LEAGUERS WIN ANOTHER CONTEST

Lents Defeats Western Hardware Team By Score of 10 to 8

Lents wiped out the sting of defeat of the last game against the Crescents when they trounced the Western Hardware club last Sunday by a score of 10 to 8. The game, while interesting, was slightly ragged owing to the high wind that prevailed.

Young Clark, who has been twirling excellent ball all season, started out on the firing line for Lents, but his slow curves were not effective against the wind, and Matt Boland relieved him. Boland twirls a speedier ball than Clark and was better able to hold the opposing batters.

With Lents and the Crescents both winning last Sunday the standing of the teams remains the same, and looks as though the fight for the top position will be between the locals and Crescents.

Next Sunday the locals meet the M. W. Hardware team and a good fast game is anticipated. The contest will be called at 1:30 sharp.

GIANTS CONTINUE LOSING STREAK

Try as they will, it seems that the Lents Giants are never to lose the hoodoo that has followed since the season opened and last Sunday they lost to the Winton Six by a score of 7 to 2. The visiting team hammered the Giants' pitchers at will and several twirlers were yanked. Finally Matt Boland, the A. W. twirler for the local team, was sent in to finish the game, but it was too late to turn the tide of battle and the lead could not be overcome.

Next Sunday the Giants meet the Holiday Club on the Lents diamond. The game will be called immediately after the game between the Lents A. W. and the M. W. Hardware teams is finished. Boland is still bolstering up his club and promises a good contest for Sunday.

Talleyrand's Bravery.
A single word was often sufficient for Talleyrand to make his keenest re- port, says the Kansas City Star. When a hypochondriac, who had notoriously led a profligate life, complained to the diplomatist that he was enduring the tortures of hell Talleyrand simply answered, "Already?"

To a woman who had lost her husband Talleyrand once addressed a letter of condolence in two words: "Oh, madame!"

In less than a year the woman had married again, and then his letter of congratulation was: "Ah madame!"

ber, there have been 60 working. During April the quarry produced only 2440 cubic yards of crushed rock. While the law allows the county to work the men eight hours a day, the crushers at this rockpile were operated only 113 hours. The balance of the time the prisoners were kept idling around the quarry, it is said. The trouble appears to be that the rock bunkers are soon filled, and there are not enough roads within an easy hauling distance that need gravel. To remedy this, the commissioners are trying to get the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company to lay a spur track to the bunkers, permitting the county to deliver crushed rock at the several highway crossings along the Mount Hood line. Negotiations to this effect are now being made between the commissioners and the management of the electric company.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL CLUB DEFEATS HOLMAN

The Lents team, of the grammar school league, won their first game during the series, when they defeated the Holman team Tuesday afternoon by a score of 14 to 5. The locals had the better of the game from the start. They batted in good form and played a good friending game.

This victory has lent encouragement to the local lads and they are going after more scalps.

In the game with Portsmouth last Friday evening the locals were given the short end of a 10 to 8 score in a ten inning contest. Although defeated, it required an extra frame to turn the trick, and this with Tuesday's victory shows a decided improvement in the playing of the team.

A TOMB IN TOKYO.

Luck In Chips From the Headstone Over a Famous Thief.

Behind the temple sacred to the nameless dead and close to the wrestling amphitheater in Tokyo there is to be found the grave of the celebrated robber Nezumi Kozo, who stole from the daimios long ago in the old Yeddo days that he might relieve the sufferings of the poor.

There is a superstition connected with this grave which has made it a much frequented spot. If a portion of the headstone is carried away it acts as a lucky talisman, particularly to those who speculate or are otherwise engaged in games of chance. It is usual for a person breaking a piece from the stone to make a vow that in case he is successful he will buy a new headstone to replace the one he has mutilated. Many prayers must have been answered, for the stones are piled high on either side of the grave, and an enterprising individual near by has the stones already for sale and only waiting the name of the donor to be engraved and then set up.

A shelter has been placed over the spot, and from the roof hang gray lanterns and pilgrims' banners. A large money box catches all the stray sen which go for the upkeep of the grave. Gamblers and geisha are often visitors. Students before their examinations feel more assured of success if they have a chip of Nezumi Kozo's headstone in the sleeve of their kimono.—Argonaut.

On Safe Ground.

Whenever on one of his rare holidays Captain Goldby went to the city he took some young relative with him as a special treat. On one such occasion he told his seventeen-year-old grandson, whom he had with him, that they would "dine at a real restaurant and get a taste of fancy cooking."

