THE DAYS ARE FLYING AND YOU MUST HURRY

Special Offer Closes Next Wednesday at 8:30 P. M. All Subscriptions to Count on this Offer Must Be Brought or Mailed to the Office by this Time.

See all your friends and relatives at once and get them to pledge you their support. See all those who have promised you a Subscription. Get them in during this offer and receive the extra votes.

SCHEDULE OF VOTES
Three months subscription	25 500
Six months subscription	50 1500
One year subscription	1.00 4000
Two years' subscription	2.00 12,000

GREAT SPECIAL OFFER

Bonus Votes
For the next five days only, beginning Friday, May 24; and closing Wednesday, May 29, 1912, in addition to the votes given according to the regular schedule, we make all candidates the following offer:

We will give to each and every candidate a SPECIAL BALLOT for 20,000 EXTRA VOTES who turns into this office seven yearly subscriptions to the Herald between the above dates.

Two six months subscriptions will count the same as a one year subscription during this offer.

Be sure to mark the stub, stating whether the subscription is New or Old.

Subscriptions should not be held until the last day, but turned in as secured. An accurate account will be kept by the contest manager of all subscriptions turned in during this offer, and the Special Ballot will be mailed to the candidate after this offer closes.

Special Notice

In order to give the contestants in the territory outside the city the same amount of time to work for the extra vote as the girls in the city, the management will accept all subscriptions mailed before 8:30 o'clock Wednesday night, but the envelope or package in which the subscriptions are sent must bear the postmark of the date and hour mailed, together with the postmaster's name and date, written on the outside of the envelope.

Do not forget that it is the special offer that closes Wednesday May 29 and that the contest does not close until Saturday June 15. This leaves but six days of the special offer and it will be to advantage of all candidate to avail themselves of this offer. In reply to a great many inquiries we wish to state that two subscriptions for six months each count the same as one subscription for one year.

The special ballot, to which the contestants who qualify will be entitled to, will be made out and sent to them at the end of each special offer. The regular ballots to which they are entitled for all subscriptions are issued at once.

A very large vote was received up to 1 o'clock yesterday and great changes in the line-up are to be noticed.

The special offer made to the contestants for the next ten days seems to have met with approval of all candidates and all are working with renewed energy to secure one of the special offer prizes. It is a great opportunity for all, and should be taken advantage of by all candidates who expect to win one of The Herald's grand prizes. This special offer is a very short one and those who expect to receive a special ballot must get busy at once. It is not necessary to hold back your subscriptions and turn in seven at one time, as the contest manager will keep an accurate account of every subscription turned in for each candidate during this offer, at the end of which he will mail each girl the special ballot to which she is entitled. The regular ballots given on subscriptions will be issued as in the past and can be held as a reserve or voted.

Every one can win a ballot if she tries. There will be plenty of time to get in subscription if a little effort is displayed. The extra votes may win the piano or one of the other prizes, and as another offer of this kind will not be made it would be a good idea to take advantage of this one while the opportunity is presented.

No contestant is restricted as to the size of their ballot. If she is able to secure 14 yearly subscriptions during these ten days she can do so, and will receive 40,000 votes, or in proportion to the number turned in.

There is an unlimited number of desirable and profitable positions in this country to be filled by young women of good character, practical education and good training.

The Holmes Business College in which The Herald has bought scholarships, is prepared to qualify young men and women for desirable office position and as teachers of the commercial branches and to bring them face to face with employers of such service.

The well equipped and conducted business school is naturally the place where a successful training should be sought.

The Holmes business college is prepared to meet every reasonable requirement of those who seek an education and was selected by The Herald when they decided to give away scholarships as premiums in this great voting contest.

Great Interest
On all sides interest in the great popular contest is taking a great increase, and patrons are selecting their favorite candidates, for whom they are voting liberally.

The leaders are increasing their vote and those who are in this contest in earnest are gaining every day. It is interesting to keep check of the battle of ballots and every mail makes some change in the relative position of some candidate. Now it is one contestant that receives a boost toward the top and then another. But the standing as published in the paper does not tell the whole story. It is a good thing to keep near the head of the list, but it is a greater advantage to have a reserve back of which no one knows anything about, and which can be brought into good play later on. With all your votes in the paper it is an easy matter for anyone to see exactly what you have and how many it will take to beat you in the end.

"Hustle" is the Word.
This may not occur to you, but even if one aspirant does get a few thousand votes in the lead of her competitors in a certain district it must not be taken for granted that the race is won, and perhaps the young ladies who are apparently reposing in quiet near bottom will be the ones to creep up unawares and carry off the prize. Such things have been done and many a race has been lost by over-confidence. Don't let rumors influence you one way or the other. It is often the case that a candidate or her friends will hear that such a one has secured a great many years' subscription, and is sure to win.

