

FOR LAKESIDE OR SUBURBAN SITE.

Design 845, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

Owing to the large amount of piazza space this plan is an excellent one for a lake or suburban home. The one large living room occupies the front of the house. Back of it are the kitchen and dining room, with a pantry between them. The combination stairway gives access to the second story from the living room, dining room or kitchen. The first story can be finished in Washington fir or birch, the second story in pine to paint. Size of house is twenty-eight feet wide and twenty-six feet deep. Cost to build, exclusive of heat and plumbing, $2,300.

By special arrangement with me the editor of this paper will furnish one complete set of plans and specifications of design No. 845 for $17.

COLUMN OF DOPE OF LOCAL INTEREST

COLUMBUS CLUB LOSES ANOTHER

Taken Down the Line By Mount Vernon to Tune of 1 to 0.

Even the village team of Mount Angel put it over the Catholic Club of Portland, defeating them at that place Sunday to the mournful tune of 1 to 0. Columbus, it will be remembered, was at one time the claimant of the amateur championship. Since asserting their superiority they have not only had opportunity enough to prove it but have been materially assisted, both financially and otherwise. But they did not have the staying qualities—in other words, their luck left them, for every fan that witnessed the game with the Gresham-Lents team realized it that a stroke of luck and nothing else that won the second and deciding game. Rupert humbled them, and now comes Mount Angel. Isn't this proof enough? In the Sunday game only three hits were allowed Columbus, while the villagers pounded out six safe ones. Mount Angel made the loneliest in the fourth inning after two were out. With a man on third Scherbach singled, bringing in the winning run.

LENTS AND CRESTON IN 0 TO 0 BATTLE

Barker, Porter and Graves Are Stars; Interest in Game Aroused

As yet the Lents football team is undefeated. Sunday they played a 0 to 0 game with the Creston huskies in the latter diamond. Interest in the game is keen and may even yet rival baseball. Coach Johnson is elated over the showing made by his aggregation and intimates he is going aster bigger game shortly. The lineup of Sundays game was:

| | | |
|--------------|-------|-----------|
| Lents | Pos. | Creston |
| Wing | C. | Fitzguald |
| Hone | R. E. | Williams |
| Barker | L. E. | Might |
| Johnson | R. T. | Peterson |
| Boiland | L. T. | Odell |
| Stevens | R. G. | Davis |
| Forte | L. G. | Anderson |
| C. Tillman | G. | R. Teed |
| M. Tillman | L. H. | H. Teed |
| Porter | K. H. | Parks |
| Boon, Graves | F. | Rocertson |

Barker, Porter and Graves were the stellar lights, playing the game like veterans and commanding a great deal of attention.

HERE'S A STINGER FOR RUPERT TO ANSWER

HUBBARD, Or., Oct. 25.—(Sporting Editor.)—I would like to ask Red Rupert, manager of the so-called semi-professional team of the Willamette Valley, if he has entirely forgotten about the drubbing that we (Hubbard) gave him for a reason.

Why do the scribes forget there was a Willamette Valley League from which no team was ever barred, and that said league finished its season, and, further, that Rupert and his braves last season found the "going" in that league so fast they could not keep in sight of the pennant winners. The pennant winners of this league are the "Semi Pro Champions of the Valley."
(Signed) P. L. COOK.

JUNIORS ORGANIZE FOOTBALL LEAGUE

A committee of the Archer & Wiggins Company's football League is framing the schedule of the organization. The season will open Saturday, Eleven clubs—Sunnyside, Albina Juniors, F. E. W. Mohawks, Knob Hills, Willamette Heights, Portland Academy Juniors, Y. M. C. A. Juniors, Parks, White Caps and Vernons—are in the league. The league will be divided into two classifications. One division will play Saturday afternoons while the other will play Sunday. Sunnysides, Willamette Heights, Portland Academy Juniors, Y. M. C. A. Juniors and Vernons will play Saturdays. The teams will play for a trophy.

PLANS AGAIN ENLARGED.

For the third time, the plans for the San Diego Panama-California International Exposition, 1915, have been recast and enlarged. This was made necessary by the constantly enlarging scope of the Exposition. Frank P. Allen, Jr., Director of Works, announces that work will begin on the buildings in November. It is predicted that this Exposition will be the most beautiful, unique and artistic ever held.

THE NAVAL REVIEW.

President Taft is expected to review the Atlantic fleet at New York on October 31st. It will be a magnificent naval pageant. On the same day the Pacific fleet will be reviewed at Los Angeles.

Foreign nations are likely to wonder what this great dual demonstration means, but it's really none of their business. If they learn something about our ability to put a great fleet in active service at short notice, that is merely incidental.

IN NEWSPAPER ROW

An exchange prints the following example of twentieth century wit:
First Burglar—Hey, Chimmy, how are ye?
Second Burglar—Oh, things couldn't be worse.
First Burglar—Why, how's that?
Second Burglar—Why, I broke into a house an' found it was occupied by a newspaper reporter.

First Burglar—My gracious! Terrible! How much did you lose?
We take this occasion to observe that here is one instance where the lawyers do not have to bear the brunt of a burglar story.

