Patching Screens.

To patch wire screens cut a square from the wire cloth or an old discarded screen, about three inches longer on each side than the hole to be patched. Pull out the wires on the square, making a fringe about three inches deep. Bend the fringe back, push through the meshes of the screen around the hole and press down firmly on the other side. This makes a neat patch and is easily done.

PRESIDENT GREET'S GERMAN WARSHIPS

While more than 1000 German sailors stood at attention on the decks of the giant Moltke, Germany's battle cruiser, President Taft boarded the vessel. At the gangway Admiral Von Rebeur-Paschwitz and his staff waited to greet the chief executive.

The president, his formal call of welcome over, returned to the Mayflower. A short distance away the American battleship squadron swung idly at anchor. Seven great vessels including the new dreadnoughts Delaware and Utah, dressed ship as the president and the admiral exchanged courtesies.

J. V. BEACH FOR SCHOOL DIRECTOR

Mr. J. V. Beach was first elected school director in 1897. Though confronted with an able and popular opponent he received a large majority of the votes cast. He favored the improved system of graduation and other new educational ideas which were then being introduced into the schools. So popular was his administration that in 1902 and again in 1907, he was re-elected without opposition. He has fought constantly for a square deal for teachers and other employees, and has always believed, as he now does, that changes ought not to be made capriciously nor at the dictation of interested parties. He has voted for the many progressive features, the addition of which to the Portland system, has made our schools known and admired throughout the land. Though a progressive he has never taken up with mere fads whose temporary vogue has injured so many school systems. Nothing received Mr. Beach's support unless its value had been demonstrated elsewhere. If the citizens of Portland desire to keep their schools on a progressive but safe platform, they will continue Mr. Beach in office. The election will be held Monday, June 17, from 2:00 to 6:00 p. m. (Paid Adv.)
