A "Five and Ten Cent" Shower.
Encountering a bevy of girls the other day with "Polly" at their head, all giggling and fairly bubbling over with suppressed excitement, I headed off the procession to be literally run into by the same number of boys. It seems that "one of the girls" who is to be a June bride objected seriously to "showers" as she feared to tax the pocketbooks of her friends, so she firmly declined to accept any. But "Polly," always in for a lark, had gathered the clan and they were all going to the "Five and Ten Cent" each selecting one article and then all were to go to the home of the bride-to-be and proceed to "shower" in the good old-fashioned way. An obliging friend was calling upon the unsuspecting victim and had promised to stay until "they" came. They had ordered refreshments sent from a nearby caterer and were just having the time of their lives, as one of the lads expressed it. I next saw the bunch loaded down with all sorts of parcels, including a sprinkling can, carpet beater, clothes line, clothes pins, tack hammer, soap dish, etc. As the young couple were going to housekeeping at once I am sure this shower was really most acceptable.

Bath and Laundry Shower.
A much feted bride had had seemingly every kind of a shower, finally a clever young matron proposed a "bath and laundry" affair and it was a great success.

The twenty guests consulted beforehand, so there were no duplicates. Here is a partial list of the gifts: Clothes line, 7 dozen clothes pins, a bag for same made of denim, the name

Jelly and Pickle Shower.
A bride of this month had a most practical and acceptable shower given her. The guests each brought either a glass of jelly or a jar of some kind of pickles or relish; recipes for each accompanied the gift and the hostess presented an aluminum preserving kettle with a spoon of the same material. Hot buttered toast, orange marmalade and tea was served, with candied ginger and peppermints. The room was decorated with nasturtiums.

Useful Goat.
A good many of the goats of history have been made to look like sheep in the modern commentaries, and the tribe of the goat was considerably exalted the other day when a venerable creature was seen leading to safety 75 sheep whose lives were endangered in a stock yards fire at Kansas City.

Don't cringe—don't flinch, Should fortune pinch And all seem lost; With might and main, TRY, TRY again At any cost.

IN VOGUE

Boleros, sleeveless, and otherwise promise a popularity for the coming season.

King's blue is possibly the shade that heads the colors for spring and summer.

Dim, blurred-looking eastern embroideries are effective on work and handbags.

Sashes and belts of gray satin are strongly effective with gowns of brilliant color.

Some sailor hats are seen with the edge lace frilled. They are known as Georgetownes.

One of the new ideas is the velvet parasol, with a dainty silk lining of becoming hue.

Drop fringes of the crocheted-button or ornament type are becoming popular and are shown in both cotton and silk so that even a wash gown may be fringed if desired.

The Midsummer Hat

THE big picture hat is at its best when midsummer weather calls for its development in lace, or lacy fabrics, and for flower garnitures, gay and dainty. Every one concedes the beauty and elegance of transparent nets, chiffons and millinery braids and they seem to inspire the trimmer with airy fancies which she works out into the poetry of headwear. A certain hat, of fine black chiffon, shirred on a large wire frame (of fine silk-covered wire), was finished with a little touch of silver braid and trimmed with two black plumes. This seems simple enough, but the design was so excellent and beautiful that this particular hat was christened "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in the establishment where it was made and many copies found their way over an appreciative country.

Weak Heart

Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, their heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alternative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no dangerous narcotics nor alcohol.

The ingredients, as attested under oath, are Stone root (Collinsonia Canadensis), Bloodroot (Sanguinaria Canadensis), Golden Seal root (Hydrastis Canadensis), Queen's root (Silphium Lylitatum), Black Cherrybark (Prunus Virginiana), Mandrake root (Podophyllum Peltatum), with triple refined glycerine, prepared in a scientific laboratory in a way that no irritating combination is made.

This tonic contains no alcohol to shrink up the red blood corpuscles; but, on the other hand, it increases their number and they become round and healthy. It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fevers; for the run-down, anemic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing. Stick to this safe and sane remedy, and refuse all "just as good" medicines offered by the druggist who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do you half as much good.
