Rev. P. Conklin announced that this year he intends to give his congregation more sermons on Heaven and less on Hell, and give how the gentler method prospers. Rev. Conklin preached two stirring sermons Sunday. There was a good attendance despite the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tyler entertained the Y. P. A. young people at their home in East Mt Scott, commonly known as Happy Hollow, last Tuesday evening. The young people went by auto and wagons. Great fun was had going and coming. Mrs. Tyler served punch, strawberries, cream and cake.

Alvin Bradford, former choir leader of the Evangelical Church Choir, has accepted the supervision of the Mt. Tabor playground. Mr. Wm. Ash of Lents is the newly appointed chorister. Two very beautiful selections were given morning and evening. Many voices made great volume and all present were impressed by the great worth of sacred song.

Carl Hollingworth, custodian of the Lents playground last summer, has been appointed travelling secretary of student volunteers. He will travel from college to college. His headquarters will be New York City, where he will report September 1st. He will be engaged in playground work this summer, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Huntington returned Friday from the G. A. R. encampment at Newburg. Mrs. Huntington was a delegate from the Summer Relief Corps of Portland. Mr. Huntington received a very generous support for Department Commander, but there was a combination against any and all candidates in, or near Portland. We have no regrets to offer. Comrade Taylor elect is a vigorous specimen of the G. A. R. and will make a splendid commander.
