WIT and HUMOR

GOOD DEFINITION OF "SNAP"
Near-Sighted Man Enters Wrong Flat and Shoots Man and Woman, Then Discovers Mistake.

A number of players and playwrights were discussing the question of what constitutes the "snap" so persistently demanded of the dramatist by the manager of today.
"I have talked to so many managers on this subject," said one writer, "but none has been able to give me any very definite notion as to just what 'snap' is."
"I can help you out," said Eugene Walter. "I have an idea for a one-act play that just bursts with 'snap.' I'll give it to you. Here it is:
"Play opens with man and woman in drawing room, seated side by side on a sofa and embracing each other passionately.
"Enter to them a man with a suitcase and an umbrella. He is, of course, to all intents, husband unexpectedly returned.
"Husband no sooner takes in the situation than he yanks out a revolver and shoots both man and woman.
"Then he takes out his glasses, puts them on, looks about him, and suddenly gives a start.
"Merciful heavens!" he explains. "I'm on the wrong floor!"

Poor Girl.
"How long have you been married?" "It will be six months next Thursday."
"And do you still regard your husband as the most wonderful man who ever was born?"
Then the poor girl broke down and sobbed piteously. When she could trust herself to speak again she said: "No, Charles has disappointed me terribly. I'm afraid I have wrecked my life. Last night when I asked him to get up and see if there wasn't a burglar in our room he bumped his nose against the edge of the open door and he said three simply awful swear words just as if they came natural to him."

A GOOD EXCUSE.

The Customer—See here, I caught one of your bartenders putting water in the whiskey today.
The Proprietor—Well, sor, yo see, we have to make some concessions to the tim'rance people.
Anxious to Serve.
Lawyer—It is reported that you have frequently expressed yourself as opposed to capital punishment?
Deacon Highsoul (drawn for jury duty)—I won't have no scruples in that man's case. He cheated me or a hoss trade once.
His Point of View.
Here's a story of a ninety-pound London woman who thrashed her brute of a husband so soundly that he's in the hospital for a long stay.
"I wonder when the London police are going to put a stop to these suffragist outrages?"

Rough on the Boys.
Professor—The average American girl is poorly educated.
Girl Graduate—You think so?
Professor—Yes, but there is one consolation, the average American boy will never find it out.—Satire.
Her Poise.
"Isn't Mrs. Colnhunter's poise superb?"
"Yes, indeed! Colnhunter told me once it was her balance that first attracted him."—Judge.
Descriptive.
Bobby—Uncle, couldn't a fellow have a fine Sunday's dinner if he was as hungry as me an' as roomy as you?
—Tit-Bits.
Walking Talk.
Bill—Do you know at just what age a child begins to walk?
Jill—No; nor a cheese, either.

Beauty In Expression.
If the great number of women who believe that they are sadly lacking in beauty who pass valuable time and money in vainly trying to acquire it could but be brought to realize that the highest form of beauty is that of expression! This is attained by the possession of inward graces, which frequently transform a so-called plain face into one more beautiful and winning than the combination of a perfect complexion and regular features.

Simple Club Doings.
While Mrs. W. was busy in her kitchen preparing the light refreshments for her bridge club, which includes the more well-to-do of the neighboring county, Sally Hill, a poor farmer's child, came in with a donation of home-made pickles. "My mother belongs to a club, too," said Sally. "Does she? And what do they do? Play cards?" "No." "Sew?" "Oh, no; they just draw names out of a hat to see who'll have the next meeting."

Water in hiving is adulteration. Glass and water make liquid blue costly. Buy Red Cross Ball Blue, makes clothes whiter than snow.

Should Have Some Superstition.
We would not give a rap for the person who is without all superstition. We would a little bit prefer the man whose superstitions are pessimistic to the one who is so exceedingly superior as to think there is no luck in life, no favor nor disfavor in anything that may happen or in any circumstance that may surround our lives.—Exchange.

Origin of Popular Saying.
The origin of the saying that it takes nine tailors to make a man is thought by some to be a corruption of "nine tellers make a man," the "tellers" being another name for "tolls" of a bell. The English custom was to strike three times three tolls or "tellers" on the passing bell for the death of a man. It was three times two for a woman.

