This Wife a Treasure.
The saving habit may not be as much in favor today as thirty years ago, but one New York man has had occasion to be converted to a belief in it. He is a man who has worked seventeen years as a carpenter. His wife died decently, leaving him enough money to live in comfort the rest of his days. He knew that his wife took care of his money, but had no idea that she had saved so much.

Matter of Judgment.
"So you suspect that men are quicker of judgment in practical matters than women?" asked her friend of the middle-aged spinster. "Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "Men have heeded the warnings of the newspapers and quit buying gold bricks, but women continue to marry for money."

Better Not Take His Word.
Declaration from a learned source that the "day of judgment" is mythical may comfort such among us as have lived without due regard for the hereafter.—Exchange.

Chop Suey $25 a Dish.
High cost of living is not worrying the Chinese. One big Chicago restaurant run on the Hong-Kong style has on its menu a dish that costs $25. "Foony wong wu yin" is what they call it, and one portion is enough for five hungry suffragettes or six ordinary men. It has to be ordered twenty-four hours before you get it.

Only Way.
Knicker—A fashion note says that skirts are to be six inches narrower at the ankle. Bocker—Will the girls stand on one leg?

Frequently Happens.
A man may work so hard running after a hand wagon that when he over-takes it he's too tired to get any pleasure out of the ride.

Training the Colt.
Many valuable horses are spoiled by improper or harsh treatment in training. A man who is incapable of understanding the disposition of horses is certainly incapable of training them. Two-thirds of the horses that have been called vicious can be managed by proper treatment, says a contributor to Farm and Home.

It is bad policy to train a colt unless he is in the best of spirits. The brain will be more active, therefore the disposition easier to control. On the other hand, if you train a colt while he is thin in flesh, in poor spirits and on light food, as some men do, he will not take notice of objects, and when on good feed later, he is not well trained. Have them in good spirits, give plenty of feed, and use less whip.

Uncle Snooks Puzzled.
"What puzzles me," said Uncle Snooks, as he looked up from a book he was consulting, "is this. If a man is standing on the side of a hill or mountain, how is he to settle in his mind whether he is on an acclivity or a declivity? According to my dictionary here, the former is 'a slope up,' and the latter 'a slope down.' I've never yet seen a slope up that didn't slope down."

Peculiar Alpine Custom.
A curious eastern custom has been observed for many centuries in the western Alps. One hundred eggs are distributed over a level space covered with sand and the young men and women perform a dance around them. If a couple are fortunate enough to finish the dance without breaking an egg it is taken as a token of the compatibility of their temperaments and they are betrothed.

It Spread Easier.
One cold night a few years ago, we were all seated at the table eating our dinner. The butter was very hard, and, consequently, remarks were made about it. The next week the weather was very warm and the butter was somewhat soft. Little Billy, six years old, suddenly exclaimed: "Mamma, the butter is easy tonight, isn't it?"

Tut, Tut.
"I wish," said the brown sugar to the sand, "that you'd get out of this. You're always in my weight!"

Blood Bath Knocks Rheumatism
Remarkable Effects of a Remedy That Actually Irrigates the Entire Blood Supply.

It sounds queer to take a blood bath, but this is precisely the effect of a most remarkable remedy known as S. S. S. It has a peculiar action of soaking through the intestines directly into the blood. In a few minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the end of casting out every irritating, every pain-inflicting atom of poison; it dislodges by irrigation all accumulations in the joints, causes acid secretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.

And best of all, this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach. If you have dragged yourself until your stomach is nearly paralyzed, you will be astonished to find that S. S. S. gives no sensation but goes right to work. This is because it is a pure botanical infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs.

The great Swift Laboratory has spent millions of dollars in perfecting, producing and placing in the hands of the public this wonderful remedy. So give your blood a good bath with S. S. S. for it knocks the worst forms of rheumatism and gives you freedom to enjoy life.

You can get it at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle. It is a standard remedy, recognized everywhere as the greatest blood antidote ever discovered. If yours is a peculiar case and you desire expert advice, write to The Swift Specific Co., 160 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Beauty of Spider's Web.
There are few more beautiful objects than a spider's web covered with dew. In symmetry, in perfection of geometrical arrangement and in the prismatic reflection of color it is a gorgeous object. And consider the wonderful devices that our garden spider has for attending to its toilet. Was ever comb in woman's boudoir more perfect or more attractive than these combs that the spider has at the end of the claws to aid in manipulating the cobweb threads, in clinging to a rough object, and as aids in walking over the web?

Graft the Neglected Apple Trees.
There are thousands of apple trees growing in fields and pastures and roadsides that bear only poor, natural fruit and many of the apples are left to rot on the ground. If these trees had been grafted 15 or 20 years ago they might be bringing a handsome profit now. Many of them are not yet too old to graft. See that they are properly trimmed and fertilized.—(W. W. Maxin in Farm and Home.)