Business Education

A great number of letters which have been received by the contest manager contain inquiries about the business scholarships, showing that a large proportion of the young women who have entered the race are interested in that feature. It is a worthy ambition for any young lady to try to earn, by her own efforts, a scholarship and she should receive the support from her friends that she deserves.

From the business college point of view a "Business Education" means a course of study that fits young women for commercial pursuits. In this age of sharp competition there is little chance for the young woman who faces the world without the knowledge and skill that comes from special training. The business college furnishes the preparatory training for the bookkeeper, the clerk and office assistant in all lines of business. It qualifies its graduates to enter at once upon profitable employment. But it does far more than this. It gives an educational foundation upon which future success, in any line of business may be read.

Sanitarium May Rise at Tolman Ashland.—Minneapolis capitalists are contemplating the erection of a modern sanitarium at Tolman Springs, about 14 miles east of this city. The place at present is the mountain home of M. G. Lawrence of this city, and has been used as a sort of private retreat. It is designed to erect on the property a $200,000 institution.

There will be a special meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Club May 29 to discuss further improvements for the playground

BRIEF NOTES FROM GRESHAM

NEW INDUSTRY ESTABLISHED HERE

New Planing Mill and Wood Working Factory Established by Kilborn & Sines—Needed Institution.

Lents is the home of another, new industry, and one that has been badly needed since the town dropped its swaddling clothes and started a growth that has been unequalled by few towns in the West. The new institution is a planing mill and wood working factory, which has been established by Kilborn & Sines in the new building recently erected by them on Foster Road, one block east of the post office. Although just fairly started, the firm is turning out considerable work and the industry promises to become one of importance to the town and community.

Aside from being able to handle all custom planing entrusted to them, the firm has installed a complete line of wood working machinery and are prepared to turn out any class of work needed in ordinary construction or building, such as sash and doors, moldings, columns and all kinds of wood ornaments.

The prospects for the firm are bright, as they have secured the custom of the E. W. Miller Lumber Co., which in itself is no small factor, and this together with other local work will keep the plant busily engaged at all times.

Messrs. Kilborn and Sines are both well known local men and experienced in their line. They will also conduct a general contracting and building business in connection with the new venture.

This industry will be one of great worth to Lents in a business way, and will keep a considerable amount of money in local channels that heretofore has been going to Portland. It is an industry that merits the patronage of all.

TEACHING LIFE SAVING METHODS

Corvallis, Ore., May 20.—Today lessons in life saving methods and first aid to the injured are begun at O. A. C. by the experts from the U. S. Bureau of Mines in charge of the demonstration car now at Corvallis.

Through the efforts of Prof. H. M. Parks, head of the college school of mines, the car was brought from Washington where it was giving demonstrations, and arrangements have been made for a week's instruction, two hours daily, for 75 or 100 young men from the college.

The work is of especial value to all students whose future business will take them some distance from medical aid. Electrical engineers will be given instruction as to the manner of reviving a man suffering from electrical shock. Foresters will learn how to give immediate relief to a man on whom timbers have fallen, or who is overcome by smoke or flame in fighting forest fires.

The agricultural student will learn what must be done immediately after an accident with the "deadly corn shredder" or other farm tool which is likely to maim one. The pharmacy student and those of the chemistry courses will be interested in the means of reviving men overcome by gaseous fumes. There is hardly a course given in the college which does not present aspects making the life saving methods important to the students.

For these reasons it is expected that nearly 100 students will be scheduled for the course, in spite of the fact that two hours a day for a week at this busy time of the year, examination period, is not lightly given any outside activity.

Doane Boys, Alleged Thieves, Caught
Pendleton.—Piez and Bascom Doane, brothers who recently, it is alleged, drove away a band of sheep belonging to John Wynne, a McKay creek rancher, sheared them, sold the wool and escaped, have been arrested at Elgin as they rode in from their trip across the mountains.

Mrs. Allen will leave shortly for Potsdam, N. Y. where she will visit with relatives for an indefinite period.

BEN HUR BENEFIT GREAT SUCCESS

Plays Presented for Benefit of Ben Hur Tribe Under Direction H. L. Morton, Well Received.

The plays given by Mr. H. L. Norton for the benefit of the local Tribe of Ben Hur at the Isis Theatre last Friday evening are the cause of a great deal of comment, and among the many statements given we find the one of high favor in the majority.

It was a surprise to find one who had the fearless purpose as Mr. Morton to present a play with a lesson and a moral so strongly depicted as in "Fool's Day," but those who witnessed the performance and heard the text do not deny the splendor of the lesson taught for parents and children who live their lives in retreating channels.

The play was given by amateurs, so naturally, the presentation was in the best light as such may be capable, and as a result much satisfaction has been felt by the managers of the Isis.

The principal parts were in the hands of Mr. Wedemeyer, who "made good" and displayed much talent. Messrs. McKinley and Baker were both deserving. Mrs. Walrod carried her part with a confidence and manner that was appreciated. The principal credit for the success of the performance, however, is due Mr. Morton, who by the excellent rendition of his part stamped himself as one of the best, and an actor of great ability. He held the audience in no unimpeachable manner and deserves great praise for the excellent presentation of the two plays. That he is a resident of Lents is a matter of pride to local people.

