

Local and Personal

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Julian Sunday.

Mr. Wright, of Gray's Crossing, enjoyed a visit from his father during the Xmas holiday.

Mrs. Dickson, of Gray's Crossing, is again able to be up after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Quinn of North Main St. is well along with a five room, rustic finish, modern bungalow.

Mrs. Margaret Geisler was assistant at the Mt. Scott Drug Co.'s store during the holiday rush.

Mrs. John Hall has been chosen V. G. in Mt. Scott Eureka Rabekah, for the next term.

Mrs. Munsey, of Faxon Park has the framework of a cottage up and partly inclosed.

L. S. Klineman of Groveland was in Lents Wednesday and Thursday visiting C. E. Kennedy and wife and Attorney Klineman.

J. T. Fossler of North Main St. is laying the foundation for a new 30x36 one and a half story bungalow, with basement, and modern finishing. It will be one of the best buildings in the Saginaw district.

Vol. 1., No. 1 of the University "Monitor" has reached our table. It has the marks of an interesting publication. Its short story will appeal to old and young and we foretell it a welcome in the home and library.

Faxon Park citizens are enjoying a new improvement. An electric line has been extended to the end of the avenue and several arc lamps have been installed. At this time an agent is signing up the residents for house lighting and the necessary fifteen is expected to be secured within a few days.

Claude Goffman was host to a number of relatives and friends. Bert Lowe and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coffman, Mrs. Almire of Portland, and Mrs. Irvin of Seaside, and P. L. Coffman were recipients of his hospitality.

Mrs. Cune of 8th avenue is ill.

Mrs. Gollev, of Woodmere, who has been quite ill is slowly improving.

Mrs. Darnall visited friends in Gresham on Tuesday.

Miss Mable Kimber, of Portland, visited Miss Ruby Woodworth Thursday. Mrs. Coon's daughter, and family, will stop off for a brief visit in Lents, enroute to California.

The Musical given by the M. E. Church Friday evening proved highly successful.

Miss Mable Hogue of Seattle, has been visiting the Hongs' on 8th Ave. this week.

The Masons had instalation on New Years night. They have quite a line of membership candidates in view now.

Mrs. Mary Woodworth is entertaining her mother and two sisters from Corvallis.

S. R. Toon and wife entertained their son and two daughters from Portland Christmas.

Miss Leahs, of Arleta, is spending the week-end with Mrs. Wallace of Ninth avenue.

Albert Hinderlong is on the sick list.

Mrs. G. G. Woodworth and family, visited friends in Albina Saturday.

Mrs. Harvey, and her daughters, of Lents, spent the Xmas holidays in Gresham with relatives.

The Ladies of the M. E. church made New Year calls on all shut-in's and sick people in the Lents community.

The Xmas entertainment given at the M. E. church was well attended and the children did well.

Mr. and Mrs. Westover and children of Ninth Ave. spent Xmas with the former's parents at Vancouver.

Rolla Addition is busy with plans for new buildings as soon as the weather will settle enough to permit of work.

Master Benye Griffith of Woodmere, entertained Bernice Brown on his sixth birthday Monday.

Mr. Ferrell, of Grays Crossing, who injured his knee some time ago has been taken to the Hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodard and daughter, Clothiel, of Montavilla called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brown, Wednesday.

Mr. Layman is erecting a new house next to his home on Oregon City road.

Mrs. A. Nelson entertained her niece, Mrs. J. Cox and children, of Kenton on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehman, of Grays Ave., invited some friends to see the old year out and the new year in.

Arthur Geisler and wife entertained Mr. Geisler's parents and brothers and sister on New Years to a dinner.

Mr. J. M. Fairland is erecting a new house on one of his new lots at Grays Crossing which will be quite a nice one when finished.

E. L. Rayburn who has been suffering from an attack of LaGrippe for some time reports that he is able to hold an easy chair at his place of business now.

Mrs. Lowell, of Grays Crossing, has been doing a flourishing business at dress making for a time and the prospects look very favorable for a time to come.

Rev. Good made the trip from Los Angeles by boat this week. It was feared for some time that some accident had befallen him for his boat was late in arriving.

Lents Postoffice is having a new sign prepared as a New Year's preparation.

Parcel's post has its efficiency tried the first day at Lents. To H. E. Pease belongs the distinction of sending the first packages under the new system.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitson and Fred Hutton and daughter, Miss Grace Hutton, of Kalama, Wash. visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carman on Millard avenue the first of the week.

The many people of Grays Crossing have heartily recieved the news that they do not have to pay ten cts. car fare to pay water tax in the future but can pay it to good natured Mr. Blackburn at the station.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher of 65th and Rayburn Ave. are glad to hear that Mrs. Fisher and new born son are doing well and will soon be at home again from the hospital. Mr. Fisher wears a broad smile.

