The ice cream social given by the Ladies Aid of Lents M. E. Church at the home of Mrs. O. E. Lent was a success despite the cool evening.

The Ladies Aid of Bennett Chapel M. E. Church will give an ice cream Social at the Church grounds Saturday Aug. 16 th., proceeds are for current expenses of the church. All are welcome.

The Lents Park Ball team defeated the South Mt. Tabor Park team by a score of 19 to 6 this week. Ralph Galacho made some notable plays both as pitcher and in striking. The boys will play a return game this week.

Mrs. Lorena Gossett and daughter, Mrs. Elsie Christensen, and her two children, have gone to Elgin, Ill., to visit Mrs. Gossett's father, J. S. Wikoff. They will attend a family reunion which will be held to celebrate Mr. Wikoff's eighty-third birthday. They expect to visit many points of interest before returning the last of October.

The Lents Volunteers are bemoaning their bad luck of Tuesday night. They were busy assisting to dispose of the remains of the McGrew buildings when the Tremont alarm rang and though they made a good run the Tremont fellows beat them to it. But then why should they expect to be first in another company's territory? Just because the Lents boys were never beaten before in a race to a fire is no reason they should think they can run half way to Portland and beat all the other volunteers. The Lents boys are undertaking a little too much.

Correcting a statement that has been made some time since, the Bright Building and Investment Company have been granted a certificate to do business in the state, by the Corporation Commission. They had been incorporated. They were considered very favorably as only about one in fifty applicants received certificates. The officers of the company now are Mrs. Bright, President; B. G. Skulason, Secretary and H. Rostad, treasurer. The law effecting corporations went into effect July 1st.

DUSTLESS DUSTING CLOTH
 Dustless dusters can be made at home in this way: Take two old stocking tops and split each one, then sew together, making a square soft cloth. Soak this a while in kerosene, then hang up to dry. It will be equal to one of the dustless dusters that would cost you 25 cents, and you have a use for your old stockings.—Mrs. Carrie Smith, Sterling, Kan.

FOR THE ENAMELED KITCHEN.
 About once a week I go over my enameled sink with turpentine and salt. I dry the sink first, then rub it well with a cloth saturated with the oil and sprinkled liberally with the salt. A good rinsing with warm water, then drying, completes the process and leaves the sink in a condition better by far than any other method I have ever tried.

R. E. Beagle has his new brick store building inclosed.

A. F. Miller of Sellwood was attending to business in Lents Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hill are unfortunate parents of an infant child born last Friday, which died Sunday.

Miss Grace Graves and Miss Edna Bleything are spending their vacation in the mountains of Washington, the guests of Miss Lena Burns.

Grays Crossing 82 ave. has a drug-store in the new Lents Bk. Which will be much appreciated by the people of that vicinity.

Maxmeyer Bros., mother and sisters, left for Crawford, Washington last week, where they expect to reside permanently hereafter.

During the period of inactivity in business, a liberal amount of advertising or general publicity should be used, at least an amount commensurate with your business requirements.

OBITUARY
 Oscar H. Prink entered into rest August 10, at 4:40 p. m. He was born at Hisdale, N. Y., April 4, 1838. The father of the deceased, Elder Peter Prink, pastor of the Baptist Church at Oshkosh, Wis., at one time, was a veteran of the war of 1812. His father in turn was a soldier in the Revolutionary Army, having deserted from the Hessians to the American army. The departed served 3 years and 3 months in the Union army. Three months of this time he was a prisoner in Little Rock Prison. He enlisted Sept., 15, 1861 as Corporal in Co. E. 1st Wisconsin Volunteer Cavalry. He was wounded four times during the war. He was mustered out as Sergeant of the Co., in which he had entered the war. He was commander of Ben Butler Post No. 57 of Portland. He was also the first commander and organizer of McKinley Post No. 45. He has always taken an active interest in the organizations of the old soldiers, having been commander of several posts in the East and the organizer of some of these.

The deceased was united in marriage to Mary Dowd Oct. 21, 1861. To this union ten children were born, of whom nine are still living. The children who survive are: Miss Ida Prink of Monteeere, Mo., E. L., W. H., H. E., F. M., and A. W. Prink of Portland, Oregon, A. E., Mrs. O. Witte and C. M. Prink of Los Angeles, Cal.

The departed united with his father's church at Oshkosh, Wis., at the age of 30 years and has been an earnest christian since then. On coming to Portland in 1904 he identified himself with the Second Baptist Church, in the membership of which church he continued until he left for California three years ago in search of health.

The funeral service was conducted in the Lents Baptist Church Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. by the Rev. J. M. Nelson, pastor of the church. The interment was in the Mt. Scott Cemetery. The services at the grave were conducted by the G. A. R.

Your Optician should be selected with as much care as your family physician—and when you have found a reliable one, stick to him. Not for his good, but for your own. The better acquainted that he is with your habits, the better work he will do for you. Dr. Erwin L. Sells, that bungalow office opposite post office. Hours: 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Suffered Eczema Fifty Years—Not Well
 Seems a long time to endure the awful burning, itching, smarting, skin-disease known as "teetter"—another name for Eczema. Seems good to realize, also, that DR. HOBSON'S ECZEMA OINTMENT has proven a perfect cure.
 Mrs. D. L. Kenney writes:—"I cannot sufficiently express my thanks to you for your Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. It has cured my teetter, which has troubled me for over fifty years." All druggists, or by mail, 50c. PFEIFFER CHEMICAL CO. St. Louis, Mo Philadelphia, Pa.
