A SAUERKRAUT KNOCKOUT.

Bill Schmidt he didn't like sauerkraut, But Katherine, his frau, Could stand beside der bar' all day And eat shoet like a cow.

They fought about dat kraut all day, They fought about him night, And Katherine's mudder like kraut, too, And she join in der fight.

Den Bill gits quiet all to once About dat sauerkraut anell; Den Katherine an' her mam Thought they had licked Bill well.

One day--will you believe dis true?-- Bill bought a bar' of kraut, And when them wimmens saw it come They shoet dance round and shout.

But when der kraut begins to hiss Bill cut der middle hoop, Them wimmens den went down below To see how dat kraut look.

Der hull shebang shoet up and bust! Den wimmens--where were they? All covered up mit sauerkraut Shoet like a load of hay.

Der mouth was full; der ears was full; Der nose it was stuffed tight, Bill busted, too, mit lamm fits When he gits out of sight.

Don't you say sauerkraut down there! They don't eat kraut some more, And Katherine has got a club Behind der kitchen door.
