BREEZY ITEMS CONTRIBUTED BY HERALD REPORTERS AT NEARBY POINTS

COTTRELL.

The grain harvest is almost over in this locality. The spring grain is a little later than the average but the fall grain is very good. Almost every farmer in this vicinity has his grain in the barn or in the stack, awaiting the arrival of the thrasher. The hay crop is abundant and the potato crop is far above the average for quantity and quality. The Anderson steam bailer of sixty tons capacity is busy baling hay for Joe Dicker.

A reunion of the Dunns was held at the residence of John and Patrick Dunn near Camas, Washington, who are old time residents and prosperous farmers of that vicinity, and Paul Dunn of Cottrell, who is also a prosperous farmer, who has owned and lived on his farm for forty years, and Mrs. Andrew Bissett, who is their sister from Cleveland, Ohio, with their families, had a very pleasant visit together.

Miss Helen Bissett of 574 East Oak street, Portland and friends, 22 in all, had a very joyful picnic on Cedar Creek above Sandy last Sunday. The party was composed of young ladies and gentlemen. They were desirous of having a ride on a hay rack in the country in order to carry out their wishes. John and Thomas Dunn met them at Boring with a carriage and hay rack and escorted them to the picnic grounds on Cedar Creek. The day was spent in games, plays, horse-back riding and they all returned on the hay rack in the evening to Boring well satisfied with the day's pleasure.