Torture of Tantalus.
The golf bug's soul came back from a little range around Satan's preserve with a smile as wide as the Amazon river. "I say," he exclaimed, "I don't call this much of a hell. They have the finest golf course out there I ever saw in my life." A droll-looking old soul who was sitting on the safety valves looked up. "But did you see anybody playing on it?" he asked. "No," the newcomer admitted. "I didn't." The old-timer chuckled. "That's it," he said. "He won't let anybody play on it!"—Exchange.

Wanderlust.
"I'm going to take a long ocean voyage, to nobody knows where, and come back, nobody knows when. I shall sit down by the wayside wherever I please and play with the children of the street, the little brown babies of the Orient, perhaps, or the little blue-eyed Saxons, who knows?" This great to go as you please and come as you please, with no telegrams to send, no stress of meeting friends and missing friends, and all that!—New York Times.

Voyage Somewhat Unique.
Steamers often load cargoes of wood pulp at Chicoutimi, at the head of navigation on the Saguenay river, that wonderfully picturesque tributary of the St. Lawrence which flows out of Lake St. John, and take their freight straight to Manchester, England. The voyage begins on the deepest river in the world, in the Canadian wilderness, and ends with nearly 40 miles of canal, through the mill districts of England.

CHOOSE THE SANDWICH
HERE IS VARIETY ENOUGH TO SUIT ALL TASTES.

Tomato and Horse-Radish Makes an Excellent Combination—Pineapple Fine for Those Who Like the Fine Flavor.

Tomato and Horseradish Sandwiches.—Butter thin slices of bread, lay a crisp lettuce leaf on lower slice, then place very thin slices of firm tomatoes on top, spread a little prepared horseradish on each slice, cover with another lettuce leaf and slice of bread. Trim the edges evenly and cut through center.

Brown Bread Sandwiches.—Butter thin slices of brown bread, lay a lettuce leaf on lower side, spread a little boiled dressing over, sprinkle with chopped walnuts; lay another lettuce leaf with dressing on that, press top slice of bread on and cut into three triangular pieces.

Pineapple Sandwiches.—Cut pineapple into thin slices, trim off the rind and remove center core, now shred into fine shivers, sugar slightly and set in cold place over night. Or, if desired leave the slices whole, place between slices of buttered bread and cut into triangles.

Ginger and Walnut Sandwiches.—Between thin slices of buttered bread lay bits of preserved ginger and chopped walnuts, using a little of the sirup the ginger is put up in. Cut into thin slices.

Dream Sandwiches.—Rub one cupful of stewed prunes to a paste with two spoonfuls of lemon juice, spread between thin slices of buttered bread; a few chopped walnuts may be added. Cut each into four little squares.

Hot Preserve Sandwiches.—Cut bread moderately thin, trim into even squares, butter lightly, spread with any well-flavored firm preserve, cut into triangles, place in fat tin and toast under gas flame in broiling oven until a golden brown. Turn and toast other side, and serve on hot plate covered with napkin.

Bacon and Lettuce Sandwiches.—Cut crust from thin slices of bread, toast on one side only and keep warm. Fry thin slices of bacon until crisp. Now butter the soft side of the bread, lay a lettuce leaf and a few slices of the bacon between and cut into triangles.

Fried Egg Sandwiches.—Prepare as directed above, then lay a lettuce leaf and a carefully fried egg on lower slice; season with salt and pepper, place second slice of toast on that and lay strips of fried bacon across. Either of these bacon sandwiches may be made with plain bread. Potato salad or water cress are nice with hot sandwiches.

Egg Beater.
An egg beater will do many things besides beat eggs. If a custard boils a little too much, keep it from curdling by beating thoroughly. Use it also for lumpy gravy. After boiled salad dressing is removed from the double boiler beat it hard for a few minutes, and it will be much more delicate and fluffy. One may use the beater for cake batter. Reduce the milk with a couple of tablespoonsful of hot water, which will soften the batter so that you can beat the sugar, butter, milk and part of the flour to a delicate cream before adding the remainder of the flour and baking powder.

Apple Salad.
Apple salad is delicious and seasonable, too. You take large red apples and scoop out the inside, creating cups. These are put into cold water with a few drops of lemon juice until ready to be filled. The filling consists of the apple chopped with celery, a little grapefruit and mayonnaise dressing. On the top heap bits of walnut and maraschino cherries, and lay each cup on a lettuce leaf. This is a very dainty salad, put together at very little cost. Wafers and cheese are served with it.

Chicken Griddle Cakes.
Beat one egg, add two tablespoonsful of chicken fat, melted; one cupful of minced chicken, half a level teaspoonful of salt, one pint of milk, and flour enough to make a batter that will spread slowly when placed on the griddle, having previously sifted three spoonfuls of baking powder into the flour.

Saving Wallpaper.
While cleaning mopboards, the wall adjoining may easily be protected by using a piece of cardboard held at the upper edge of the board. This allows the cleaning cloth to soil the cardboard instead of the paper, and avoids that streak one so often sees upon wallpaper or painted walls.

Endive Salad.
If at all wilted, place the stalks in cold water, but do not wet the leaves; wipe the leaves dry with a damp cloth, using only the well-blanching leaves. Pour a French dressing over it and garnish with trimmed red radishes.

