

LENTS LOCAL NEWS

E. M. Calkins brought to this office a few specimens of Burbank potatoes that run 8 and 12 to a hill and average 7-8 of a pound to the potato. He says he has two acres of these and will harvest about 300 sacks. At the present price they will net him $450. Not so bad for Lents is it?

Old Mac, proprietor of the Lents Cafe made a business and pleasure trip to Sandy Sunday.

All electric power was off for two hours Monday, caused by the accident at the Lents Junction sub-station.

M. K. Hedge, the hardware man, was a Portland visitor Monday.

We still hear rumors of another motor truck line from Portland to Lents.

We have a "full house" says landlord Phillip of Kelly Butte "hotel." And yet each week he adds a few more. Wonder where he puts 'em. This is a free board and lodging institution, the only drawback being the clause that says "all must work."

The new theatre is rapidly nearing completion. When finished it will be one of the finest, if not the finest in the city of Portland.

"Farmer" Strickrod of Mount Scott "Heights" was a Lents visitor last Saturday.

Supt. Reynolds, of the Mt. Scott Park Cemetery was a caller Monday.

Mrs. F. E. Cadwell, mother of T. Y. Cadwell of this place, pleasantly surprised him Monday eve, by dropping in on him while at supper. Mrs. Cadwell came from Rochelle Illinois and will now make her home here.

J. C. Mount & Son, the local furniture establishment, have constructed a neat little office room in the rear end of their store.

Noah Kesterson has sold his blacksmith shop at Sycamore to transient parties.

Marvin Hedge believes in advertising and depends on this to help build up his business. He does not confine himself to the columns of the newspaper, however, and this week you may have noticed his illuminated paint signs on the front corner of the store. Marvin says it pays to advertise and he is proving it, for in a short space of time he has built up a trade and stocked his store until now it is second to none in the whole district.

Mrs. Chas. Blakely, who came to attend the funeral of her brother Delbert Eldred will return this week to her home at Homestead, in the eastern part of the state. Mr. Blakely has a mail route in that section. They were formerly residents of Lents.

Mr. Ginder and family are located on Kennett street in Evergreen Park.

The bi-monthly meeting of the ladies of St. Peter's Parish was held at the residence of Mrs. Reidy at Gates Crossing. Game and other amusements were enjoyed and a bounteous repast was set out by the hostess.

The H. H. Class No. 7 of the Methodist Church Sunday School to the number of 23, with their teacher Mrs. Ella Brown, celebrated Columbus Day with a 12 o'clock banquet in the basement of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were guests of honor. The afternoon passed only to quickly with games and taffy pulling. At 5 o'clock all departed feeling it was good to be a Sunday School Scholar.

The sweetness of low prices cannot atoned for the bitterness of low quality. That is why we sell high-grade goods, quoth manager Hedge of the Lents Hardware Company.

After alighting from a Sellwood bound streetcar at Nashville street at 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning, C. E. Bancroft, 27 years old, living at 26th and Division streets, fell under the moving car and both legs were severed between the knees and ankles.

Mrs. B. O. Northup, a sister of H. A. Darnall, visited in Lents last Saturday.

J. J. Johnson, wife and child, visited in Lents last Sunday.

When asked as to when, if ever, work would resume at the mill, Mr. Anderson of the Miller-Mowry Lumber Co. replied "just as soon as the wholesale market picks up." At present he says it is pretty dull and not enough orders in sight to run both mills. The local mill is run in conjunction with the East Side Mills. When in operation it employs from 65 to 80 men and suspension of work has been greatly felt here.

The new theatre will open some time next week, probably on Saturday. This announcement comes as the answer of the ad that has been running in The Herald for some time, reading "It's coming—what is it?" Watch for the exact date of opening—show your appreciation of the owners' efforts to give Lents a modern show house by attending on opening day.

H. A. Darnall, returned Tuesday from a ten-days tour of the southern part of the state in the interest of the State Grange. He reports a most enjoyable time.

A new electric sign adorns the front of our friend, old Mac's place, the Lents Cafe. Mac is there when it comes to progressiveness.

Nothing of importance transpired at Wednesday night's meeting of the depositors of the defunct bank.
