Veteran Undergoes Operation

G. W. Landon of Park Avenue, over eighty years of age was the subject of an operation on Monday afternoon at Selwood hospital. Mr. Landon has been a sufferer for a long time from a wound in the lower part of his leg and it reached a point when he considered it impossible to endure it any longer so he decided on amputation. Dr. W. C. Belt of Hooper, Wash., was consulted, having been acquainted with the patient for many years, and the result was the operation.

It is a little early yet to say what will be the result of the undertaking but at last report Mr. Landon stood good chances of a speedy recovery.

W. Barnes, one of the Lents firemen, is suffering from another severe attack of poison oak in his eyes. He injured them by going to the fire last Monday morning.

J. P. Nordin wishes to announce to the public that he can be found with Rayburn & Sons in the future. All jewelry left with him for repair was saved during the fire Monday morning.

Ralph Miller, head of the collection department of the Portland Gas and Coke Company, was out last Saturday and placed the collections for this district with F. R. Peterson, of the Lents Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward and sons, Edgar and Elson of Lakeport, Cal., former neighbors of the Huntingtons, on their way to Eastern Washington stopped for a few days in Portland and Lents.

Mr. and Mrs. Daller Simonsen, Mrs. W. H. McDowell, and W. W. McDowell, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McDougal Sunday and then drove to Estacada, returning in time to witness the fire.

Miss Rosie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Mysing, Kennett Avenue celebrated on the third her 15th birthday as a guest of Neptune at Seaside. Her many well wishing friends congratulate her.

Your Optician should be selected with as much care as your family physician—and when you have found a reliable one, stick to him. Not for his goodly, but for your own. The better acquainted that he is with your habits, the better work he will do for you. Dr. Erwin L. Sells, in a bungalow office opposite post office. Hours: 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.