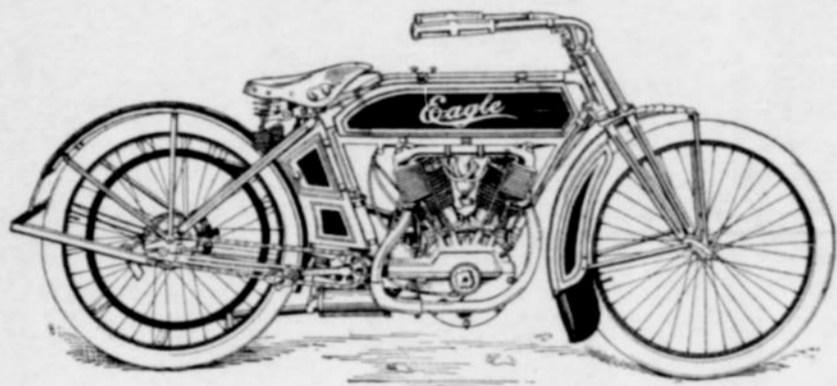

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thomas, of Grays Crossing, entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. Tamerlane and their son, Rex, who is home on his vacation from the Agricultural college at Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Peters, on Sunday.

The Mt. Scott Publishing Company is Going To Give Away $1000 In Prizes

Beginning today we are going to give the Boys and Girls of Lents and adjacent country an opportunity to win a handsome prize. The candidate having the largest number of votes at close of contest has the choice of the two Capital Prizes

Capital Prize $290.

One 9-horse-power Eagle Twin Motor Cycle. Fitted out with the Famous De Luxe Motor.

Purchased From The Lents Garage

Sec'd Prizes, Three

Ladies' Gold Watches
Purchased from Staples
Jewelry Co. Portland, Ore.
These Watches are beauties, and are a prize anyone would admire.

NOMINATION BLANK

Good For 5000 Votes

I wish to nominate _____
Address _____
Nominated by _____
Address _____

This nomination blank, when properly filled in and presented or mailed to Contest Department of The Mt. Scott Publishing Company will count for 5000 votes. Only one of these blanks will be credited to each candidate. Void after Feb. 1st.

Rules of Contest

Contest opens Saturday, Jan. 4, 1913, and will close Saturday night, May 31, 1913, 10 p. m. Any young man or lady is eligible to compete for the prizes.

Any employee or an immediate relative of an employee of this firm will not be eligible as a candidate in this contest.

The Contest Manager reserves the right to reject any nominations for candidacy.

No votes will be given for subscriptions for a longer time than two years, nor less time than three months.

No candidate will receive special favors, but each and everyone will be assisted alike by the contest management in obtaining votes.

Candidates are permitted to secure subscriptions anywhere. All subscriptions and orders must be paid for in advance to obtain votes.

The contest management will not be responsible for typographical errors in the publishing of votes except to make correction in the following issue.

No contestant can win more than one prize. Should any question arise as to the interpretation of the foregoing rules, the decision of the Contest Manager will be final.

A ballot will be printed every week. The ballot will count for 25 votes. All ballots will be void unless received at The Beaver State Herald office on or before expiration date as printed.

Orders may be taken anywhere for Advertising, Job Work. All such orders must be cashed before votes are issued.

How the Prizes Will Be Awarded

In order to give candidates equal chances, the territory has been divided into three districts. Each district gets a third and fourth prize. The person getting the highest number of votes in all districts gets the first prize which will be that person's choice of the two grand prizes. The person getting the second highest number of votes in all districts will take the remaining grand prize.

Of the remaining contestants, that person in each district having the highest number of votes will have a choice of the gold watch or handsome diamond ring.

The person ranking next in each district will take the remaining prize.

No person can take two prizes. Each district will be awarded a gold watch and a beautiful diamond ring.

District 1. Territory west of Main Street, Lents.
District 2. Main Street, Lents to Lents Junction.
District 3. Lents Junction and eastward.

Schedule of Votes

Beaver State Herald Voting Contest

	Votes
Three months' subscription	600
Six months' subscription	1500
One year subscription	4000
Two years' subscription	12000

For every advertisement secured through the influence of a contestant votes will be issued at the rate of 100 votes for every dollar in value of advertising.

For every dollar's worth of job printing, as cards, envelopes, letters, dodgers, etc., 100 votes will be issued. For smaller or larger orders of either advertising or job work in proportion.

Capital Prize $425.

An Upright Eiler's Piano. An exact production of the fine Piano given in our last Contest.

Purchased From Portland's Leading Music House
Eilers & Co. 7th and Alder Streets
Portland, Oregon

First Prizes, Three

Ladies Handsome Diamond Rings. Purchased from Staples Jewelry Co. Portland, Oregon.

VOTE COUPON---Good For Twenty-Five Votes

This coupon when neatly clipped and properly filled in with the name of the candidate you wish to vote for, will be counted as twenty-five votes.

NAME OF CANDIDATE _____
ADDRESS _____

This Coupon is void after January 9.

DISTRICT NO. _____ Cut this coupon out on lines and send flat not rolled

Contest Opens
Jan. 4, 1913
At 8 A. M.

Address All Communications and Subscriptions To Contest Dept.

The Mt. Scott Publishing Company

North Main Street

Lents, Oregon

Contest Closes
May 31, 1913
At 11 P. M.