

GREAT INTEREST IN CHICAGO CONVENTION

Never Before Has There Been Such Intense Feeling Between the Factions.

Chicago.—There never was a more interesting republican national convention than that which assembled in Chicago Tuesday. The situation at the opening of the convention was unprecedented in American politics. No national convention was ever preceded by such a bitter factional fight over contested delegates. At the opening of the convention no human being could foretell the outcome. The hottest battles in former conventions of any party seem almost insignificant compared with that which culminated here.

Victor Rosewater, of Nebraska, chairman of the national committee, in his capacity as chairman called the convention to order.

Root and McGovern for Chairman United States Senator Elihu Root, of New York, and Governor Francis McGovern, of Wisconsin, by the Taft and anti-Taft forces respectively were placed in nomination for temporary chairman. Senator Root was elected.

The Taft men flatly refused the demand of the Roosevelt forces that they agree to a proposition that no vote on the temporary organization be valid unless it received the affirmative vote of 540 delegates—a majority whose right to a seat was unquestioned. This was a novel program and arranged at a session of the Roosevelt delegates that lasted until nearly daylight.

One of the surprises of the convention was the backing by the Roosevelt delegates of Governor McGovern of Wisconsin, a staunch LaFollette partisan, showing that the LaFollette and Roosevelt men had apparently got together, at least on the matter of temporary organization.

Rollcall by Individuals. It was stated as the hour for convening drew near that the rollcall on the election of temporary chairman would be by individuals and not by states. This plan is in accordance with the action of the convention in 1884, when Lynch of Mississippi, was placed in nomination in opposition to Powell Clayton of Arkansas, who was the choice of the national committee.

At the opening session great lines of uniformed policemen were scattered about the structure and massed at every entrance. Grouped with them were 400 special deputy sheriffs, especially commissioned by the sheriff of Cook county to see that there was no disorder. Plain clothes men were distributed through the crowd of curiosity seekers that had flocked to the scene, hopeful that the Roosevelt forces would make good their threat and storm the entrance, thus making a way for all without tickets.

Taft Wins Majority of Contests. Taft adherents controlled the national committee by a majority large enough to decide every contest in favor of the president. Bitter fights marked almost every step of the proceedings before the committee, but the efforts of Borah, Heney and other Roosevelt men availed little as one after the other of the contests were decided for Taft delegates.

Roosevelt in Chicago. An unusual incident of the convention is the presence in the city of one of the leading candidates for the head of the ticket, Colonel Roosevelt, wearing his new fighting hat, a compromise between a sombrero and a rough rider's headgear, came into Chicago late Saturday afternoon, and was acclaimed by thousands of his supporters and admirers. The hat was in the air throughout the automobile ride from the station to the Congress hotel, waving salutes of acknowledgement to the cheers that marked his progress.

Morris Working on Road. Hood River—W. Cooper Morris, the convicted bank wrecker, of Portland, has begun work as an honor man on the Portland-Hood River highway at Camp Benson. Morris arrived with another prisoner from Salem and was put to work with a gang on the right of way for the scenic boulevard around Shell Rock mountain.

Anti-Boycott Law is Aim. Eugene.—A proposed state law forbidding the boycotting of any legitimate business, and another measure requiring permission of the mayor as a prerequisite to the holding of a public meeting on the street, are embodied in two sets of initiative petitions received here.

MAKES THE NATION GASP. The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. It's the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25 cts at All Dealers.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Double Shooting Near Roseburg. Roseburg.—As a result of a shooting affray at Reston, 18 miles west of Roseburg, John Adams, who the officers hold responsible for the trouble, is dead at Mersey hospital in this city. Paul Graf, a brother-in-law, who was shot by Adams, lies in a precarious condition at his wife's home near Reston, while Ben Hardman, who attempted to assist Graf and later shot Adams, is facing an impending charge of manslaughter.

BLUE SKY LAW OPPOSED. Salem People Against New Commission and More Power for Governor. Salem.—Contending that Blue Sky law, a measure which it is proposed to initiate at the coming election, and which has for its object the regulation of corporations and the creation of a corporation department for the purpose, means but the saddling of another commission on the people and their taxation in an indirect manner to maintain it, a number of people prominent in state affairs here have signified their intention of actively opposing it and predict that when the people are made thoroughly acquainted with the measure, they will vote it down at the polls.

Prehistoric Tooth Found at Lebanon. Lebanon.—C. C. Beebe, who lives on the hill about three miles east of Lebanon, a few days ago unearthed part of a skeleton of some monstrous animal. Mr. Beebe brought to Lebanon on Strawberry day what is supposed to be a tooth of this animal. Several physicians pronounce it a tooth. It is in layers and only a part of it was brought to Lebanon, but what was brought in measures 17 inches around and is 5 inches long.

MOVE ON NOW! says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks leads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at All Dealers.

A bilious, half-sick feeling, loss of energy, and constipated bowels can be relieved with surprising promptness by using HERBINE. The first dose brings improvements a few doses puts the system in fine, vigorous condition. Price 50c. Sold by Lents Pharmacy.

EDUCATE SETTLERS IS PLAN

Prevention of Fire Instead of Fighting Flames is Idea.

Portland.—Protection of forests from fire by means of an educational campaign will be the main feature of the work of the state forestry department during the fire season this year. At a meeting of the state forestry board, held in the forestry headquarters in the Yeon building, plans for systematic protection work were outlined and State Forester Elliott was instructed to begin at once the organization of a force of workers for the state and for the various lumber and timber land owners and interests.

The plan will be worked out will be along the line of fire prevention instead of fire fighting. To make this possible the full force of patrolmen will be deputized and will start as soon as possible to visit lumber camps and homes of settlers, farmers and campers and explain to them the need of using precaution in the handling of fires where there is danger of its spreading.
