GRESHAM

Miss E. B. Wilkie will teach the fourth and fifth grades at Cottage Grove this winter.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Thompson left Wednesday to spend a short time at Newport.

Guy Fieldhouse and Geo. Paris went to Astoria last week and then to Seaside for a few days.

J. Patenaude made a business trip to Portland Wednesday.

W. E. Wood made a business trip to Tigerville on the Oregon electric line last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sieret have returned from their mountain home at Welch.

Miss Pearl Fleming, of Portland, visited Miss Helen Hoss for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dickie and daughter, Margie and son George, of Cavalier N. Dak. visited F. A. Holliday and family this week. Mr. Dickie is so well pleased with Oregon that he has invested in Portland and they will make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wood spent Sunday in Troutdale visiting friends.

Mrs. M. Vogel made a trip to Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Grace Quick, of Quincy, is making the home folks a visit this week.

Miss Mary Hansen is preparing to enter Willamette University this fall.

The work of improving the Base Line between the eleven-mile post and the Twelve-Mile House was begun last week. Crushed rock is being put down, the crusher on the Base Line having been started up again. This will complete the work begun last year and left unfinished last winter.

L. P. Manning, carrier on route 3, returned from his vacation last Saturday and resumed his duties on the route. He and family went to the mountains with a wagon and camping outfit and enjoyed their 15 days so well that they described it as being the shortest two weeks of their lives.

The fair buildings are being painted, an arched entrance is being built and the fair grounds are being put in proper condition for the reception of the crowds that will attend when the big show opens on September 21.

E. L. Thorpe, carrier on route No. 2, was taken suddenly ill last Friday evening. Dr. Bittner was called and ordered his patient to take a month off, fearing a nervous breakdown. Miss Hester Thorpe has been serving the route since and will continue to do so until her father's return to duty.

W. F. Honey, and his wealthy associates from South Dakota, who recently purchased the ten acres and home of F. W. Fieldhouse just west of Gresham, have bought 400 acres at Firwood, two miles beyond the town of Sandy. Near this tract two Hood River orchardists have each bought an 80-acre tract, who expect to develop the property. One of the characteristics of this neighborhood is that the large farms are being cut up into 5 and 10 acre lots, the purchaser intending to engage in fruit growing and intensified farming.

Max Schneider, the artist and photographer, is preparing to move into new quarters on Main street. Here he will install a studio and salesroom for pictures, frames, and all other art appliances. He is preparing an elaborate exhibit for the art department at the coming grange fair.

W. H. Bond is attending the Astoria Centennial this week.

F. R. Beals and wife of Tillamook visited Rev. Dunlop and family Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Beals were on their way to visit their old home in the east.

H. G. Harmon is completing some repair work on his residence and putting up some new outbuildings.

John Shattuck of Damascus has just completed one of the nicest modern homes in the neighborhood, Whitney and Anderson of Fairview having the work. The building is 32 by 48, with eight foot porches, six rooms, full plumbed and wired. It is modern in all ways and will be a fine home for the owners and an ornament to the neighborhood.

B. F. Dahlhammer is laid up with a broken shoulder bone. Bicycle accident. Ben doesn't realize his boyhood days are days gone by.

Mayor Shattuck and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sieret and Dr. F. A. Short and family, of Portland, left Wednesday for a trip by auto to Tillamook.

Mrs. R. D. Raker, of Troutdale, and Miss E. B. Johnson, of The Outlook office, visited relatives at Dayton, Ore., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Couley have gone to Seaside for a few weeks.

George Kinney and wife are at their cottage at Seaside.

C. G. Hill is doing carpenter work in Boring this week.

Lester, the five year old son of O. W. Boring at Boring, was severely hurt by being thrown from a horse the first of the week.

W. H. Congdon, proprietor of "The Congdon", reports a big business. Among those registered there this week are: W. H. Snashall Gresham, J. A. Brandes Gresham, K. E. Welch Portland, K. E. Moffet Portland, E. St. John Portland, L. C. Briethaupt Burns, Oregon, H. B. Darling Portland, W. J. Davidson Hood River, J. Kelsey Underwood Washington, Charles E. Corson The Dalles, T. P. Window Portland, C. A. Kidder Pocatonia Ill, Perry Hopkins, Ione Ore., E. J. O'Neil St. Paul Minn., H. C. Barr Chicago Ill., J. A. Patenaude Gresham, E. W. Aylsworth Gresham.

