CHERRYVILLE

November days are dark and dreary. The melancholy days have come.

A few nice days last week for which we are thankful or will be next Thursday.

Frank Sirois and Mr. Weber will clear land this winter for Dr. Botkin. The Dr. and son, James, will soon have a fine farm opened up. Their spacious new residence is a credit to the community.

Rev. Mr. Runyan gave an exposition of revelation last Sunday at the church and said the happenings on the East in which Turkey was being wiped off from the map of Europe was a fulfillment of Scripture as revealed in Revelations.

School will be closed next week on account of Institute week at Oregon City. Lillian Averill will attend the Institute and her mother will visit her daughter, Mrs. Olive Eaden, at Logan.

A considerable interest is being shown here in the goat business as there is an unlimited range and the goats practically live the year round on the range. Some parties are thinking of getting a band of milch goats as they give from 3 to 5 quarts daily of exceedingly rich milk which will yield a pound of cheese and goat cheese is worth double cheese made from cows milk at any time. Goats do not wander far and they come home every night.

A feeling of general indignation swept over this neighborhood when it was learned that the law passed at the last election prohibiting cattle from roaming at large. Many men voted wrong on this statement not realizing what they were doing as the different statements were somewhat confusing. If any attempt is made to enforce the law a general remonstrance will be circulated and sent into the county court as such a law to the poor ranchers would be a knock-out blow.

The Southern Pacific R. R. Attorneys are busy again notifying squatters on their forfeited land to move off at once or sign a lease as tenant with an annual rental of $20.00. This is the most absurd bluff ever heard of and no one but an infernal idiot will pay any attention to this bunch of robbers. Having lost all title to this land they now hire a lot of sharks, so called legal lawyers, to bluff the poor people who are trying to make homes on these iron hills. If this band of pirates can get any poor yaps foolish enough to sign this lease then the squatter becomes a tenant, with no rights to ever own the land that he has improved and is clearing up with infinite toil. U. S. Senator Lane said there would be trouble for Big Business Buccaneers if the people elected him U. S. Senator. Now let him go to it.

It is a bad time for Turkey in Europe and nearly as bad for turkeys in America.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Russell have just sold their ranch and expect to retire as active ranchers, and have purchased a new home near Troutdale where they intend to spend their declining years. Mr. and Mrs. Russell are among the oldest settlers here and have lived for many years on the ranch and raised a large family. Mr. and Mrs. Russell are highly respected and will be missed by a large number of friends in the old surroundings. Their descendants numbers both grand and great grand children.

Mr. and Mrs. Malroy were given a farewell party by their many friends here last Thursday evening who came in great numbers to greet them before going to Idaho, where they expect to locate. The evening was spent in music and games. Mr. Leo Evans and Mrs. Ray gave a number of songs that were well received, and Mrs. Evans played Furth, Wood, Tibbles, Smith Klamp, Potter, Harcourt, Boyd, Boddy, Shepperd, Goodwin, Allen, Nines, Williamson, Gazell, Lawell, Harris, the Misses Gazell, Marjorie Smith and Kathryn Allen.

A number of people of this vicinity formed a party to attend the lecture by Bishop Scadding at Grace Memorial Parish House last Friday evening. The Bishop chose as his subject "Cathedrals of France." The lecture was illustrated with hand colored stereoscopic views selected with great care. The last of the course will be delivered Friday evening Nov. 22. The subject will be "The Church from Jamestown to Alaska. Some one has been visiting Woodmere clotheslines after dark. Numerous articles have been taken, especially men's underwear. It is not well to leave the family washing on the line over night.

On the Sunday following Thanksgiving, the Rev. Mr. Taylor will preach a sermon to the Masonic Fraternities of this part of the city. All Masons are especially invited and all other persons who care to come. The service will begin at 11 a. m.

Invitations are out for the dancing party to be given by the young people of St Paul's church Nov. 27 at Woodmere. The same musicians who were so satisfactory last season have been engaged again. Mrs. Geo. B. Van Waters, Mrs. Oswald W. Taylor and the ladies of the Guild will serve as patronesses. A full house is expected as nearly every one who has received an invitation has accepted.

The women of St Paul's Guild are all busy preparing for the bazaar to be held Dec. 3 at Woodmere. Many useful will be offered for sale.
