DOINGS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

BREEZY ITEMS CONTRIBUTED BY HERALD REPORTERS AT NEARBY POINTS

LUSTED

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, of Montavilla visited his parents, W. H. Hamilton Sr., a couple of days last week.

The telephone line is again in operation after a silence of two weeks.

The Baptist minister, Rev. W. R. Howett, who has been holding services at Cottrell and Orient, called on several of the neighbors here last week.

Mrs. Emma Millsted, of Oregon City, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Whilton several days last week.

Mr. Ed. Seester had the misfortune to lose one of his best cows last Sunday morning of bloat from eating too much kale.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hamilton, spent a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Neibauer last Friday evening.

Mrs. Fay visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoenser, near Troutdale, several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell, of Pleasant Home, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Lusted last Sunday.

WELCHES

We have about eighteen inches of snow at Welches.

Walter Creighton lost one of his valuable mares last week. The mare was snagged in the throat on a broken manger at Rowe several weeks ago.

The new Mt. Hood hotel at Arrah Wannah Park fell down about ten days ago on account of the heavy weight of snow on the roof.

Mr. E. Coleman returned to Government Camp after a week end visit in Portland.

Mr. E. Franzetti, of Rhododendron has gone to Portland for a visit.

Donald Bodley is visiting at Welches for a few days.

Billy Welch and Price Jones are hauling bark for their fireplace.

Ben Totten has gone to Sandy to visit with Arlie Mitchell for awhile.

Mr. Tawney is hauling hay from Billy Welch's place.

Some of the little people of Welches are learning to ski also. Little Velma Morton, Lutie Welch, Felix Crutcher, Leonard Murphy, and Billy Faubion each have a pair of skis.

CHERRYVILLE

February days are here.

The entertainment at the church last Saturday night was not largely attended on account of the bad roads but those present appeared to be well pleased. The entertainment will be repeated later on when the roads get better.

John Vanderhoof, of Marmot, was taken through here Sunday by a game warden for some infraction of the game laws.

The hatchery at Salmon has begun operations this week. It is hardly likely that many fish will be able to get past the dam at Camp Six. A fish ladder is required to be placed there but they are not very satisfactory.

Most of the work is done on the tunnels and dam on the Sandy near here. The canal, over one mile long, from Camp Five to the big tunnel, is done and the cement work has all been completed. Over $2,000,000 has been expended on this gigantic operation. This has furnished lots of work for a great many people and under the present management very little complaint has been heard.

The Multnomah & Central R. R., according to a late issue of the Journal at Portland, has placed a mortgage of $200,000 with the Portland Trust Co. This looks like business as they now have the money to go to work. They have only six miles of the right of way wholly secured from Cottrell to Sandy although the larger part has been secured all the way to Welches. It is thought by some that this is a branch of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. R. and they are seeking this way to get into Portland.

Harvard college has now endowed a chair for the investigation of psychic phenomena. This indicates progress and the Oregonian in a recent issue comments in a very fair minded and able manner on this step. Intelligent people are pretty nearly done with the warring and jangling secretaries who fill the air with their din about what they believe. Let us hear something now that they know. The brightest mind the orthodox church has produced in fifty years—Prof. Henry Drummond—says "the position occupied by the Orthodox church is not impregnable."

COTTRELL

Mr. Gregg and family expect to move to Eastern Washington next week.

Mrs. Lucy Kincaid entertained Sam Hull and family and Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Gleason Sunday.

There was a good attendance at Grange, Saturday, February 1st. An excellent dinner was served by the ladies and everyone seemed to enjoy a good social time. There was initiation in the first and second degrees and a name recommended for membership.

The directors will give a dance Saturday evening, February 15th.

Mary Shybrock was the guest of Ruby Rasmussen Sunday.

Mr. Ackerman and family are moving to Newberg this week.

Mrs. Lee Evans enjoyed a visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. Brunk and Mrs. Rogers Bergfeldt, of Troutdale, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sprague were guests at the Lewis Reed home Sunday.

Mrs. Lota Benfield returned Thursday from a trip to the Sound, where she has been visiting relatives.

Will Crowston, a former resident of this neighborhood but now a resident of British Columbia, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Mrs. M. E. Reed, who has been in Portland since Tuesday being treated for eyeritis, is much improved but there is yet some inflammation in the left eye.

W. R. Knight was in Portland Tuesday.

Floyd Reed was at Warrendale Monday looking after a launch he has under course of construction at that place. Mrs. A. Woodward is on the sick list.

GRESHAM

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern celebrated their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary Tuesday evening with a party. Many guessing games were played and prizes were won by Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth Mrs. A. Hevel, W. R. Kern, and C. J. Lundquist. Some of the beautiful presents received were a cut glass sugar bowl and creamer and a silver cream spoon, a silver cake basket and knife, an embroidered doily and lunch cloth. There was about forty guests present.

The hostess was assisted in serving a two course lunch by the Misses Isabel Metzger and Helen Hoss. The guests departed at a late hour after expressing themselves as having had a most delightful evening.

Mrs. Emil Kardell will entertain with