Miss Florence Cleveland of Portland passed through Gresham Thursday on her way to Eagle Creek to visit her grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Preston.

Ed Osborne is erecting a building on his property on Main street. Mr. Max Schneider will occupy it.

Joe Exley and family, of Portland, have moved into Dr. Thompson's bungalow on Maple avenue. Mr. Exley will go into the grocery business with his brother-in-law, the Metzger Bros.

The room formerly occupied by the Bank of Gresham is being remodeled and the drug store will occupy part of it and the telephone company will install their switch boards in the other part.

John Freeman, carrier on Route 4, Gresham, made the Herald office a call Tuesday morning.

Have Dr. Lowe relieve your head and eye ache with a pair of his correct fitting glasses. They cost no more than others and you have the benefit of his skill and more than 20 years experience. He does not go from house to house. Consult him about your eyes and glasses, then Aug. 31 to 4 o'clock Fieldhouse's or at Hotel if it is finished by that time.

Unclaimed Letters

The following letters remain unclaimed for at the Gresham postoffice for the week ending Aug. 19, 1911:

Gentlemen: J. E. Kington, Frank Hoffer, Chas. R. Carr.

Ladies: Miss Edna Ferguson, Mrs. Hilma DeRonne, Miss Manda Gruber, Miss Maria Ely, Mrs. C. S. Campbell.

These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office on September 2nd, 1911. If not delivered before. In calling for the above, please say "Advertised," giving date of list.

I. McCOLL, P. M.

Call at Fieldhouse the Jeweler's Thursday, August 31, to 4 o'clock and have Dr. Lowe show you the new glasses with which you can see all distances; no lines or seams in the glass to catch dirt and strain the eyes; no cement to come apart. They look like young folks glasses. Free demonstrations. Remember the date.

MT. SCOTT NEWS

Whitney and Anderson's building contractors of Fairview visited Lents Monday.

Mrs. Darnall, who has been visiting friends and relatives near Top-ka, Kansas, for the last two months, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. Moss of Kennett Avenue will leave for his homestead in the Siletz country soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan'l. Speigl of Cosmopolis, Wash., were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brister this week.

Work on the new school house is progressing nicely.

Rev. O. W. Taylor will officiate at St. Pauls Mission at the usual hour August 27.

Mrs. Emma Griffin and children arrived from Colfax, Washington, Monday. They are former residents of this place and come here to reside in the future. Mrs. Griffin's father, Mr. Kalcott, lives here.

Mrs. Abbie Basse, wife of the fast little Northwest league ball player, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buchanan, for a few days.

Mrs. W. R. Swope, who recently underwent an operation, is reported improving, after a severe relapse.

The benefit ball given Saturday night, was a great success and highly enjoyed by all. A most entertaining feature was the union music furnished by the Hodgson orchestra of Portland. This same high-class music will be heard again Saturday evening, September 2, when another dance will be given in the Grange hall.

Fire Chief Rayburn says that all members of the Lents Volunteer Fire Department are urged to be present at the meeting Monday night as much business will come up for transaction.

Levi F. Remington noted Quaker preacher and now president of the college at Newberg, Oregon, will preach in Lents Friends church, Sunday evening, August 27th, at 8. Do not miss, this rare treat.

C. F. Cabe and family spent a few days this week sojourning at Long Beach.

Geo. Georgenson, of the local ball team, spent a pleasant outing at Seaside, returning this week.

"Slim" Oliver left for his home in Tillamook Sunday. He was accompanied by "Dutch" Guyes and Sid Price, who contemplate a little fishing and hunting expedition in the southern part of the state.

Italian Prunes and Pears Wanted

All fruit must be green and firm. Growers wishing to sell me fruit must bring it in green (not ripe). In some localities prunes will be ready to ship by the 15th of August. I will pay highest cash prices for all early fruit and prices will decline as the season advances. Boxes furnished.
