

❖ Local and Personal ❖

Geo. W. Chauncy, a well-known Lents resident, moved this week to Greenleaf, Ida., where he owns a farm and where the Chauncy people will make their future home. Their many friends in this section wish them the best of luck in their new location.

Several Lents republicans—Taftites—went to Portland Tuesday evening to hear the speech of Philander C. Knox, secretary of state, who delivered a line of argument in favor of the re-election of President Taft. Secretary Knox recently returned from Japan, where he represented the United States at the funeral of the late ruler of that nation.

Mrs. Allmeyer, a resident of East Portland, visited in Lents this week with her sister, Mrs. I. F. Coffman.

An invitation dance will be given at Grange Hall Saturday evening of this week, and will be under the same management that has been in charge of the dances during the past few months. Only those to whom invitations have been issued will be admitted and the management intends to eliminate the "roughneck" element that has been in the habit of attending public dances here and causing a disturbance.

Local stores are already receiving their stock of late fall and winter goods and are anticipating an excellent trade during the next few months. Lents stores will carry a better line of holiday goods than ever before, and anticipate that Lents people will make their purchases here instead of in Portland.

Mrs. Walter Chappins, who was formerly Miss Maude Zimmerman, and a well-known teacher in the Lents schools, arrived a few days ago from Marcopia, and is visiting with relatives in Oswego and friends in Lents.

Victor Buckingham of Roseburg, who is attending the Knights of Pythias convention in Portland, visited between sessions in Lents with his sister, Mrs. E. L. Rayburn.

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 23, the Lents school will give a James Whitcomb Riley program in honor of that well-known author and writer. The program will open promptly at 2 o'clock. Either Superintendent Grout or Rigler will be present. The program will be free to all. All parents are especially urged to be present.

Don't fail to attend the final ball game of the season at the local grounds next Sunday. The tie game will be played off that day between the Eagle Club of Portland and the Lents team.

BORN—Monday, Oct. 14, 1912, to the wife of Dr. Irvin Sells, a son. All parties are doing nicely and the Doctor is wearing the smile that won't rub off.

E. A. Tate, a well-known resident, submitted to a surgical operation in the Good Samaritan hospital Tuesday for relief from appendicitis. Dr. Nelson of Lents performed the operation and the patient is reported as doing nicely.

Candidates are becoming numerous in Lents and from now until November 5 the man with the glad hand will be a frequent caller.

Herald readers are requested to report all local and personal notes. We desire to give all local news, but cannot do so without the assistance of our readers.

R. S. Snyder, who is afflicted with pneumonia, is reported as getting along nicely. Dr. David Nelson is the attending physician.

Baseball Sunday, Portland vs. Lents. Last and best game of the season.

Lowell Bradford and Archie Clark, two well-known Lents young men who are students at Reed College, have been honored by the members of the Freshman class. The former has been elected president of the class and the latter has been elected to the position of treasurer.

S. J. Langdon and family of Little Falls, Wash., have moved to Lents and expect to make this place their permanent home. Mrs. Langdon is a daughter of Mrs. Clara Kane of Gresham.

James Snyder, Roy Kortright, Chas. Kirschman and a Herald reporter spent Sunday fishing in the Sandy river, just above where the Bull Run merges with the Sandy. Good luck is reported.

A business meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association was held recently at the home of the president, Mrs. Otto Katzky, and arranged the following program for Friday's meeting, which will be held in the public school building Friday afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. Among the features of the program will be an address by Mr. Sabin. Miss Train will talk on "An Ideal Recess," and music by Goetz's orchestra will be the other feature of the program. A good attendance is desired.

T. J. Riley and family, who have been occupying the Deaton residence for the past several months, have gone to Salem, where Mr. Riley and son have accepted a position with the Oregon Electric. Mr. Riley is an experienced electrician and has secured a foremanship in the new location. Prior to their departure a farewell reception was tendered them by friends and neighbors. The affair was a surprise to the Rileys and was highly enjoyed by all. Their many friends wish them success in their new location.

The death of Mrs. R. S. Hummel occurred at the family home in Lents, Monday afternoon, October 14. Death resulted from heart disease. The funeral services were conducted in the First Baptist church Thursday afternoon and the remains laid to rest in the Multnomah cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by numerous friends and by members of Lents Grange and the local Tribe of Ben Hur, of which organizations deceased was a member.

Vernon Hopkins spent the week end with friends in Gresham. He is working at Bull Run now.

Miss Viola Mathews has accepted the position as assistant librarian. The Epworth League of the M. E. church will have a business meeting and social time at the parsonage on Saturday night. All friends invited.

A large crowd attended the entertainment given by the Butterfly Chorus Friday evening and all were much pleased with the program.

Rev. Dunlap, of Creswell, former pastor of the M. E. church here, was a visitor on Tuesday.

The Queen Esther Circle had a good attendance at the meeting Saturday evening. Plans were made for a thank-offering meeting to be held in the church the first Friday in November.

Milton Stayce, of Portland, visited friends in Gresham on Sunday.

Rev. Geo. F. Hopkins, of Portland, was a caller on Tuesday.

The house on Mrs. T. R. Howitt's lots, on Roberts avenue, is being moved to Zenith Addition, and a fine new residence will be erected in its place.

On Friday evening, October 18th, there will be a meeting in the Assembly Hall of the G. H. S. building of all the parents and teachers, to form a parent-teachers' organization. This organization is for the purpose of bringing the teachers and parents into closer touch, that there may be a better understanding.

Shearme & Windsor have sold their interest in the Central Hotel and pool room to Mills & Crowley of Mt. Angel, who will take charge at once. Mr. and Mrs. Shearme will go to British Columbia and Mr. Windsor to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Faris, Glen Rusher and Mrs. C. E. Rusher, spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Robt. Landsdowne, at Cottrell.

Mrs. Mary Preston, of Eagle Creek, visited here on Tuesday.

Miss Edna Goodwin, has rented a house, and is now awaiting the arrival of her mother, who will keep house for her.
