Mrs. Cook from near Sandy river visited Mrs. Breeden Monday.

D. O. Northup has purchased the small building that stood in the Carpenter yard, and has moved it into his own yard.

A large crowd from this part of the country went to Portland Sunday evening to hear Gypsy Smith. So many more went than was expected that train space was at a premium, and cars were so full and many from Montavilla, that there was much delay. They got in so late that the reserved seats had been given up. So most of the crowd were disappointed, not even getting in hearing distance of the great speaker.

MARMOT

Old Sol showed himself for a brief time today.

Parties are busy surveying this side of the river for the Mt. Hood railroad which will be constructed soon. It will pass through Marmot.

John Bechler of Salem succeeded in getting the big seven point buck about 10 days ago, while hunting up near a pinnacle of the Cascade mountains. This animal has been seen by a good many hunters in times past, and has been shot at many times, but had so far escaped injury.

A Father's Vengeance

would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. It's the best Kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, Tired feeling, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, warn of Kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware! Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c at all dealers.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR BUSINESS GIRLS

There is no safer investment in the way of a Christmas present for any woman, young or old, than a scarf that may be used for afternoon and evening wear. Scarfs are the direct out come of the vogue for tunics, sebus, berthas and draped skirts that have invaded the fashions this winter. One scarf can serve a number of purposes. It can be used as fichu on a house gown or worn as a shoulder cape under the evening cloak or adapted to serve as a headdress.

An Ivory Toilet Set.

"I've put my silver set away and now use the Ivory toilet set Aunt Marion sent me last Christmas," was the very pertinent remark made recently by a girl who is successfully working her way to a good salary if not to fame. Yes, there are such comfort and smartness about the new Ivory toilet sets that every girl is pleased with them. It is, however, much better to give one or two pieces at a time of the very best quality of Ivory than to try to cover a larger field.

Pocket Writing Case.

Why not give her a stationary writing case? You can buy such a convenience for $2.25 of fine durable leather which holds a quire of paper, envelopes, fountain pen and stamps. Or a good print neatly framed to hang in her room is an acceptable gift, and even a calendar, if artistic, is not to be despised. But do be careful if you give her a book, and don't send an edition of Ibsen to the girl who loves the lightest kind of fiction, or vice versa. Handkerchiefs and gloves she'll dipnantly dub as "commonplace," but she'll be grateful for the gift later on. Silk stockings are always winners in the gift line, and pretty combs for the hair, or an umbrella if it has a stunning handle.

Handy Powder Bag.

The stress and strain of the day's work never seem to make the business girl oblivious to the fact that her nose may be shiny and that a judicious dab of powder will add as much to her well being as the drop of oil given the rod of her typewriting machine. In other words, if you give the business girl a smart little powder bag, such as the one to be seen in the illustration, she will bless you as long as the vanity case lasts. She can conveniently dispose of the little bag in her pocket and surreptitiously give her nose a dab that will add to her satisfaction during the day.

The useful trifle is to be purchased at most department stores and comes in a Christmas box decorated with sprays of holly. There is a glass in one section, and in the other a pocket conceals a tiny chamolais bag filled with powder. Small incisions have to be made in the chamolais to allow for the outlet of the powder.

The Brilliancy of Sunlight

is more nearly approached by the new MAZDA lamp than by any other lighting fixture on the market excepting an electric arc lamp. It is designed to put electric light in every store, however small. No illuminant can compare with the MAZDA light in low cost or high efficiency for electric light.

The small storekeeper can save money

by installing three or four or five of these units to illuminate his entire premises. They are unrivalled for show window lighting. Consult with us about our special offers for store lighting with MAZDA lamps.
