

LENTS LOCAL NEWS

C. W. Runkel was visiting with Dr. Mc Sloy and family Wednesday.

R. E. Allen, our genial townsman, returned from an extended trip in the South Dakota country this week.

Local news of interest, whether of yourself, your family or your friends, is not only given space but welcomed by the editor. If you have anything of this nature in mind, why not send it in?

M. K. Hedge, mother and father, will occupy the cottage on Main street for the winter. It has been completely remodeled and painted.

C. F. McCulloch broke his leg when he fell from his motorcycle while speeding along on the Oregon City road one day this week. Dr. McSloy was called and the leg attended to. He is reported as getting along nicely.

C. C. Christensen returned Monday from Montana where he has spent the month.

FOR SALE—One share of Multnomah and Clackamas Telephone Stock. Herald, Lents, Ore.

Mrs. Earl Stewart, of Metzger, visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. L. Piper last Tuesday.

Mr. Alton King and family of Portland are now living in Lents.

Magnolia Camp R. N. A. will give a whist and dancing party at Grange hall Friday, Nov. 11.

C. H. Hansicke, city treasurer of Kelso, Wash., and an old friend of Cashier Rostad of the Multnomah State Bank, was looking over Lents last week with the idea of establishing himself in the hardware business here. He seemed very favorably impressed.

Mrs. C. L. Geselle of Sac City, Iowa, joined her husband here last Tuesday. Mr. Geselle is a pharmacist in the employ of the Lents Pharmacy. Mrs. Geselle was accompanied by her daughter Ruth. They have rented the Chase cottage at Grays Crossing where they will reside and eventually open an art studio.

The County Court has at last taken steps towards the assistance of the Haskins family and has also looked into the matter of assisting the widow Harris. A representative of the Herald called and asked that this be done and the very next day the officials visited these families.

The suit of the Receiver of the Mt. Scott Bank vs. Boyd M. Hamilton Safe Co. was decided in favor of the Receiver before Judge Morrow in the Circuit Court. It was brought for the collection of an accommodation note of $1,000 which was ordered paid. The suit against E. J. Edwards for the same kind of note to the extent of $950 will come up soon for a hearing.

The Women of Woodcraft were hostesses at a delightful Whist and Dancing party given in the Grange hall Wednesday eve. A large crowd was present. The Isis theatre orchestra furnished music by which the light fantastic was tripped.

Mr. Taylor, the local photographer was a pleasant caller Thursday and incidentally ordered The Herald sent to his old friend, H. G. Hansen at Watson, Minn.

Don't forget the Bazaar to be given by the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church at the Grange Hall.

Mr. Darnall will visit the Columbia County Pomona at Yanktown on Saturday the 4th.

Ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a Bazaar during the week of Nov. 10 to 17th.

The Mt. Scott Publishing Co. is treating its building front to a coat of paint.

Sh!—Here's a good one—but keep it dark! You know for several days Manager Hedge, of the Lents Hardware Co. has been industriously engaged in "building a shack." So well so good, but when asked what he was building he evaded with the answer: "a chicken coop." Developments indicate otherwise. Chicken coops do not generally have glass doors, neither are they apt to have A-No. 1 Rustic. And then too, when Hedge actually engages in manual labor, there is something besides a chicken in the coop.

Mrs. Overman, formerly of Lents, called on the Herald Thursday, and visited friends in Evergreen Park.

Mrs. Henry Page spent Thursday afternoon shopping in Portland.

Work on the streets was commenced today. It is proposed to put them in shape before another rain sets in.

Emery Webb and Billy Boland returned from Dallas this week, where they have been employed.

A chance for you to show your appreciation of the Public Library will be offered you next week when an entertainment will be given in the Grange hall Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Simonsen returned this week from their honeymoon spent in Hood River and The Dalles. They report an enjoyable trip but say that the weather is rather chilly in the eastern part of the state.

A. Rice is employed at Lents and will probably move his family there.

Mrs. Robinson returned home Tuesday from Dilley, where she spent the past week with her daughter.

Demonstration at this Store November 9, 10, 11--3 Days

CHI-NAMEL

This is not a Sale! But a chance for you to learn how easy it is to finish any kind of woodwork. We will show you how to Stencil that Cushion Cover, Curtain, Wall or even your Furniture with little expense. Graining makes old floors new. You will like this fun. See our washable wall Finish in 16 Shades.

THE TIME

NOV. 9-10-11

THE PLACE

LENTS HARDWARE CO.

THE GIRL

PRETTY DEMONSTRATOR

LENTS HARDWARE CO.

Phone Tabor 1091

"WE INVITE YOUR BUSINESS"

Home 2311

Miss Dora Meyers of Lents Junction was a pleasant caller Wednesday.

