Thicker Than Water.
Rather significant was the celebration of the Fourth of July in Honolulu, with two British cruisers to participate in the exercises and with British officers in attendance upon an official public reception of independence day.

This is strongly indicative of the brotherly feeling existing between the two countries, of the oft-quoted sentiment that "blood is thicker than water," and of the kinship of the English-speaking people.

The mingling of the British army and navy officials with the Americans in celebration of the anniversary of this country's independence is suggestive of the old soldiers' reunions in which veterans of the Union and Confederate armies fraternize and march together in procession and are brothers under the skies who have forgotten any past differences that engendered them for a time.—San Antonio Express

A slight cold is not taken seriously enough, and too often neglected. Isn't it better to cure it at cold right up with Hamlin's Wizard Oil than to let it run to Pneumonia or Consumption?

Strange Coincidence.
Partick churches (near Glasgow, Scotland), suffered from the failure of the electric light the other Sunday night—just at the height of a thunderstorm, when it was most needed. One minister had just read the first two lines of the hymn, "As darker, darker fall around, The shadows of the night—" when plump went out the light and the church was in darkness for a quarter of an hour.

Same Girl.
"Dad, I want to marry Tottie Twinkletoes. I hope you won't blame me for wanting to marry a chorus girl."
"Not at all, my boy, I wanted to marry her myself when I was about your age."

Unheard Of.
Jorkins—How did you ever come into possession of such a cheap-looking umbrella as that? Dorkins—Why, I got this umbrella in a very peculiar way—I bought it.—The Pathfinder.

WIT and HUMOR

Man Admitted to Theater on Pass Reluctant to Express Disapproval Like Rest of Audience.

The play was an execrably bad one, and the company playing it was even worse. When the curtain fell on the first act, sounds of marked disapprobation were heard from all parts of the house. One man alone sat quiet.
At the close of the second act a perfect tornado of moans, cat-calls and hisses broke out. Still the man sat unmoved. At last a man sitting in the next seat turned to him and said:
"Pardon me, but are you not disgusted with this wretched play?"
"I am, indeed," heartily concurred the silent one.

"Then why don't you signify your displeasure like the rest of us?"
"Well, you see, it's this way with me. I am here on a free ticket, and as I am getting something for nothing, I hardly feel justified in expressing my disapproval; but I'll tell you what," he concluded with emphasis, "if this confounded play gets much worse I am going out to the box office and buy a ticket, and then I will come back and hiss like the rest of you."— Metropolitan Magazine.

After the Facts.
As a small boy was standing on one of the best library chairs and clawing with his grubby hands some of the choicest bindings in the bookcase, his proprietor entered suddenly and cried rather sharply: "What are you doing at that bookcase, Wilfred?"
"Trying to find the history of the United States, father."
"What for?"
"Why, Joe Billings, at our school, says Mike Donlin played with the Giants year before last, and I say he didn't."

The Soubrette—Why is a campaign orator like a schoolbook publisher?
The Comedian—Easy. They are both spell-binders.

To Tell the Truth.
Boston girls are not all cold.
There are women in Chicago who have small feet.
There are a few native born Americans in St. Louis.
Also in Milwaukee.

There are a great many southern people who don't say "Sub" and "You all" for the singular "You." We are personally acquainted with several Georgians who are not colonels.

Lost.
"I spent more than $5,000 on my daughter's voice. Now she has gone and got married, and I suppose she will never think of trying to sing again."
"It is too bad."
"Yes. The money would have kept her and her husband in fairly comfortable circumstances for nearly a year."

Feels Badly.
"A guilty conscience needs no accuser," observed the moralizer.
"That's so," assented Deacon Flimmer. "When a pillar of the church secretly a quart bottle of whisky in his hip pocket he imagines he looks like a hunchback."

Wasted.
Mrs. Finefeather—Are you taking your husband abroad this year?
Mrs. Benton—No, I decided last year when he insisted upon speaking of the Venetian gondolas as canal boats that the real charm of Europe is lost upon him.

