

LOCAL NEWS AND TOWN HAPPENINGS

J. H. Chalker of Laurelwood was a pleasant caller Monday, dropping in to say hello and get a glimpse of the Herald's new plant.

Miles Farmer of the Journal was a Herald caller one day this week.

B. D. Sigler, county assessor and candidate for re-election, was looking over the field Tuesday of this week. Mr. Sigler claims to be the first man to assess public franchises and is advocating equitable valuations according to law.

Harold Rutherford clipped off a mile against time in 5:40 last week. If he continues this improvement it will put him on the annual Salem-Portland race against the Indians this year.

The Selwood Quartet and the Lents Quartet from the Evangelical Church will sing at the Prohibition meeting. Prohibition vs Anti-Saloon League in methods at the Taylor St. M. E. Church on 13th of March, 1912.

Our Lents boys are the progressive modern "Spartans" for sure.

East Glison St. will be widened to an 80 foot street. This will make real estate more valuable at least.

Mr. Donaldson, Lents' ex-merchant, attended court in Portland, Monday.

N. G. Hedin appeared as counsel for Mr. Keen the laundryman, who was beaten by a man named Pottage, winning the case.

Alvin Bradford, Lents Choir instructor, has sent away for the Easter Cantata music. Let us hope it will equal the Xmas cantata.

Junior Y. P. A. of Lents is doing a remarkably fine development work among the young boys and girls. They deserve our hearty support in keeping the pupils off the streets by finding beneficial work that take their interest.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Darnall attended the patriotic exercises at Woodlawn last Saturday evening and report a most excellent program.

The Isis Theatre is enjoying an excellent patronage these days and there is a reason for they are giving the people of Lents one of the very best shows possible for the money.

Miss Doris C. Meyer, formally of Lents Junction and Mrs. Nettie Hartwig have opened a millinery and dress-making establishment in the Ross Bldg. across the street from McNeil Bros., where they will be pleased to meet their old as well as new customers.

Rev. Levi Johnson, pastor of the Millard Ave. Presbyterian Church, will preach at the morning service as usual. There will be special music and we urge all who have not become identified with any church to come.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. Church will give a ten cent tea on Wednesday March 6 from 2 to 4 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Nellie Woodworth, one block west of the M. E. Church. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Friday March 1st, at 8 p. m. there will be a social at the Methodist church given by the Ruthalean and W. N. classes for the benefit of the primary organ fund. A program will be given and refreshments served. Everyone invited.

Another $5.00 gold piece will be given away at the Isis Theatre Friday night, March 8.

Dr. Moreland has moved into his new and spacious quarters in the Isis theatre building and announces that hereafter the office will be open every day and evening, excepting Monday and Tuesday, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. when the office will be open mornings and evenings.

The mens and boys meeting at the M. E. Church Wednesday evening was well attended. For some reason Dr. Fletcher Homan did not appear. In the absence of the speaker of the evening, the pastor addressed the meeting. Much interest is shown in this movement and no doubt much good will come to any town with meetings of this kind.

The pastor of the Baptist Church will preach Sunday morning on the subject: "What the Bible Teaches About Creation," and in the evening on the subject: "Christ, the Living Stone." The Lord's Supper will be observed in the morning.

Voters Register Now In Lents

There are over 1200 voters in this district and out of that number only 250 have registered so far says R. C. Groesbeck, special registering clerk for this district.

Voters register. The election to follow will be of special importance in more ways than one. It is of especial importance to us as we must then select our two local offices—Justice of the Peace and Constable—our only representatives of law and government.

Don't put it off, register at once—register in Lents—the issues are squarely before you.

GARDENING TIME

IS UPON US

We buy garden tools in such enormous quantities that we are able to undersell any other dealer in the town and still we uphold the high standard of goods that have always made this store the "quality store."

Hoes

240 of them—a dozen different patterns to select from.

Rakes

Over 200 of them—many different kinds—all priced right.

Everything Else

in the same proportion—both in quantity and quality.

Harry C. McAllister, republican candidate for the nomination of sheriff will be introduced to the public at the Isis Theatre, Saturday evening.

The Friends Church is this week adding another wing to their church building that will give them an additional seating capacity of 60 people. This shows church enterprise and speaks well for the town.

The free lecture delivered at the Evangelical church here Thursday evening was well attended and reports therefrom indicate much enthusiasm. Mr. Chafin is a very eloquent and able speaker and discussed the Prohibition question from its origin up to the present time and pointed out the difficulties encountered and the success of the movement.

O. Kutzer has disposed of his pool room to McMonagle & Webster, and it has been moved to their location.

M. K. Hedge, H. A. Darnall, Lee Carman, Lee Tuttle and D. M. Simonsen were among the Lents people who took in the Bryan address in Portland Thursday evening.

the gentlemen visit them.

J. G. Lehman and guests visited at Chas. Stitche's in Brush Prairie, Wash. Sunday.

The heavy rains of the past few weeks have made walking rather unpleasant even on the Oregon City road which is usually quite good. We would suggest that on dark nights a few danger signals be placed between Gray's Crossing and Johnson Creek. This is only a suggestion, a stitch in time saves nine. Let's not wait until some pedestrian is injured and a suit for damages is brought against the county as the expense might be much more than the price of a few lanterns.
