Mrs. J. W. Bachmeyer has been elected as state delegate to the missionary convention to convene in Wichita, Kan., from October 19 to 25. Mrs. Fletcher Homan of Salem is also a delegate to this convention.

Mrs. Marie Dinger has gone to Sublett, Ind., to take up her residence on a land claim at that place.

Mrs. S. R. Bradford plans the erection of a bungalow on her property on Main street near Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Coffman, of Lents, visited at the Culy home last Sunday.

M. Carman and family moved to Kern Park this week, which will make it more convenient for Lee Carman, who is one of the Herald force.

The new residence of John Brown, being erected on the corner of Section line and Main street is progressing nicely and promises to be one of the handsomest dwellings in town.

Mrs. Emil Kardell, left hurriedly Tuesday evening for California, called there by the illness of a relative.

The Gresham Circle, Women of Woodcraft, has revived the order for the winter season and elected the following officers: Past guardian neighbor, Mrs. L. P. Manning; guardian neighbor, Mrs. Carrie Powell; advisor, Mrs. John Bliss; banker, Mrs. N. McWhirter; clerk, Mrs. J. H. Metzger; magician, Mrs. Kent; attendant, Mrs. F. A. Zimmerman; inner sentinel, Mrs. Ella Hornish.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conley have as guests, Mrs. Conley's sister, Mrs. R. Tisdale of Tangent, Or., and Miss Ettie and Ernest Conley of Springfield, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lansdowne have as guests L. L. Peak and wife, of Parsons, Kan. The Peaks expect to locate here.

Plans are being made for the Halloween social, which is an annual event for the public library, and it is in this way that funds are raised to meet many of the expenses of the library and reading room.

Dr. Lowe the Optician will be in Gresham Thursday, October 19. Don't fail to have him test your eyes for glasses.

The new confectionery and ice cream parlor recently opened is the neatest and most up-to-date we have visited in some time, barring none. The old Regner building was completely re-modeled to accommodate it and it certainly is attractive.

Ray Wheeler, our genial tonsorial artist, is preparing to leave the first of the week for a short hunting trip in Southern Oregon.

Harry Crenshaw, wife and baby visited at Lone Grove Farm Sunday.

Our old friend, E. P. Smith, is very ill at this writing.

Mrs. Lizzie Simonsen, of The Dalles, visited at the home of Mrs. C. W. Doane Tuesday. She is spending a few days with her son, Dalles, at Lents.

A new cement walk is being built in front of the City Bakery. Gresham will soon be noted far and near for her excellent walks and good streets.

Verne Chalker was in town Monday. Verne is writing life insurance now.

Sobieski, the celebrated Polish orator, will be the first on the program that commences a series of five entertainments to be given by the Meneley Lyceum Bureau under the auspices of the Commercial Club. Sobieski needs no recommendation, he stands as the highest in his class. Hear him. Season tickets will be sold at $1.50.

Several grain fields, which were caught in the September rains, are showing a second growth. All of them are ruined and worthless and have been turned into pastures for cows, not even having been cut and shocked.

Building, building, everyone seems to be building. Surely the knell of the hammer drives despair to the heart of the knocker.

Mrs. E. E. Chipman, who sprained her knee by falling from the merry-go-round at the fair, is improving slowly. An examination by an X-Ray specialist showed no bones broken, but the injury was just as painful as a break and will keep her confined to the house longer.

A touring car caught fire from an explosion of the gasoline tank near Pleasant Home last Friday, and was entirely destroyed where it stood in the middle of the road. Its remains stand there yet. Its occupants escaped and are unknown.

The Fair Association cleared enough money this year to pay off all claims in cash and the secretary is mailing vouchers to all who held claims of any kind. The fair was a success financially, and efforts will begin early to prepare for next year's event.

Arrangements were perfected on Monday evening by the Gresham Commercial Club for a series of lectures and entertainments by the Meneley Lyceum Bureau. These will be five in all, one each month, beginning Monday, October 23.

Tomato-growing on the Columbia slough this year is almost a failure. The crop is about 50 per cent short of last year and the fruit is not ripening as it should. Over 300 acres are planted to vines, but there will be very little profit as importations from other places keep the prices down.

Enrolment at nearly all the country schools except Gresham is lighter this year than usual. The reason is not given, but probably many children have not been enrolled yet who will come in later on.

C. W. Doane writes from California, where he is employed by the Shaw-Batcher Co., that things are progressing nicely and that he likes the weather and climate just fine.

