

❖ Local and Personal ❖

Miss Etta Overton, of Portland, was a recent visitor in Lents, being the guest of Miss Myrtle Hutchinson.

BORN—September 19, 1912, to the wife of Otto Kadolph, a girl. The Kadolph family resides on Powell Valley road.

Fred Peterson has been laid up several days with a bad cold and an attack of tonsillitis, resulting in his absence from high school.

Mrs. Joe. Schweitzer, who has been ill for some time, is now regaining her health and hopes are entertained for an early and complete recovery.

Mr. Ellis, recently from Illinois, has purchased property in Shady Wood Park addition and will make that his permanent home.

The Parent-Teachers' Club will hold a business meeting at the school house Friday at 2:30 p. m. All the members are urged to be present.

Leslie Locke, a former well known Lents young man, returned a few weeks ago from Los Angeles and is at present assisting in the iron work on the Oregon Hotel annex. He expects to return to Los Angeles in a few weeks.

Jas. Horning, Lents' well known blacksmith and machinist, is now comfortably located in his new quarters on Foster road, having moved in last Saturday. The place was auspiciously dedicated and opened in a fitting manner.

F. W. Tussy, manager of the Rose City Van Co., is having a new barn constructed on his premises on Foster road. The new structure will be of sufficient size to hold all horses and other paraphernalia used in his extensive business.

Wm. Davis, a well known resident and hardware dealer of Browning, Mo., visited in Lents during the week with Bob. and Ed. Phillips, deputy sheriffs of this county. Mr. Davis and the Phillips brothers are old time friends and lived neighbors in Browning for several years. Mr. Davis also has relatives in Portland and Walla Walla and has been visiting them.

The Mt. Scott Bakery, a well known Lents firm, has purchased a fine new bread wagon and otherwise putting on metropolitan airs. The new wagon is a hummer and is an excellent advertising medium for that rapidly growing firm.

A party was given in honor of Alta Wood at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wood on Mayfield Ave. Sept. 18. An enjoyable time was had by all. Light refreshments were served at 12 o'clock.

Work has commenced on a new 5-room bungalow in this place for Mrs. Coon, a resident of Grass Valley. The new structure will be constructed along modern lines, having full basement, and will be an attractive home. J. C. Loucks has the contract for the construction work.

The following ladies of St. Paul's Guild, at Woodmere, attended the Hard Times social at the Parish house in Irvington Friday evening: Mesdames. Body, Gesell, McNeil, Lawell, Maffetx and Misses Gesell and Adams. All report a delightful time.

Tom F. Cowing reports that a number of pickets were torn from his fence and other damage sustained as a result of the dastardly work of a bunch of drunks, who made the town hilarious after the dance. Mr. Cowing says that if it is possible the guilty parties will be arrested and given due punishment for the same.

R. J. Steffy, a well known local painter, has been going on crutches for several days as the result of being kicked by a horse. The force of the blow was received on his knee, and while the injury was painful the fracture was decidedly slight and his escape without serious or permanent injury was decidedly lucky.

Junius O'Connor, field deputy for the Foresters of America, is in Lents in the interests of that well known order. Mr. O'Connor expects to organize a court in Lents and so far is meeting with excellent success. There are several members of that order living here and it is hoped to organize a good healthy local court.

A new National cash register of the latest type now decorates one of the counters in the store of the Mt. Scott Drug Co.

Dr. Hunter is now comfortably located in his offices in the Lents Hotel building and is ready for all practice entrusted to him.

H. E. Willson, who recently sold his barber shop, has gone to Canby for a few days, expecting to return in time for the Gresham fair.

Miss Agnes Matlock, a teacher in the Montavilla school, visited the Lents school Wednesday. The Montavilla school is closed for the week on account of improvements being made.

The theme of the sermon Sunday morning at the Baptist Church will be "The Man Whom God Does Not Condemn." The theme of the evening sermon will be "Adam, the First Sinner."

Mrs. Yeager and son, Melvin, will leave shortly for Persia, where they will join Mr. Yeager, who is employed in that country as an oil expert. Mrs. Yeager will start as soon as full instructions are received from her husband.

Rev. W. B. Moore, who has been pastor of the Lents M. E. church for the past several years, has been reappointed to the local charge. The return of Rev. Moore to the Lents pulpit is received with satisfaction by the members of his congregation and his many friends, as during his stay here he has labored earnestly and is popular with all who know him.

J. E. Hawken, who has been a resident of Lents for the past three years, has purchased Harris Willson's interest in the tonsorial parlors recently installed on the corner of Main and Foster road. Mr. Hawken has followed the barber business for many years, is a pleasant gentleman and will conduct the place in a first class manner. Roy Kortright retains his position with the firm.

Dr. R. W. Harris, who recently graduated from the New York Medical College, arrived in Lents the latter part of the week and is visiting at the home of his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Loucks. Dr. Harris went East seven years ago and has devoted the entire time to the study of medicine and surgery. He expects to open an office in Portland.
