

Local and Personal

Mrs. Moll is recovering from a very dangerous cold.

R. E. Curtis sold his house and lot in Almiria addition last week.

Mrs. O. E. Lent has been having a serious spell of tonsillitis.

Milton Wiley has had quite a struggle with grip this week.

Mrs. Claud Coffman has been suffering from illness this week.

Mr. O. W. Webb is putting an addition to the back of his house.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rytel, a baby boy, January 9th.

Mrs. Wilson, who lives on Campbell street is slowly recovering from erysipelas.

Miss Seva Brown entertained Misses Lucy and Ruby Woodworth at dinner Sunday.

The meetings still continue at the Methodist church with great interest and many conversions.

W. P. Ely, postmaster of Kelso, Washington, spent a few hours in Lents Saturday.

Misses Ellen and Annie Mathieson returned last week after visiting their parents in Rufus, Oregon.

Miss Adina Mortrude, of Lents, visited Miss Marjiam Jones, of Millard Avenue, Sunday.

Mrs. Chambers is now visiting with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Duncan.

Miss Elsa Schmidt will play the piano at the Volunteer theatre at Gray's Crossing from now on.

Miss Wilhelmina Harvey has been sick the past week with a severe cold, but is much better now.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Smith, of Albina, visited their daughter, Mrs. Alice Schram, of Gray's Crossing, Sunday.

Mrs. McGregor and Miss Hattie Felton, of Hawthorne avenue, visited at the home of Mrs. D. Hoekstra Sunday.

Misses Lucile and Helen Jones, of Gresham, spent a day or so with their grandma, Mrs. Lawrence, of 10th Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Webb and family visited Mrs. Webb's mother, Mrs. Palmer, of Woodmere last week.

Mrs. D. J. Duncan, of Gray's Crossing will leave the first of the month to visit her mother at Kalama, Washington.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Moran, a baby boy, January 7th, weighing 7 1/2 pounds. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. Elmer Mortrude has been quite ill the past week with an attack of the grip, but is again able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson and son, John Judy, of Mt. Tabor, Mr. and Mrs. William Beldin, of Arleta, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wood Sunday.

Miss Bernice Brown was five years old Saturday and ten little folks gave her a surprise from 2 to 4. She was the recipient of many pretty gifts.

Mr. Frank Wallace is having his house piped for gas. He has the distinction of being the first home on Ninth avenue to put in gas.

Mrs. Bright will move into her former location within a few days. The new building has been found inconvenient on account of its size.

Mr. N. H. Olds has been quite sick with lagrip the past week. It is reported that unless careful it will settle to pneumonia, but he is better now.

John Huntington is the first Lents man to get the benefit of the new pension law. He got a substantial increase last week which he reports comes in quite convenient.

The Volunteer theatre, of Gray's Crossing will close for three weeks while a new light system is being put in. After the first of the month a good show will be put on every night.

Married, by Rev. Benj. Young, of Portland, Mrs. Iva Yorgenson and Mr. Thomas Hoy, both of John Day, Oregon. Mrs. Hoy is well known here, having resided with her sister, Mrs. Wallace, and was very active in the work of the M. E. church. They are now visiting at the home of Mrs. Wallace.

Cornie Parker tipped a teakettle of boiling water upon himself last Thursday evening and was burned quite badly. Dr. Hess was sent for immediately and dressed the burns. She is getting along quite nicely and expects to be able to attend school in about two weeks.

Mr. L. Blasius is just recently located at Third Ave. and Luther St. He comes from Silver Lake, Washington, where his son, Charlie Blasius, formerly one of the popular conductors on the Mt. Scott lines, is located. He reports Charley as doing fine, and as being the father of two bouncing youngsters, who seem to have all the good qualities of their father and mother.