When they were at last seated in the great dining room the grandson waited impatiently while the captain read the bill of fare completely through without omitting a single article, whether domestic or foreign in title. At last he sighed and handed the card across the table to the boy.

"You choose what you like, sonny," he said, with a sigh. "As for me, I reckon as I've already eat more herrin' than any other man livin' I might as well stow away a little more. It's alwavs agreed with me so far."—Youth's Companion.

TILLAMOOK FANS VISIT LENTS

Make Trip Over Mountains In Overland Auto—Webb Accompanied Them

A coterie of Tillamook ball fans, visited Lents Wednesday night. The party was composed of Art. Case, agent for the Overland auto at Tillamook and a loyal fan of that town, Arnsperger and Peterson, first and third sackers, and Emery Webb, pitcher of the Tillamook team. The trip was made in the Overland owned by Case, and the machine was the first to make the pass over the mountains this season. They left Tillamook Monday morning, going via Sheridan, and arrived at Salem that evening. They came from Salem to Lents Wednesday. The visitors state that the trip over the mountains was a rough one, and the auto showed the marks of it, but no time was lost on account of the auto.

Emery Webb, who accompanied them says that Tillamook is a lively little city and that a loyal set of fans ably back the ball team. Webb has won the only two games he has twirled, and is living up to the reputation which he established by his excellent twirling for Lents. He will play with Tillamook the entire season and is well pleased with the treatment accorded him there. The team there is composed of some fast players.

The party remained in Lents over Wednesday night and started on the return trip Thursday morning.

Shoreless Bolivia.

In territorial extent Bolivia stands third among the republics of South America and is one of the two without a seaport. Her natural outlet to the Pacific ocean was taken by Chile at the end of the war of the Pacific, and today she is shut off from the sea like Switzerland. La Paz, Oruro and Potosi are all cities standing over 12,000 feet above the level of the sea.

Pathetic Case.

Staggers—It'sh no ush; I can't open thish door. It'sh because I'm bald headed. Jaggors—Bald headed? Whasth thash got to do with it? Staggers—Ev'rything, m' frien'; ev'rything. Whasth good ish a key if you haven't any locks?—Philadelphia Record.

Bee Stings.

If stung by a bee rub off the sting instead of pulling it out with the nails of the thumb and forefinger and thus forcing more venom into the wound. Ammonia applied to the wound made by a bee sting will usually afford immediate relief.

The danger of a little knowledge of things is disputable, but beware the little knowledge of oneself.—George Meredith.

GOOD LESSON FOR CIGARETTE SMOKERS

The Western Union Telegraph Company in this city will not hereafter employ, nor retain in its employ as messengers, boys who are addicted to cigarette smoking. The interdiction is a wise one, both from a business standpoint and a moral and physical one. There is no question whatever of the fact that early and constant cigarette smoking reduces the reliability and efficiency of boys to the minimum and even causes them to drop below the normal in these respects in very many cases. Statutory interdiction has not prevailed against this pernicious habit, nor have parental vigilance and command been able to stop it. The seductiveness of the substance employed and the social comradeship that it promotes have rendered the cigarette invulnerable to reason, a foil upon conscience and an enemy of truthfulness. These are the subtle, all pervading influences and obstacles that must be overcome, if the Western Union Telegraph Company is successful in purging its messenger force of the cigarette habit. Business instinct—and financial interest may prevail against the vice to the extent of diminishing, at least to some extent, the consumption of cigarettes by messenger boys or desk workers in offices. The hope that this may be accomplished is not, however, big with expectation, since perverted appetite, adolescent willfulness and parental example combine to create a potent force against the abolishment of cigarette smoking among boys and young men.—Telegram.

Sport Notes

Maxmeyer twirled for the Portland Maroons against the McMinnville Tigers last Sunday. The Maroons lost the game by a score of 6 to 0. Reports say that Maxey twirled a good game, but was given no support.

Although the Lents Giants continue to lose, Manager Al. Boland has not lost heart, and is still determined to secure a team that will win. The fans are still with him, and hope that he will succeed ere long.

The stock of the Lents Grammar School Team has risen since their defeat of the Holman school and it is likely that the boys will play a better game from now on, although they stand but little chance of winning the pennant.

If the present weather continues next Sunday will be a good ball day and Lents fans should turn out and boost the locals clubs. Two games next Sunday.

The Crescents, of the A. W. League, still remain undefeated, and probably will until Lents gets a whirl at them. The next two games between the two is awaited with interest.

