MISS BOLAND WINS IN WEEKLY CONTEST

The winner in last week's Herald advertisers contest was Miss Margaret Boland. She reported 89 figure 5's; M. O. Miller, 78; Milton Wiley came third with 69, and J. E. Elliott fourth with 60. This week it will be a little more limited as to area covered but will require closer reading. Better look sharp. Every boy will be doing this before the month is up. Get your answere in early. Isia Theatre, any show the following week except amatuer. Herald contest report is not included in this.

There is a few conditions necessary to the conduct of such a contest as this which you must read carefully.

First, only one report will be sent to any one family.

Second, The "C" must be found in the advertisements.

Third. You must write us and tell us which pages you find them on. A good way will be to begin with the first column carrying advertising and mention the advertisements having this figure in them and tell how many times it occur in each, and the total number of times it occurs in the paper. Fourth, you must send word before the next issue of The Herald.

Fifth, don't forget that The Herald is just as anxious to have its advertisers worthy of your confidence as the advertisers themselves. We believe a better acquaintance with our advertisers will show them to be entitled to your sup-
