

DOINGS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

BREEZY ITEMS CONTRIBUTED BY HERALD REPORTERS AT NEARBY POINTS

FAIRVIEW

Grange meeting held last Saturday was a pleasant event. Visitors were entertained at dinner and for the installation of officers in the afternoon Mrs. Alma Hall and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hughes were out from Portland, Mrs. R. L. Robertson of Rockwood Grange was present, Miss Nellie Fox of Portland Library and Miss Ada Robinson and Irving Province were guests.

Loyd Anderson was given a pleasant surprise by seventeen of his classmates, who gathered at his home to give him a little farewell party last Friday night. The party was composed of Rosalie Luscher, Nannie Anderson, Elveth Copeland, Lily Luscher, Ruth Shaw, Rachel Cook and Blanch Copeland, Loyd Anderson, Harold Robinson, Henry Moller, Caryl Heslin, Willis Croe, Clifford Copeland, Maurice Schram, Richard Anderson, Harry Gustafson and Karl Schram.

W. R. Dugger is quite ill at his home here.

Mrs. A. Robinson is home from Delloy, O., where she visited her daughter for a few weeks.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Armond is very ill. The little one has been with her aunt, Mrs. F. S. Brigham at Beaverton while her mother was ill from an operation. Mrs. Brigham brought her home last Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Heslin is very ill with tuberculosis at her home here and her death is daily expected. A trained nurse is in attendance.

Miss Opal Rich was a Sunday guest of Miss Alta Wilcox. Miss Rich resides at Wasco, Oregon.

The Luscher family entertained as week-end guests, Misses Marie, Ida and Rosa Balmer, Arnold Balmer, and Miss Fisk all of Oswego.

G. O. Dolph, wife and sons, will take up their residence in Portland soon where Mr. Dolph is employed by the Portland Pure Milk and Cream Co. Miss Laura Dolph will remain here until the close of school with her sister, Mrs. Jenkins.

School closed this week on account of contagious diseases. C. H. Stone is ill with a light case of scarlet fever and the family of A. A. Albrecht are in quarantine for smallpox.

A. M. Anderson and family have taken up their residence in Portland. Mr. Anderson, and sons Ray and Richard, are contracting carpenter work and Loyd will attend Washington high school.

O. H. Kulper and wife are moving back to the city, and their home here will be occupied by J. O. Davis.

A farewell party was given the Kulpers' last Saturday night for a few of their friends.

Mrs. Richmond and Mrs. Freeman and children, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robertson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Heslin entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cree, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Shaw, L. Bell and C. C. Heslin at a card party last Tuesday night in honor of the birthday of Mr. Heslin.

A. C. Semmonds and wife have moved into the Briggs house at Bairdsdale Station.

Miss Contance Emely of Portland, was a week-end guest at the Dolph home.

Earl Townsend is spending a few days of vacation from his duties at the P. A., at his home here.

Miss Frances Robinson, a nurse in Good Samaritan hospital, was a week-end guest of her mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bowman's many friends are glad to welcome them back after an absence of nine months which they have spent in touring Europe.

F. T. Merrill having sold out his interest at the Twelve Mile House, is moving into the house across the road from his former home where he expects to remain until spring.

Mrs. E. Spath was given a pleasant surprise by a few of her friends last Thursday afternoon. Mesdames R. L. Robertson, Elsie Prettyman, Wolf, D. D. Turner, F. Lanty, J. H. Schram, W. Stanley, G. Stanley, G. Pullen, Wm. Childers, John Brown, E. Spath, Orvil and Veda Spath were present.

Lee Shaw of Endicott, Wash., has been visiting her mother Mrs. H. M. Shaw.

Ira Brooks is preparing to go into the poultry business.

COTTRELL

Mr. James Powder has been quite ill for nearly three weeks.

Miss Abbie Stikes of Latourell attended grange here Saturday and was a Sunday visitor at Ferndale Place.

Mrs. Ira Byers has been suffering with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. Dr. Neubaum of Portland is attending her.

Fred Shoults moved his family into the rooms recently occupied by Wilbur Evans over the telephone office, Saturday. Mr. Shoults has leased some lots of the Corbett estate on which he expects to erect a barn.

Miss Irene Knapp spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother.

CHERRYVILLE

Many signs of spring are here.