Newspaper reporters assert that in the solving of most big crimes they do most of the sleuthing, the police gaining much of their information from the newspapers and newspaper men. If this be the case let us be the first to suggest that the taxpayers pay the reporters and not the police for hawkshaw work. Perhaps here after all these years of research is found a substitute for the familiar sleuths that do not sleuth.

THE NEWSBOY MYSTERY

Newsboy—Great mystery! Fifty victims! Paper, mister?
"Here, boy, I'll take one."
"Say, boy, there's nothing of the kind in this paper."
"That's the mystery gov'nor; you are the fifty-first victim."—Life.

It is very clear that Dr. Wiley is the man on top. This gives joy to the consumer and anguish of heart to the unscrupulous manufacturer and trader.

The bathtub trust has been dissolved. If the same fate would only overtake the bathtub or bathroom politician what a blessing it would be.

The chains of habit are generally too small to be felt till they are too strong to be broken.

As with sunbeams so with words, the more condensed they are the greater their power.

Hard words and hailstones are alike in their ability to do a lot of harm.

Some people have strange ideas as to business morality. They are very exact in dealing with other men in business, but when it comes to their relations with the national government their conduct is sometimes very different. Men who would under no consideration defraud a private individual do not hesitate to defraud the customs of thousands of dollars, and in thus defrauding to perjure themselves up to the hilt. It is a queer conscience that leads men thus to differentiate, and as an ethical matter it would be instructive to know how long a man will go on cheating the government before he begins to cheat an individual.

THE SOLACE.

OUR home is rather humble, O Maud, the roof is on the bum; the kitchen table's wrapper-jawed, the chairs are out of plumb. The stairway railing's badly hacked, the screen door has no catch, our crockery is mostly cracked, the glassware doesn't match. I do not blame you that you sigh and shed a tear that smarts, when you see rich dames scooting by in gorgeous chug-chug carts. We have this comfort, though, my pet—a joy that never sours: We're absolutely out of debt, and what we have is ours. I'd rather use a sway-backed chair, attired in garments frayed, than loil on divan rich and rare, for which I hadn't paid. Some day I hope to take you, dear, a trip around the globe, and you will make the queens look queer when in your jeweled robe; but until I can raise the price, to give you gems, my pet, this cheap john lay-out must suffice—I will not go in debt.—Walt Mason.

Bees For Small Farmer

The bee is a lucrative side line for the regular farmer, but there is also a wide field for the bee man on these projects where everything tends toward specialization and where the farmers organize for the standardization and marketing of their crops. On nearly all the projects small tracts for the purpose may be purchased at reasonable rates. On many of them there are model towns laid out at intervals of a few miles. The business lots are grouped around a central square, and near the outer boundaries of the townships the lots contain several acres each. These large lots, surrounded by wide areas of new agricultural lands devoted largely to the raising of alfalfa, are ideal locations for apiaries. They are sold at very reasonable rates, and afford opportunities for engaging in a business which pays large returns on the investment. The average price of bees in the West is probably about $5 a hive. The manager of a large apiary on one of the irrigated tracts gives the average of his hives as 76 pounds of surplus honey per annum. At ten cents per pound the returns would be $7.60. In addition to that the increase averages 100 per cent from year to year, doubling the original investment and making a total of about 150 per cent profit each year on the original investment.

Most likely it is a surprise to the majority of people that the majority in California for the "recall" was greater than that for the "initiative and referendum." For both amendments the majority was overwhelming, but that for the recall exceeds that for the initiative and referendum by several thousand. That verdict probably means that the people of California are dissatisfied with some court decisions in their own state and elsewhere, a conviction that the judiciary, as well as other officials, is not immaculate, and that the best corrective for judicial and other shortcomings lies in the power of the people to bring the offenders to account. Evidently, also, the contention that the power to recall will lessen reverence for the courts and make judges the mere instruments of demagogues did not weigh with the Californians.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice gives Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Kick the Printer

In the city of Brooklyn, N. Y., there has been for many years a conspicuous signboard outside an office which reads, "KICK THE PRINTER."

Bibulous persons sometimes go inside to carry out the apparent request, but they discover that the printer is a gentleman by the name of Kick.

In every town there are persons who, if they do not actually feel like kicking the printer—the newspaper man—at any rate do a lot of kicking at the way he conducts his paper.

Please DON'T kick the printer; he is doing the best he can.

And what he does for the town and community, despite his occasional mistakes, may be a great deal more than the kickers themselves are doing. Did THAT ever occur to you?

We are all neighbors in this town. What helps one helps the others. What hurts one hurts the others. Every community is a mutual benefit association, whether organized or just running wild. The printer is a charter member.

If you had no printer—no newspaper—how would you like that? Do you know what happens to towns that don't support a newspaper? Nothing happens. Nothing ever happens in a town like that. As soon as things begin to happen in a town the newspaper comes along and tells about them.

The newspaper boosts the town. It records progress and offers suggestions, by the editor or the readers, as to further progress. Every copy of every issue advertises the town. This is all free advertisement. It costs the town nothing. It costs the people nothing. It is a part of the business.

In view of this fact, which nobody can dispute, it is much better to pat the printer on the shoulder now and then or to speak kindly of him than to kick him.

NO; DON'T KICK THE PRINTER.