WORK ON DAM AND TUNNEL TO BE STOPPED

Rumor has it that work on the dam and tunnel near Cherryville will be shut down temporarily at least. Why this is, no one can tell as the cement, several thousand tons of which are stored near the dam or already beginning to set and if not used at once will be practically useless by spring as it will set much faster when the winter rains begin in earnest. Men are coming and going continually. The employment agencies extort a fee of $2.00 apiece for sending them out and frequently when they accumulate too rapidly they are furnished such miserable meals, that are completely starved out and a new batch arrives with the experiences. All kinds of schemes are put forward to skin the poor who are being robbed on every hand. We are a good ways from the millennium or the teachings of the Golden Rule. How much better are we than cannibals who eat one another. Thank fortune some progress is being made and slowly we are learning that selfishness and greed are the ruin of a nation, state or individual.

FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

Sorry we weren't invited to the wedding last week of the Lents Reporter and Beaver State Herald which took place at the office of the Mt. Scott Publishing Company at Lents. H. A. Darnall performed the ceremony and Dalles Simonsen was best man. Only a few relatives and friends were present. We extend hearty congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous life.—Gresham Outlook.

THERE ARE OTHERS.

"We won't print any such stuff as that!" said the editor loftily, as he handed back the manuscript. "Well, you needn't be so haughty about," retorted the irregular contributor. "You're not the only one who won't print it."—London Tit-Bits.

G. A. R. NEWS

At our last meeting of Reben Wilson Post of September 5th, we had an open meeting for the Post and Circle. The object was to agree on some kind of an entertainment in the near future, to raise money for the maintenance of the Post and Circle, both treasuries are getting low, and I believe the good people of Lents and vicinity will right royally respond to the boys who saved this nation and its free institutions and made it possible for others to enjoy the fruits of our sacrifices and suffering in the battle fields and on the marches in the hot climate of the sunny south. We will give you a good entertainment. The program will be announced later on. John Walrod.

Don't trifle with a cold is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in case of a child. There is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds in children. It is safe and sure. For sale by Gresham druggists.

CHECK IMMIGRATION TEN CANADIAN FARMS

Louisiana Awakens to The Fact That United States is Losing Homesteaders

The State of Louisiana with many million acres of now uncultivated but highly productive soil, a mild climate which permits a series of crops to be grown on the same land each year, and a net work of navigable canals and streams which insures cheap transportation, will bid for the immigration Canada is now getting from the United States. In order to make the bid most effective, a Louisiana Agricultural Exhibit Commission has been appointed by the Governor, and supplied with funds by the Parishes, or Counties of the State, for the purpose of gathering exhibits and data concerning agricultural production, cost and profits, health and market conditions, character of soil and climate, etc., and thus equipped meet the people of the North and West face to face.

The Commission will demonstrate that with only about 5,000,000 acres in cultivation out of 27,000,000 acres comprising the State, the people of Louisiana have prospered, her planters have enjoyed wealth and affluence, and her farmers have never known want. The plantation or overlord system, is now rapidly disappearing, and the great estates are being subdivided and cultivated by smaller independent farmers. The cutover forests are being cleared and opened up to settlement. The wet alluvial lands are being drained and made available to the plow. In this manner new tracts of virgin lands are being made available and the State in its official capacity is taking time by the forelock, and is going after farmer families to occupy these lands.

The first exhibit the Louisiana Commission will give will be at the United States Land and Irrigation Exposition, at Chicago November 18 to December 9. Others will follow later. The object of the Commission is to exhibit average rather than abnormal products, so that the farmer seeking accurate information may learn exactly what the soils of Louisiana produce under normal conditions.

No land will be sold at these exhibits, no private enterprise will be exploited and no information will be given out except such as has been carefully investigated and compiled by the Commission itself. The Chairman of the Commission, Dr. W. R. Dodson of Baton Rouge, is the Dean and Director of The State College of Agriculture and Agricultural Experiment Stations.

Other members are: Robert Glenk, New Orleans, Curator Louisiana State Museum; Louis N. Bruengerhoff, Shreveport, the active head of the Louisiana State Fair Association; M. Leigh Alexander of Alexandria, who represents the Agricultural interests of North Louisiana, and A. B. Graves of New Orleans, who represents the Agricultural interests of South Louisiana.

$10,000 SAVED BY STUDENTS OF CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL

University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore., Oct.—The aim of the correspondence department of the State University is to offer free to non-residence students all the courses included in the curricula of the University that can be taught by mail. Last year this department saved to non-resident students of the state between eight and ten thousand dollars. That is, they furnished free to five hundred students courses that would cost from sixteen to twenty dollars apiece, if taken from some private eastern correspondence school. This year, if the hopes of Dr. H. B. Leonard, an instructor in the mathematical department, who has given a great deal of his outside time, free, to the directing of the work, are realized, the enrollment of the correspondence department for the current year will be doubled and eighteen or twenty thousand dollars kept within the state, that would otherwise go east.