The attendance was satisfactory and netted a neat sum to the organization for whose benefit the performance was given.

Because of the efficient efforts of Mr. H. L. Morton, alias Ben Hur, which resulted in the successful entertainment for the good of the order of "Ben Hur," last Friday evening, the members of the lodge endeavored to express their gratitude by banqueting him at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walrod, Wednesday evening of this week. As the Lents ladies are well up in the culinary art it is needless to comment on the menu.

Mr. Morton was chosen toast master and was an honor unto himself, music and games also occupied a portion of the time until a late hour.

The members felt very proud to number among themselves so successful a playwright and stage manager, and further showed their appreciation by presenting him with a "Ben Hur" fountain pen as a souvenir of the banquet.

WELL KNOWN LENTS PEOPLE MARRIED

The Herald is pleased to announce the wedding of Mr. Frank A. Cassidy, of this place, to Miss Eunice Carle, of Acme, Or. The wedding took place at Eugene and was solemnized in the First Baptist Church, May 17, 1912, the Rev. W. Davis officiating. The only persons present were Mrs. Jos. Morris and Mrs. S. S. Thurman, who have been friends of the bride since childhood.

Miss Carle formerly lived in Lents, her people moving to Acme some time ago, where they now own valuable property. Mr. Cassidy has been a resident of Lents for several years, and is well and favorably known here as a worthy young man of ability. He is industrious, reliable and devoted to his trade and study. He has always been an active worker in all good movements for the improvement of local conditions, whether of the schools, the churches or other town developments.

The newly married couple will make their home in this city, where they have a host of friends who join with The Herald in extending congratulations and wishes for a happy married life.

H. Look, of Faxon Park, went to Walla Walla a few days ago to visit with his brother and look after business interests.

COFFEE TRUST SUIT FOLLOWS HEARINGS

P. Morgan and Others Use Resources to Curb Production in Brazil.

New York.—After a year of careful research and preparation the government has instituted suit against the coffee trust under the Sherman anti-trust law.

The suit follows quickly the testimony of the first witnesses in the money trust investigation at Washington, which showed that J. P. Morgan, the National City Bank and the First National Bank of New York have used their huge resources to curb the production of coffee in Brazil and corner the world's supply.

The court is asked to decree the scheme unlawful, to enjoin the valorization committee from withholding coffee from the market and to appoint a receiver to sell the 950,000 bags, valued at $10,000,000, now alleged to be stored in warehouses of the New York Dock company.

As the United States consumes 40 per cent of all the coffee used in the world, the petition declares that every act which prevents its importation in normal quantities or increases prices is a direct restraint upon foreign and interstate trade.

SOCIALISTS SCORE ANARCHY

Name Debs and Seidel as Ticket and Repudiate I. W. W.

Indianapolis.—Eugene Victor Debs, of Terre Haute, Ind., was nominated as a candidate for the presidency of the United States by the national socialist convention, and Emil Seidel, formerly mayor of Milwaukee, was nominated for vice-president.

The radicals and conservatives fought it out all week and the adjournment found both factions claiming victory. The radicals gained a sweeping advantage through the recognition of industrial as well as all other forms of unionism. This included the Industrial Workers of the World, who, the conservatives claimed, are an anarchist body. Because of this, the socialists specifically disavowed all form of violence in labor troubles and agreed that all socialists who may advocate such direct action shall be forthwith expelled.

VIGILANTS DECLARED WORSE THAN I. W. W.

Sacramento, Cal.—Stinging denunciation of the campaign of the Industrial Workers of the World at San Diego and an even more stinging denunciation of the "vigilants" of that city, whom he convicts of un-American and uncivilized abuse of the distributors of San Diego, with recommendations that the state authorities take drastic hand in the war there, are the features of a 10,000 word report on San Diego conditions, sent to Governor Johnson by Harris Weinstein, appointed as a commissioner to investigate the San Diego labor war.

San Diego.—Denials of the accuracy of the report which Harris Weinstein, special commissioner, made to Governor Johnson regarding the so-called "free speech" campaign of the Industrial Workers of the World were made by leading city officials of San Diego in connection with a recital of the causes of the present troubles here.

True Bills Against Ruef Dismissed.
San Francisco.—All of the 80 indictments charging Abe Ruef with bribery were ordered wiped from the calendar by Superior Judge Frank Dunne. In accordance with the writ of mandate handed down by the appellate court.

Coal Strike is Ended.
Wilkesbarre, Pa.—The anthracite mine workers' convention ratified the agreement entered into by a sub-committee of the members and operators, and the miners will go back to work after an idleness of seven weeks.

F. A. Bohna visited at the home of his father near Boring last Sunday. The trip was made in I. F. Coffman's auto.
