a close finish. "Tommy" clearing by six inches. There were three pony races also; John Dunn's pony against Leo Canning's, former being the winner; Douglass of Eagle Creek against "Red" McCormack, Douglass horse winner and Dunn's horse against Douglass, Dunn winner.

Preparations for the Fourth are still going on. Geo. C. Brownell of Oregon City will deliver the oration. A brass band of 15 pieces will be on hand all day to fill the air with sweet music. A grand parade at 9:30. Other attractions too numerous to mention.

NOTICE—Readers of the Herald in this vicinity of Sandy will find a local representative at the home of P. R. Shelley. Mrs. Shelley has consented to handle Sandy news for the Herald. She will also take orders for printing, advertising, notices and other printing.

CHERRYVILLE

Showers of blessing!

Get ready to celebrate.

Autos bound for Mt. Hood go flying by.

Mr. John T. Friel, Sr., of this place was married last Wednesday in Oregon City to Miss Wilson, a trained nurse from Portland. Miss Wil on attended the late Mrs. Friel in her last sickness. The newly wedded pair are at home on the farm, a short distance east of Cherryville.

Mrs. Parnell Averell started to Santa Barbara, California, on Monday of this week to visit her brother, Charles W. Northrop. Upon her return she will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lulu Childs of Brooklyn, N. Y.

On Tuesday of last week the writer stopped at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Evans of Dover. The home garden is not only adorned with beautiful flowers of all kinds, but contains some of the finest gold Dollar strawberries ever seen. These are so large and luscious that great quantities of them could be disposed of right at home. Mr. Evans says few farmers recognize the value of artichokes as feed for swine and poultry. When once planted they are a perpetual crop and one acre of them will feed a number of hogs all winter. Mr. Evans was a former subscriber of the Herald and wants to be put upon the list again.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeShazer of Dover not only own a fine farm on the edge of Eagle Creek, but are most excellent people advocating decency and sobriety and are raising a family of strong hearty children to walk in their footsteps. They are now milking eight cows and sell the cream daily, but make occasionally cheese for their own use and regret that there is not a cheese factory not too distant, as it is believed that it would pay, and would greatly stimulate the dairy business.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mayle, former residents of this vicinity, but now living at Lents, were visiting acquaintances and old friends here last week. Mr. Mayle says one party at Lents has six cows that clear him $80 a month above all expenses. He sells the milk for which there is a demand that has never been supplied. One cow in this herd gives seven gallons a day.

David Douglas of this place sold 21 head of cattle last week to a Sandy butcher for $350. This herd, by little, were fed largely on the range and were in excellent flesh. It seems strange that cattle will get fat browsing in the timber, but after all they are of the same nature as deer and live in the same manner.

Rev. John A. Logan, a Baptist minister from Cottrell occupied the pulpit at the M. E. Church here last Sunday.

Miss Lillian Avenit returned from the summer school at Oregon City last Saturday. The examination by the new state Superintendent, Mr. Alderman, was something "fierce" and many old teachers who had been teaching 8 or 10 years, gave up in despair. Next winter there will be a scarcity of teachers and in all probability they will go to the other extreme and employ incompetent people.