Robins, pussy-willows and mountain daisies show up.

Frogs are heard from every stream and frog-pond.

According to ground-hog day, which was very bright and beautiful, we are to have some real winter yet.

Binsen Schmit, a one time resident of this vicinity, died at his home in Portland a short time ago.

Drilling is still going on at the dam near here with the object of finding the best possible rock foundation for the dam at Camp Five. They are now drilling below the dam site at the point first selected. The best location so far, it is said, is above the camp about one mile. In any event there will be something doing along the Sandy here in the spring.

A Mr. Graves of Portland bought a relinquishment up near the 3-6 country of Capt. Miller and has already taken possession. This claim is partly improved but is rather rough.

Steel-head salmon are already running up the river and several fine specimens have been taken. The big run will not begin in earnest for a couple of weeks or more. This will be owing largely to the stage of the water as the run occurs during a rise in the river.

On Saturday evening a hard time social was held at the home of T. T. Overhill a mile north of the Cherryville post-office.

George Eaden of Logan, a one time resident of this vicinity, was a Sunday visitor here this week. No brag or blow about him, nor no "booze-fighter" or cigarette fiend either.

A hard times sociable was given at the home of the writer last Saturday night which was quite well attended by neighbors and friends. Some of the assembled guests "were fearfully and wonderfully made up" and surely "Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these." The first prize to genta was given to David Douglas who also got the "booby prize." The prize to ladies was awarded to Lillian Averill and they surely had it coming to them. A very sociable time was enjoyed and everyone present turned themselves out to play.

BORING

Evangelical meetings at the M. E. church in charge of Rev. A. B. Calder will close this evening. Though the attendance has not been large on account of the inclement weather, the results have been fairly satisfactory. Rev. K. S. Bishop of Tualatin, Oregon, a former pastor of this place, assisted Rev. Calder this week. Rev. Mr. Calder will commence evangelical meetings at Pleasant Home in a few days.

The local chapter of the Epworth League will give a literary program at the M. E. church next Tuesday evening following their regular business at 8 o'clock and all are invited to attend. The local chapter now has about 40 members.

The "I Will" bible class of the M. E. Sunday School will hold a special meeting immediately following Sunday school next Sunday morning and all members are requested to be present.

Charles Hicks still lies in a serious condition. Dr. S. P. Bitter of Gresham, the attending physician has held consultation with several physicians and very little hope is entertained for his recovery. Mr. Hicks is a brother of Mrs. J. Maundling of South Boring at whose home he is now confined.

Mrs. Ella Aton of Gresham has been spending several days with her sister and brother Mr. and Mrs. G. J. McClung of West Boring.

Miss Mary Bickford, who has been attending high school in Portland spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Bickford.

Mrs. A. Moreland spent several days in Portland this week.

The "Live Wires" will present their drama entitled "The Soldiers Sweetheart" in the Live Wire Theatre here next Saturday evening followed by an all night dance.

LATOURELL

Mr. and Mrs. Westlund went to Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Faught went to Portland to visit Mrs. Deverell last Monday.

Mr. J. Johnson is on the sick list.

Mr. A. Gaulitz has bought a new horse.

Mr. H. Hansen is about to sell his place.

Mr. H. Schultz has enlarged his place twice as large as it was before.

Mr. J. C. Wilson who took a contract to dig a well for school district No. 41, has just completed it.

Mr. C. Rasmussen is busy clearing some land.

Mr. O. Westlund is busy clearing land with his gasoline saw this week.

Mr. F. Hencken was a visitor at Mr. O. Westlund's, last Sunday.

PLEASANT HOME.

Surveyors are still busy platting the townsite, the land along the railroad, which formerly belonged to the railroad company. Lots seem to be selling readily from all reports.

BORN—To Prof. and Mrs. Quicksell, on Jan. 29th, a fine boy.

Mrs. McKinney and her mother, Mrs. Claggett, returned Monday from a visit with friends at Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. P. M. Miller expects to leave Feb. 8th, for a visit to her daughter who lives in California.

A social was held at the Chapel Thursday Jan. 25th. The proceeds are to help buy new song books for the Sunday School.

Miss Lizzie Hunter left Monday to work in a wholesale millinery house for a couple of weeks.

Mr. W. H. Addis of Russellville, who is manager of the Kelly fruit ranch, was out recently.

