COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The last week at the Heights was a jolly week as it was Halloween and a good deal of entertaining took place.

Mrs. John Taylor gave a party on Wednesday evening to her friends. The large living room and dining room in the Taylor mansion were beautifully and artistically decorated, and with Jack-o-lanterns everywhere it made a pretty scene. Games and ghost stories held sway all evening. Mrs. Lee Evans and Mrs. Kay entertained with fitting music, and at a late hour the hostess served a delicious supper. The Epworth League held a social Halloween night in a large room over Mr. Ingrams' store. A large crowd attended. For amusements there were races, an animal show, a fish pond etc. and peanuts and candy were on sale. Pumpkin pie, cake and coffee was served. Everybody seemed to have a delightful time. The net proceeds were $30.

The Ladies' Aid tea was at the home of Mrs. J. F. Brower Wednesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Civic Improvement Club held their last meeting with Mrs. Bramhall. They expect to hold a social on Nov. 23 in Denny's Hall but only for club members and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, of St. Johns, visited his parents, W. H. Hamilton, Sr., for a couple of days last week. The former will move to Montavilla next week where he will go into the undertaking business and also handle all kinds of furniture.

A Halloween social was given in the Lusted school house last Thursday night by our teacher, Miss Marian Robertson for the benefit of the parents and children. The room was nicely decorated and spooks and ghosts made a ghastly appearance, fortune telling

CHERRYVILLE

Its all over but the shouting! Some are elated with victory and some are cast down by defeat.

Henry Oaks has sold his homestead 6 miles east of Brightwood to A. Harvard and wife. Mr. Oaks and family will move back to Michigan.

This weather is certainly getting monotonous but presently the clouds will be shining again.

John T. Friel and family went up to Mr. and Mrs. Harvard's, east of Brightwood, last Sunday for a farewell visit, as the Havards expect to live on their claim in Eastern Oregon over winter.

The entertainment at the school-house last Friday night was well attended and the program consisting of recitations, interspersed with singing, was thoroughly appreciated by all. The most notable event of the evening however was the letter read by the clerk of the School Board, Mrs. Gro. Couper, conveying the joyful statement that the Cherryville school had won the first, second and third prizes given by M. F. Schoolery & Co., of Oregon City for best work done by a Rural school at the last term of school presided over by Miss Lola Herald of Lents. These prizes consisted of town lots in Clairemont, a suburb of Oregon City, to the value of $216 or the cash. This was the occasion of much rejoicing by all present, as no one anticipated such a wonderful victory. After this announcement all present joined in a grand parade up and down the aisles to the accompaniment of bursts of instrumental and vocal music. Who says Cherryville is not on the map?

The memorial services held at the church in honor of "Billy" Rugh the heroic "newsboy" who gave his life that another might live a short time ago at Gary, Ind., was well attended and was under the charge of Rev. Mr. Runyan, proceeded first by music and reading of selections from prominent newspapers followed by a sermon by Mr. Runyan who dwelt upon this noble act of self sacrifice and the nation wide homage that had been paid to this devoted action by one occupying a humble station in life. A splendid portrait of the dead hero, dead is a poor expression to use to one who is a thousand times more alive than he ever was, was exhibited and revealed a noble and expressive countenance indicative of the great and generous nature of the lamented hero. Mr. Wm. Rugh, Sr. father of the Gary hero was present as also his entire family, consisting of his wife who is a step-mother of the deceased, and his two half-sisters, Mildred and Genevieve.