Millionaire's Philosophy.
"But, doctor, do you really believe that it's harder than going through the eye of a needle for a rich man to enter heaven?"
"That is what the good book tells us."
"Then what's the use of trying?"— Exchange.

No Help.
A St. Louis traveling man, making his first trip through North Dakota, woke up one May morning to find the ground white with snow.
"For Heaven's sake," he asked the hotel clerk disgustedly, "when do you have summer out in this God-forsaken country?"
"I don't know," replied the clerk,
"I have only been here eleven months."—Success Magazine.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Easy Way Out.
The day was sultry, the spectators were restless, and the judge irritable.
"The next person," he said, "that disturbs the order of this court will be sent home to stay."
"Hurrah! Herroo!" yelled the prisoner on trial, jumping up and down in the witness box.—Success Magazine.

Searchlights Prove of Value.
The high power electric searchlights with which vessels are equipped on the Great Lakes prove most useful in the early spring nights when the water is covered with a partially broken ice field. By means of the light openings are located, thus often saving many hours.

The Beautiful Women of Today.
It is a satisfying reflection that the fame of the noted beauties of the day will go down to posterity not as the artificially bedecked and painted heroines of old, but conspicuous and celebrated by reason of their splendid manifestation of health, of youth, of comeliness.—Ladies' Field.

MAKES CLOTHES WHITE.

day solved by RED CROSS BALL BLUE. The blue that is all blue.
Solid package; no liquid to leak or spill. No adulteration. Made for 20 years and used everywhere.
A large package only 10 cents.
Makes the clothes snow white. Less bottle, less waste. More satisfactory results and practical economy. ASK YOUR GROCER.

Altered His Plans.
"Papa is going to give me an automobile for my birthday," said the fair young thing.
"Is he?" said the caller, surprised.
"I was thinking of that myself, but now I shall bring you a box of sweets."

Work in Harmony.
In Brazil monkeys and parrots not only roost in the same trees but work for mutual benefit. The parrots gnaw the big nuts loose from the tree, let them fall in order to crack them and the monkeys tear the husks asunder, gather the nuts and divide them with the parrots.

Be Honest.
Honesty is also one of the fundamental principles it never pays to break. If to be a good fellow means you are to sneak, or steal, or lie, then you dig a pit into which one donkey certainly will fall, and his name will be spelled just like yours.

Remedies are Needed Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Bilioussness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.
The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature
You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Joe Rank of Atchison tells this story: "A colored man was charged with stealing $9.70. His lawyer, after a long fight, succeeded in securing his acquittal. After the acquittal the lawyer told the darkey that he ought to have some pay for his hard work.
'Have you got any money at all?' Inquired the lawyer. 'I've still got that $9.70,' said the negro.—Kansas City Journal.

Pettit's Eye Salve It's Use Will

Weak, Sore Eyes
Function of Religion.
"Religion within those souls which it really invades is—one may say—a value that is unique and infinite; attributed not by imagination, but by consciousness, properly so called, to certain ideas, to certain feelings, to certain actions with a view to ends which surpass humanity."—E. Bon-troux.

Laid the Foundation.
March 24, 1811, which saw John Jacob Astor's brigantine Tonquin enter the Columbia river, was a great date mark in American history. Around the fur trading post which his men established near the mouth of that stream, close to the present Astoria, was built the first American settlement seen on the Pacific.—Leslie's.

They Couldn't Help It.
A cross-eyed man in a street car turned around and bowed to a friend coming in, and almost every man in the car bowed to him.

Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"I send you here with the picture of my fifteen year old daughter Alice, who was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was pale, with dark circles under her eyes, weak and irritable. Two different doctors treated her and called it Green Sickness, but she grew worse all the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking three bottles she has regained her health, thanks to your medicine. I can recommend it for all female troubles."—Mrs. L. A.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.
Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, headache, dragging-down sensations, faint-health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegerestored to health by its use.