Emery Webb is making good with Tillamook and is winning his games. This is no surprise to local fans, but it is good news just the same.

Why Animals Fear Man.

The universal antipathy of animated nature for man can scarcely be explained as the teaching of experience. Man has played his role of universal meddling for too short a time to have impressed himself on the memory of each individual line. There must be something in his attitude of mind that communicates itself to them and induces its proper automatic reflex. The mouse that runs over the lion's foot and gnaws at his bone goes to earth like a flash when man comes near. The bee hangs in the air and then goes on because man stands by her favorite foxglove. Even the witless snake stirs in its sun smitten sleep and is moved by a feeling in the air to seek its den.—London Nation.

Each district will receive one Diamond Ring, one Ladies' Gold Watch and one Scholarship in the Homes Business College. The Capital Prize will go to the candidate polling the greatest number of votes of the three districts.

HOW TO SECURE VOTES

In each issue of The Herald there is a ballot printed, this ballot when clipped out and properly filled in and mailed or brought to The Herald office will count for twenty votes.

Votes are also issued upon the payment of subscription to the paper. Notice the schedule of votes on another page of this paper. If you wish to subscribe for the paper you can pay any of the Candidates or bring or mail the money direct to the Contest Manager and he will cast the votes for your favorite. In order to receive votes all subscriptions must be paid for in advance.

HOW TO WIN.

Any young lady who desires to enter this contest and win one of the valuable prizes offered should see that her name is sent to the contest department. All that is necessary to win a prize is to receive the largest number of votes, according to the conditions mentioned elsewhere in this announcement.

Candidates should at once interest their friends in the contest, and by united and energetic action induce as many people as possible to vote for them. Each nomination coupon cut from The Herald will count 3000 votes for a candidate.

The nomination coupon will only appear for a few issues, and only a limited number of nominations will be accepted. Cut the nomination blank from this issue and send it to The Herald office, with your name or the name of and address of your favorite candidate.

A subscription is not necessary, but a good start means much. The name of the person making the nomination will not be divulged.

Orders for the prizes will be given the successful contestants at the close of the contest, and the same may be used by the contestant herself, or disposed of in any manner she may see fit.

Any young lady residing in the territory mentioned below is eligible to compete in this contest.

Any one who desires to vote in this contest may do so by coupons clipped from The Herald and by special vote ballots obtained by subscribing to The Herald. The ballots secured by subscribing to The Herald may be held as long as desired and voted at any time up to the close of the contest, but coupons cut from The Herald are good only for ten days from publication and will not be counted if voted after the date printed on the ballot.

Persons living in one district are not confined to voting for ladies in their own particular district, but may vote for anybody in the race. This offer affords the young women of Lents and outside district an excellent opportunity to receive valuable presents at the expense of The Herald.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED.

In all cases where votes are issued subscriptions must be paid or prepaid. The full amount of money must be sent or brought to the contest department of The Beaver State Herald.

NOMINATIONS.

Any person has the privilege of nominating one or more candidates.

You do not have to be a subscriber to The Herald to take part in this contest.

All nominations should be mailed to the Contest Department at once, as the list of nominations will appear in next Thursday's paper.

Candidates can be nominated after this date, but it is a great advantage to have your name in the first list published, so that your friends will not agree to work for some one else before knowing who are entering the contest.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR VOTING.

Enter the name of the lady whom you wish to secure one of these valuable rewards in this contest at once. She may win the $425 piano. Better still, get the lady to enter her name and then vote for her. Those who get in on the start have the best chance of winning, so it is desirable that the name be entered at once in order to get a good start. Candidates who enter this contest do not necessarily have to be subscribers of The Herald. Enter your name and your friends will do the rest. You will be surprised to see how rapidly the votes will come in and what little effort is necessary to win one of the awards offered. Get in on the start and encourage your friends to vote for you. The rest will be easy. You will never know how popular you are until you enter a contest of this kind.

After the first announcement of candidates, the votes will be counted every Tuesday and the result printed in the next issue. There will be a short write up in every issue of the paper from now on until the close of the contest, and those entered can keep in close touch with the contest and competing candidates. Certain it is that ten ladies of Lents and vicinity are going to get these magnificent rewards and it is left to the readers of The Herald to decide.

NOTICE.

If you are interested in the contest for yourself or friend and do not understand the conditions, call up The Herald office and ask for the Contest Manager. He will call on you and explain every thing.