Mr. Geo. Carpenter has been making some improvements on his house.

D. O. Northup has purchased a portrait camera, and is at work fitting up a studio.

The gymnastic club seems to be thriving, judging from the crowds that attend.

Mrs. Breeden made a business trip to Portland Friday, returning Saturday.

Mr. Geo. Pinkham and son of Michigan, were here visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kennedy. Mr. Pinkham is a brother-in-law of the Kenedy's.

Mrs. Chase of Oregon City has been visiting relatives and friends here the past week.

Lester Northup, and Mrs. W. F. Buhtz and children, who have been visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Northup, returned Saturday to Aberdeen, Washington.

Rev. Childs preached at the M. E. church Sunday morning.

Miss Minnie Shriner is home for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lunderback and Mr. and Mrs. Bramhall were Portland visitors Tuesday.

Friends of Mrs. P. Miller planned a surprise on her and met at her home Tuesday for a dinner and quilting party. It was also a farewell party for Mrs. Miller as she left Thursday for Los Angeles, California to visit relatives and friends. She expects to be gone several months. Those who attended the party were: Mesdames Ball, Ruegg, D. Lunderback, Hayworth, Markell, Cannon, Breeden, Quay, Northup, Kennedy, Shriner, Blackburn, Stone, Chase, L. Miller, Edison, Altman, and the Misses Shriner, Jack and Stone.

GRESHAM

Miss Maud Mitchell is having a week's vacation. The Cleone school being closed on account of scarlet fever and smallpox.

Miss Stella Alexander who is at Dayton, Wash., is seriously ill.

Vernon Hopkins is very ill with the grip.

Mrs. D. F. Talbot and sister, Miss May Dougherty, spent Wednesday in Portland.

Dr. A. Thompson and F. W. Fieldhouse are spending a few days at Newport.

E. E. Sleret has bought the controlling interest in the Ford Automobile company in Portland.

Mrs. J. M. Faris visited friends in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mr. Hamilton will build a house for L. D. Howard in Whitehead's addition soon. Also one for A. J. W. Brown in Zenith addition.

There will be a double header played here Friday evening between the Springwater girls' team and the Gresham girls, and between the Gresham amateur and Springwater boys basket ball team.

A. J. Nye of Portland made a business trip to Gresham Wednesday.

Mrs. Doan who has been very ill is slowly recovering.

The new business block on corner of Main and Powell will be built soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas have returned from Marmot where they have been visiting Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Aschoff.

The postoffice department will open a savings bank in Gresham Saturday, Feb. 24th.

The Regner building is going up fast these days also the bank building is nearing completion.

Almost Lost His Life.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the Discovery. I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all dealers.

"The home merchant who solicits your patronage deserves it."

UPPER LATOURELLE

Columbus Grange held an interesting meeting last Saturday with a very good attendance, and Mrs. Stites presented an excellent program. Mr. and Mrs. Crane, State deputy, were present and installed the new officers. With Mr. R. T. Rasmussen at the wheel the grange is looking forward to a good year.

Donnell Littlepage and Lawrence Evans has returned from California.

Mrs. Lottie Benfield is at the present time a guest at her sister's, Mrs. Finley, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Shoults has moved to Corbett, and will open up a meat market very soon.

Ruby Rasmussen has successfully passed the 8th grade examination. She passed on a grade of 90.

Mr. C. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell of this place, came down from Montana last week where he has been working for some time.

Miss Laura Ross has returned to the city to attend school.

Mr. Hancock has rented F. Shoults place for this coming year.

Mrs. Sprague of this place has been elected a member of Columbia Grange, and will make a good member as she is a lady with an excellent education and refinement as well.

Mr. J. Deaver and T. Anderson were in the city on business last week.

ROCKWOOD

Keneth Harvey has had a new donkey engine shipped out from Portland. He intends clearing a large tract of land for Mr. Cook and others.

Mr. Lee has moved his family into the house recently vacated by Mr. Truie.

Max Kneke has purchased a span of horses, wagon and harness. Max intends doing his own farming this season.

Mrs. Jensen is entertaining the newly weds this week.

The benefit dance given for Mr. Miles Grimshaw netted him over fifty dollars. John Richmond made a business trip to the city yesterday.

Mr. P. Stone has returned to his home near Cherryville.