Two-Edged Sword.
Curiosity is finding out something about somebody else that doesn't concern you and which would make you mighty mad if somebody else found it out about you when it didn't concern somebody else.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Woman of Narrow Mind.
A woman lacking true culture is said to betray by conversation a mind of narrow compass, bounded on the north by her servants, on the east by her children, on the south by her ailments, and on the west by her clothes.—Burton Kingsland.

Locusts Blinded Aviator.
A Spanish aviator nearly lost his life by colliding with a swarm of locusts. He was flying at a height of 60 feet when he ran into the swarm, which so blinded him that he lost control of the machine.

Delicately Expressed.
Little Bobby had been eating raspberry pie and had left the marks of it at both sides of his mouth, when a little friend of three came in and said to Bobbie's mother: "Mrs. C., can I have some of what Bobbie's got on his face?"

MISS G. MARONEY, of 2708 K St., W. Washington, D. C., writes: "I suffered with rheumatism for five years and I have just got hold of your Liniment, and it has done me so much good. My knees do not pain and the swelling has gone."
Quiets the Nerves
MRS. A. WEIDMAN, of 403 Thompson St., Maryville, Mo., writes:—"The nerve in my leg was destroyed five years ago and left me with a jerking at night so that I could not sleep. A friend told me to try your Liniment and now I could not do without it. I find after its use I can sleep."

African Ants.
These insects sometimes set forward in such multitudes that the whole earth seems to be in motion. A corps of them once was seen to attack and cover an elephant quietly feeding in a pasture. In eight hours nothing was to be seen but the skeleton of that enormous animal completely picked. The business was done, and the enemy marched on after fresh prey. Such power have the smallest creatures acting in concert.

Must Be Warned.
The Prussian building code has just received a rather remarkable amendment. It provides that the huts for the use of laborers connected with building operations must be suitably warmed between November 1 and April 1—when the outside temperature reaches fourteen degrees, that is, eighteen below freezing.

Fleeting Shade.
"By jove, I am glad to see you looking so gay and festive!" said Mr. Olde Friend. "You were all in black the last time I saw you." "Yes," demurely replied Mrs. Brown, who had just taken a second husband; "but it wasn't a fast black."—Judge.

Different Kind.
Wife (anxiously)—I do wish you were in some other work, dear. I am in constant fear that you will touch a charged wire at the shop. Hub—"Oh, the charged wire at the shop doesn't bother me; what I have more dread about is the charged account at the store."

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Up-to-Date Cookery.
Harassed Prisoner—"Pray, great chief, why do you keep your servant tied up so long?" Cannibal King—"A thousand pardons, dear missionary, but we are waiting for the consignment of paper bags from Sidney."—Sydney Bulletin.

Pettit's Eye Salve SMARTING SORE LIDS

Surely Justified.
Lady Motorist—"Oh, Mr. Policeman, when I tell you why I speeded you'll let me go." Officer—"Why were you speeding?" Lady Motorist—"I was trying to catch up to that car ahead to see how the lady had her hat trimmed."—New York Globe.

His Little Best.
Little Eleanor, who was very fond of chickens, stood over a dead rooster. Thinking that something good ought to be said, she remarked between her sobs: "He was always so glad when one of the hens laid an egg!"

Rochester, N. Y.—"I have a daughter 13 years old who has always been very healthy until recently when she complained of dizziness and cramps every month, so bad that I would have to keep her home from school and put her to bed to get relief.
"After giving her only two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound she is now enjoying the best of health. I cannot praise your Compound too highly. I want every good mother to read what your medicine has done for my child."—Mrs. RICHARD N. DUNHAM, 311 Exchange St., Rochester, N. Y.

Stoutsville, Ohio—"I suffered from headaches, backache and was very irregular. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken the whole of two bottles I found relief. I am only sixteen years old, but I have better health than for two or three years. I cannot express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had taken other medicines but did not find relief."—Miss CORA B. BOSNAUGH, Stoutsville, Ohio, R.F.D., No. 1.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for their daughters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.
