C. Gee Wo

THE CHINESE DOCTOR

Both the American and the Chinese physicians use medicines made from plants and herbs. But the Chinese have extended their researches and use Roots, Herbs and Bark that have never been heard of in this country. And with these harmless and non-injurious remedies Dr. C. Gee Wo has cured hundreds of patients of all sorts of diseases and who had previously been taking the medicines prescribed by well known American physicians. He has testimonials from patients all over the northwest as to the fine results he obtained with the use of these nature remedies. Should you live out of town and wish to begin treatment, send 4 cents in stamps for a consultation blank and circulars.

Tonic—Alterative

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that increases the strength or the tone of the whole system. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Name the best "tonic and alterative"? Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor about it.

Bilious attacks, sick-headaches, indigestion, constipation, dizzy spells—these are some of the results of an inactive liver. Ask your doctor if he endorses Ayer's Pills in these cases. The dose is small, one pill at bedtime.

WOMAN SICK TWELVE YEARS

Wants Other Women to Know How She Was Finally Restored to Health.

Louisiana, Mo.:—"I think a woman naturally dislikes to make her troubles known to the public, but complete restoration to health means so much to me that I cannot keep from telling mine for the sake of other suffering women."

"I had been sick about twelve years, and had eleven doctors. I had dragging down pains, pains at monthly periods, bilious spells, and was getting worse all the time. I would hardly get over one spell when I would be sick again. No tongue can tell what I suffered from cramps, and at times I could hardly walk. The doctors said I might die at one of those times, but I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got better right away. Your valuable medicine is worth more than mountains of gold to suffering women."—Mrs. BERTHA MUFF, 503 N. 4th Street, Louisiana, Mo.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE CHILDREN

RAISING PONIES PAYS WELL

Thoroughbred Shetlands Are Always in Demand and Exceptionally Fine Specimens Scarce.

(By R. G. WEATHERSTONE.)

We know of no better way for a boy to start in business than by raising Shetland ponies. A very well-bred mare can be bought for $125 to $200, the latter figure being for a pure-bred.

Starting with a mare in foal, a boy should, in the course of five years, find himself in possession of enough animals to start him on the highway road to success.

It is always best to buy thoroughbreds for breeding, but if crosses are used with a thoroughbred stallion one can in time breed up to a very high standard. Shetlands are very easily kept. They require but little grain and will do very well on rocky hill-sides where there is fair pasture.

They need shelter in bad weather, of course, but an open shed, wind-tight on three sides, leaving the south open, will all that is necessary.

A good wire fence is required to keep them in bounds, as Shetlands are extremely curious and somewhat restless, and will manage to get over, under or through the average farm fence.

If handled from birth, they are very easily broken and at three years old will be ready to ride or drive. Thoroughbred Shetlands find ready sale at prices ranging from $125 to $200 and exceptionally fine specimens bring even higher prices.

WEIGHING GAME IS POPULAR

New Pastime in France Meeting With Much Favor—Much Skill Required of Player.

A unique game in which the degree of skill in estimating the weight of a number of balls by holding them in the hand one at a time constitutes the ability of each player, is meeting with much favor in France. The accessories are the balance device, shown in the illustration, and two sets of balls, all alike in size, varying but slightly in weight.

In starting the game, the beam of the balance is locked in place in the same manner as the ordinary weighing balance, and each player takes a set of balls and proceeds to place them, one at a time, in the depressions in the respective pans. The object of each player is to place the heaviest of the balls in the depressions farthest from the center of the balance. After the balls are in place, the beam is released and a hand on top of the balance registers the winner and the number of points his side outweighs or outbalances that of his competitor. Thus the player who can estimate most accurately the comparative weights of the balls by simply weighing them in his hands wins the game.

WHITTIER'S DOG QUITE WISE

Canine Gave Evidence of Much Delight When Visiting Lady Sang Ballad, "Robin Adair."

During one of the last birthday celebrations of the poet Whittier he was visited by a celebrated singer. The lady was asked to sing, and, seating herself at the piano she began the beautiful ballad of "Robin Adair." She had hardly begun before Mr. Whittier's pet dog came into the room and, seating himself by her side, watched her as though fascinated, listening with delight unusual in an animal. When she had finished he came and put his paw very gently into her hand and licked her cheek.

"Robin takes that as a tribute to himself," said Mr. Whittier. "He also is 'Robin Adair.'"

The dog, hearing his own name, evidently considered that he was the hero of the song. From that moment, during the lady's visit he was her devoted attendant. He kept by her side while she was indoors, and when she went away he carried her bag in his mouth to the gate and watched her departure with every evidence of distress.

Naturally, Tommy had been given two new pennies—one for candy and the other for Sunday school.

By and by he came in from play and said:

"Mamma, I lost one of my pennies."

"Which one, dear?" she asked.

"The Sunday school one," he replied.

Unsatisfying Menu.

The young girls who work in the Paris shops have 50 centimes to spend for their midday meal, and when a charitable society inquired as to how the money was being spent, the following list was found to embody the average: Fried potatoes or sausage, 10 centimes; bread, 10 centimes; bonbons, 10 centimes; violets or other flowers, 20 centimes. The society no longer had any cause to wonder why the girls were undersized and ill-nourished.

National Characteristic.

A national characteristic of the French people is their habit of family exclusiveness. It is very rarely that a family divides for a holiday. For one thing, middle-class people in France do not pay visits except to members of their own family, and for another, a French mother likes to keep her children under her own eyes as much as possible, both before and after marriage.

Case of ingratitude.

When Lord B— died a person met an old man who was one of his most intimate friends. He was pale, confused, awe-stricken. Every one was trying to console him, but in vain. "His loss," he exclaimed, "does not affect me so much as his horrible ingratitude. Would you believe it? He died without leaving me anything in his will—I, who have dined with him at his own house three times a week for 30 years!"—Life.

He and Another Man.

A woman who owns a little brown rowboat, which when not in use is tied in a sheltered Cape Ann cove, responded to a knock at her cottage door the other day to find a very diminutive boy standing on the threshold. "Please, ma'am," lisped he, "can me an' another man have the loan of the brown skiff to go a-cod fishin'?"

Umbrellas when not in use should be left open. Never put away while damp, and do not allow them to stand in a dusty place, as this rots the silk more than any other cause. When a small hole or cut appears in a silk umbrella it may be mended with a piece of black court plaster or mending tissue.
