Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes of 4th. avenue, have gone to Sheridan to visit their son.

F. A. Mortreide made a trip to Battle Ground, Wash. Sunday, going in his auto.

Mrs. Pearl Horner has gone to Washington to visit her brother, Mr. V. Mills-paugh.

Mrs. Durand, of Portland, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dunseth, of 4th. Ave.

Mrs. D. W. Eaton and mother, Mrs. Linnegar, returned recently from a pleasant outing at Seaside.

Prof. Geo. Wheeler, of Kansas Agricultural College, visited his brother-in-law, E. P. Smith, last week.

Miss Blanche Hershner has commuted on a valuable homestead near Madras, Ore. and is home where she will remain this winter.

Mrs. S. C. Bryant has gone to Falls City, Oregon, to visit her daughters, besides renewing old-time acquaintances.

Messrs. Williams and Ames, of 4th Ave., have made their homes look like new by giving them a fresh coat of paint, L. Beshear doing the work.

Mrs. McNeil received a postal card from Mrs. E. O. Boardman, who is at North Platte, Neb. Mrs. Boardman expects to return to Lents in Oct.

Charles Thomas and Roy White have gone to Scappoose on a hunting and fishing trip. The boys are to be gone two weeks and expect to bring home lots of game, besides having a good time.

Miss Dessie Christian, who has held a position as assistant in the Lents Post-office for the past two years, has gone to Vancouver, B. C., where she is visiting her brother and where she will spend a much needed vacation.

Miss Belle Snyder, of Republican City, Neb., an old schoolmate of Mrs. M. B. Hogue, is spending a few days with her. Miss Snyder is a teacher of many years experience and is so delighted with the country she may decide to make Oregon her home.

C. J. Griffiths, a resident of Washougal, Wash., visited in Lents over Sunday with his old friend, J. L. Harvey, who recently purchased the Baker residence. The visitor is also an acquaintance of J. C. Hutchinson and The Herald reporter, all formerly residing in Elgin.

Mrs. J. E. Carter, who submitted to a surgical operation in the Good Samaritan Hospital several weeks ago at the hands of Dr. Nelson, was brought to her home in Lents Monday evening and is on the rapid road to complete recovery.

Jas. R. Wilkinson, aged 59 years, died in this city, Monday, Aug. 19. Death resulted from cancer of the face. The funeral services were conducted in the M. E. Church Wednesday and the remains interred in the Multnomah Cemetery. Deceased leaves a wife and two daughters.

F. W. Tussy, manager of the Rose City Van Co., returned recently from an outing at Long Beach, Wash. Mr. Tussy has been suffering from hoarseness for several weeks and received but little benefit from his trip to the coast. His family remained at Long Beach.

The next regular meeting of Mt. Scott W. C. T. U. will be at the home of Mrs. L. H. Addison, Wednesday Aug. 28. A good attendance is desired, and all are requested to bring needle, thread and thimble as it is expected there may be work to finish for our Bazaar, which will be Sept. 9.

Dr. Hess visited over Sunday at Seaside with his family, who have been there for several days. He took a plunge into the briny deep, gathered several specimens of sea shells, sea vegetation, etc. and set out that he had a general good time. His family will visit a few days at Westport before returning home.

Don't forget the excursion to Bull Run Park next Sunday, conducted by the Women of Woodcraft of Lents. The special train leaves Mt. Hood station at 9 o'clock sharp. The Lents, Bang will accompany the excursion and a good time is promised all who attend.

Dr. W. B. Lyman, a prominent physician and surgeon of Boise, is a guest at the home of Dr. McSloy. Dr. Lyman was Dr. McSloy's preceptor in the Rush Medical College, of Eau Claire, Wis., of which both are graduates. The local M. D. is some pumpkins from the standpoint of avocados but has a superior in Dr. Lyman and the two make a good team. It is needless to state that the visit is one of extreme pleasure to both.

The girls' Sunday School class of the Evangelical Church will give an ice cream social Thursday Aug. 29th, at the children's playground. They will also have cream for sale near the car line. They are very anxious to have a liberal patronage as they are trying to raise enough money to meet their pledge on the church building fund. Everyone is requested to assist them in making the affair a success. More complete information will be given out later.