The new book-case for Rockwood school arrived yesterday from Sears & Roebuck of Seattle. Their books haven't got here yet though they expect them every day.

Miss Bertha Weiland is staying home for a short time now. Bertha has been working in Portland for the past three or four years.

TROUTDALE

J. M. Edmonson of Eugene, are guests at the home of Mrs. Edmonson's parents Wm. Hersell and wife.

R. B. Savage of Brush Prairie, Wash., was here to spend Sunday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. F. H. Rix.

Mrs. E. W. Greivish has returned home from Minneapolis, Minn., after several weeks visit with her mother, who was very ill but has recovered.

Bert Williams, a former Troutdale resident, is a guest at the home of F. T. Greer.

Mrs. A. B. Kendall entertained the Ladies' Aid Society at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. Holm and family expect to move to Portland soon.

Mrs. A. Werber who has been ill for several days is convalescing.

Mrs. L. B. Henninger was out from the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Werber, on Tuesday.

S. S. Logan, one of Troutdale's merchants, who has been in business here for several years is planning to close up his store here and go to Portland.

The Sexton saloon is closed and Mr. Sexton is moving out of town.

WEST SECTION LINE NOTES

Mrs. J. F. Mason, formerly Miss Ida McFaden, of Hood River, was a visitor at Buckley Grove last week. Mrs. Mason was a teacher in No. 28 school some years ago and will be remembered by her old pupils and friends. A friendship so true that it is rare has existed between Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Buckley, an unbroken loyalty for nearly thirty years.

Miss Celia Moll was home on a visit the past week from St. Vincent's Hospital owing to a heavy cold unfitting her for her duties of a nurse. She returned to her post on Wednesday.

John Moll who has been a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism for weeks past has begun to regain his former health, slowly but surely, being now able to sit up in bed.

The presence of Mrs. H. Rodgers, Mr. Claude Giger and Mr. Emil Stram of Sunny Side, cousins of its hostess, made a pleasant day at Buckley Grove on Monday last.

The county board handed down a bill of sepeparation of district 28 dividing it and creating the western end a new district, No. 29. A school meeting is ordered for the 13th. at the Buckley school house at half past seven in the evening to elect officers and to attend to such business as belongs to such meetings.

Messrs. Nagle, Dunland and Roy Buckley are loading a car of potatoes at Linneman Junction this week.

A Smoking Hot Dinner

on a good cold day or a nice cold meal on a very warm one is what you can always get at this restaurant. This city has no finer service than is always obtainable here. We don't want you to take our word for it. We want you to come here and make us prove it.

The Lents Cafe

THE OLD RELIABLE

On Carline

Look for Electric Sign

Remember the Name---BOHNA

WHEN YOU WANT LIGHT GROCERIES, BAKING GOODS, CONFECTIONERY, CIGARS, FRUITS, VEGETABLES, ETC.

ON MAIN ST., NEXT DOOR TO MT. SCOTT DRUG CO.

THE HERALD WITH ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ONE YEAR

Weekly Oregonian.....	$1.75
Daily Oregonian.....	6.75
Daily and Sunday Oregonian.....	8.00
Daily Telegram until Dec. 20.....	4.50
Semi-Weekly Journal.....	2.00
Daily Journal.....	5.50
Daily and Sunday Journal.....	8.00
Pacific Monthly.....	1.75
Pacific Homestead.....	2.00
Pacific Farmer.....	2.00
Poultry Journal (Monthly).....	1.50
Oregon Agriculturist.....	1.00
Farm Journal.....	1.25
McCall's Magazine (Ladies').....	1.00

This price is for delivery by mail only and only when remittance is made with order. Papers may be sent to separate addresses. Subscriptions may begin at any time.

"Stopping an ad to save money is like stopping the clock to save time," says The Herald Advertising Man.

Mazda Lamps

Make Light Work

"I find that kitchen work is a pleasure, rather than a drudgery," says the housekeeper, "Now that this wonderful MAZDA LAMP brightens the room like sunshine. This new lamp certainly is a blessing to the housekeeper. IT COSTS NO MORE to burn than the ordinary incandescent lamp and radiates nearly THREE TIMES as much light. And the quality of the light is ever so much better—it is so restful to the eyes."

PORTLAND RAILWAY LIGHT AND POWER CO.

SEVENTH AND ALDER STREETS