W. S. Uren of Oregon City called on The Herald Friday, and renewed acquaintances in Lents.

Lents Grange will meet on Saturday the 11th as usual, on the second Saturday. Quite a large class of candidates are expected to be present.

Miss Anna Fowler, with the Ohio Varnish Co. will demonstrate Chi-Namel Varnishes, Washable Wall Tone and Stencil outfits at the Lents Hardware Co's. store, Thursday, Friday and Saturday Nov. 9-10-11.

A large and appreciative audience listened to the musical given under the leadership of Mrs. Chas. Daniels at the M. E. Church last Friday eve. Those who were present say it was a rare treat. A good offering was taken.

Mrs. F. C. Ellerbe, who recently moved to Lents, was a caller Tuesday. Her dressmaking ad appears elsewhere.

The Lents Hardware Co. have taken the agency for plumbing fixtures and can now furnish anything in that line. They have also engaged a licensed plumber who install their goods when so desired.

R. Beegle spent a couple of days this week at Oakpoint, Wash. on business matters.

Main street presented the appearance of a wood yard Wednesday morning due to the pranks of youths celebrating Hallowe'en. Several teamsters reported the disappearance of their wagon and one a horse, which later re-appeared. Other than this little mischief and no damage was done.

J. H. Donaldson is stepping around quite spryly this week, wearing a smile as broad as you please and "passing 'em out" right freely. The cause of it all is the arrival of a new son at his house born to Mrs. Donaldson last Friday. Mother and son doing nicely and it is thought the father will recover.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will give a bazaar and supper at the Grange hall Nov. 17. Supper will also be served from 5 to 8 P. M. Everything that can be done for the entertainment of the crowd is being done and a good time is promised you. Admission will be 25c for adults and 15c for children.

Miss Velma Buckingham, who has been visiting her aunt Mrs. E. L. Rayburn for a few days, left by boat for Coos Bay Tuesday evening.

A Hallowe'en party was given in honor of Lewelyn McKinley at his home on Main street Tuesday eve. A large crowd of merry makers was present enjoying themselves with games etc. A dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. McKinley that was greatly enjoyed.

Reuben Wilson, and family have sold their place here and purchased property at Scotts Mills where they moved last week.

Ray Harper of The Dalles visited with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Simonsen a few days this week.

"Cap" Hazen suffered an injury to his hand this week, while working at his trade. He cut it severely but is getting along nicely now.

Art Kolstad was a business caller Tuesday. He inspected the new Herald plant for the first time and was loud in praises and admiration.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grundy left by boat for San Francisco last Saturday to spend their honeymoon. They were accompanied by Mr. Grundy's mother.

Paul Bliss of Pleasant Valley was a Lents visitor one day this week. The auction sale at the old Kelly homestead was largely attended last Thursday and it is reported a great success.

Mr. Scheurman has built a barn on the rear of his property on second avenue and rented it to the New Method Laundry.

Billy Connors, the new proprietor of the restaurant on Main street reports a good business and steadily increasing.

Earl Townsend of Portland was a Lents visitor Monday. He is looking for a location in this neck o' the woods.

Mrs. Jack Oliver of La Grande left Wednesday for her home after a two week's visit with her sister Mrs. W. A. Hall.

Eastern Capital is seeking a site for factory construction to cover 50 acres of land at Lents. Nature of their business not disclosed as yet. Raymore Realty Company have the management of the purchase.

The University of Oregon Law School elected Ben Wagoner as President of the 2d team. Their new quarters are much better adapted to the needs of students than was the old court house.

Clarence Clark of Lents is now in the Cord Wood business at Sherridan. His first consignment of wood being 150 cords of oak.

The regular meeting of the directors of the Lents Home Telephone Company will be held tonight, Friday.

Oh those steaks you get at the new short order house. They just taste like more.

Hello, You Fellow that Wants Lumber!

Do you recognize this space? There was not very much in it last week. But we meant business just the same, and we still mean business. Do you know that we handle one of the best grades of Roofing in the city? All kinds of Building Paper, and our Shingles can not be duplicated for the price. We also have a good No. 2 Shingle that we are selling cheap. Call and see our Wood Gutter. It is better than tin. Remember that we handle Spruce and Cedar Shingles and Drain Boards and can furnish all kinds of Sash and Doors.

Call and see us and look over our stock. If you buy we will give you good service. If you don't buy we will be glad to see you, anyway. So don't fail to come. You are always welcome whether you buy or not. Read this over again and think about it and see what Miller says next week

E. W. MILLER LUMBER COMPANY

FOSTER ROAD

(Opp. Bright Realty Co.)

LENTS, ORE.