Orange Tea.
Those accustomed to the flavor of lemon added to tea, will be pleased also with the flavor of orange. Wash an orange and cut in thin slices; pour the hot tea directly onto one or two slices and add loaf sugar.

To Keep Parsley Fresh.
Place the bunch in a glass jar, screw the lid on tight and keep it in a cool place. If cared for in this manner, parsley will last for a week.

FRENCH PASTRIES IN DEMAND
First Served by Fashionable Hotels. They Have Been Taken Up by Hostesses Who Are Up to Date.

The increase in the number of good patisserie shops where really delicious French pastries can be purchased probably accounts for the serving of French pastries for dessert at the home table just as they have been served for years in the big hotels and restaurants. There a special boy goes about with a huge silver platter filled with concoctions that make the mouth water and the purse strings open. When the diner or luncheon chooses the sort he desires the boy deftly removes it with a wide bladed silver knife. Nowadays the home hostess has the maid pass French pastries at luncheon and dinner. They are passed on a big platter and naturally each guest chooses the particular sort which appeals to him.

Many of them are simply boat shaped shells of puff paste filled with fruit of some sort. Grapes, covered with rich syrup, are sometimes used for filling; and strawberries, luscious and ripe, combined with a syrup, can also be used. Some of the pastries are made in layers of puff paste with an appetizing and delicate cream or almond paste or fruit filling between.

These interesting pastries really help to solve one of the housewife's worst worries, for they constitute a dessert which is easily procured and which is a welcome relief from ices and creams and the more usual sweets served.—New York Times.

GET BUSY WITH CHAFING DISH
Many Delicious Concoctions May Be Prepared for the Late or Sunday Night Supper.

A light, but fairly substantial edible, served piping hot, directly from a chafing dish, adds immensely to the informal Sunday night supper. Creamed salmon is delicious and is easy to prepare in a chafing dish. Use the hot water pan first, brown a little butter and sprinkle crumbed bread into it, turning over until crisp. Set these crisped crumbs aside and proceed, with the blazer pan, to make a simple bechamel or cream sauce, first melting a tablespoon of butter, stirring in a tablespoon of flour and adding a scant cup of milk. Season this fairly-thick white sauce with salt, pepper and a few drops of lemon juice. Stir in a can of salmon and when steaming hot and ready to serve, shake over the top the browned crumbs. The creamed salmon may be served without the bread crumbs, but they add an appetizing flavor, suggestive of the browned crust over a hot dish prepared in the oven.

Cream of Celery.
From the Caterer we take the following recipe, and for family use each can reduce the quantities to suit. Even in using the leaves and poorer parts of one head only the recipes of the best chefs will be a good foundation for experiment and adaptation.

Remove the outside stalks from 12 heads of celery, keeping the hearts to be eaten raw. Cut up these stalks in small pieces, wash well, drain and set in a pan with a piece of butter; cover the pan and cook over a slow fire.

When the celery is nearly done, moisten with one gallon of lightly thickened chicken or veal stock, allow to cook for 15 minutes, and then rub through a fine sieve; pour the soup into a clean pan, let boil and clean from scum. Season with salt, pepper and a pinch of sugar, and before serving bind with one pint of cream, six eggs and four ounces of butter. Serve small fried crusts of bread separately.

Jelly Custards.
One scant coffee cup sugar, one-half cup acid jelly, one heaping tablespoon cornstarch, two cups sweet milk, yolks two eggs beaten light, butter the size of walnut. Sift cornstarch and sugar into a bowl, pour the milk over this, beating constantly to prevent lumping, then add the well beaten egg yolks. Place jelly and butter on stove to melt and beat them slowly into the first ingredients. Set on stove and cook until mixture begins to thicken; stir continually to prevent scorching. Pour into a baked crust and make meringue for top of whites. Set in oven for a few minutes until golden brown. It must be perfectly cold before serving.

Bolled Salmon Steak.
Boil a pint of broth or water with a small bunch of celery, half a teaspoonful of salt, quarter teaspoonful of pepper and a tablespoonful of vinegar. Cut the steaks in suitable pieces and put the fragments and bones in the boiling liquid. Place the salmon in a clean saucpan and strain the seasoned broth over it; cover and let boil briskly for ten minutes. Serve in a deep dish with the liquor instead of sauce. The full flavor and the richness of the fish are preserved in this dish.

Marmalade of Rhubarb.
Two quarts rhubarb, two pints sugar, two oranges, juice of one and grated rind of one; one cupful chopped raisins. Cut the rhubarb in pieces, cover it with sugar and let it stand overnight, then add other fruit and cook until thick. It can be made without raisins.

Orange and Prune Salad.
Steam a dozen large prunes until they are puffy; then cool and remove the pits. Cut the prunes in two and mix with an equal quantity of orange pulp. When serving, place a tablespoonful of tart boiled dressing, mixed with whipped cream, on each helping.

EXPERIENCE OF MOTHERHOOD
Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
