Sporting Blood in Him.
There are ways of doing things. That is elementary and axiomatic wisdom, and yet people are slow to act upon it. Take the case of the East Clevelander who has a garden and a small boy, suggests the Plain Dealer. This man said to his wife the other day:
"Emily, we aren't going to have any sweet corn this season if we don't take better care of it. I wish you would persuade Robert to take a morning from his baseball and swimming, and get after that corn patch."
"I tried to," sighed the mother, "but he just won't do it."
"Tell him you'll give him a quarter to do it."
"I did. I said just yesterday, 'Robert, if you'll cultivate that corn and get all the weeds out of it by noon I'll give you a quarter to put in your bank.'"
"Oh, pahaw! That's not the way to do it. Call him in here and I'll fix it. Robert, have you got any sporting blood in you? Will you take a small bet? I'll bet you a quarter you can't get that corn hoed before noon today."
"I got you," says Robert. Then as a look of triumph spreads over his father's face he adds, "Have you got any sporting blood in you?"
"I sure have, Robert."
"Then I'll bet you a half dollar you win the bet. I'll be at the office this noon and collect."
The corn isn't hoed yet.

SAM WAS JUST COMING BACK
Georgia Negro Receives Purse of $2 to Sleep in Haunted House and Then Disappears.

A certain haunted house down in Georgia was held in terror by all the negroes in the vicinity except Sam, who bravely declared that for $2 he would sleep there all night. A purse was raised and Sam was told to carry out his end of the bargain and to call in the morning for the money. When morning came no trace could be found of Sam; the house contained nothing but evidences of a hurried departure. A search party was organized, but without result.

Finally, four days later, Sam, covered with mud, came slowly walking down the road.
"Hi, dere, nigger!" yelled a bystander, "where's you been de las' fo' days?"
To which Sam curtly responded: "Ah's ben comin' back"—Everybody's Magazine.

Muffled Knocks.
"Bobby, you mustn't put your sticky fingers on Mrs. Kawler's nice dress; it's the only silk dress she has."
"No, Mr. Smyler. I haven't the slightest objection to your smoking in my house; let me offer you a good cigar."
"Old scout, you always pitch a good game of ball—except when I'm betting on you."
"You live in Outsomehurst, do you, Mr. Blubbins? Has that suburb a respectable residence section?"
"You show good literary judgment, Mr. Lee; you're always stealing my stuff."
"Won't you let your little boy come to our Sunday school, Mrs. Jerdle? It can't make him any worse, and it may do him much good."

Why, indeed?
"Papa, this story tells about a man who was very cruel."
"Very cruel?"
"Yes. He was lying stretched out upon his dying bed."
"I don't see."
"But if the bed was dying why did he embitter its last moment by lying upon it?"
Excellent Point.
"So you've got a photograph, have you?" asked the lady on the fourth floor.
"Yes; can you hear it up in your apartment?" asked the lady on the second floor.
"No, we cannot. I suppose it has some other good points, too?"

Clever Deduction.
The train stopped for a few moments and the passengers looked out.
"Everybody in this town seems to look perky and contented," remarked Dr. Watson.
"The town evidently has a winning baseball team," deduced Sherlock Holmes.

ELOPED BY AEROPLANE.
An eloped by aeroplane which has yet some features of the old-time slowness is reported from Niort, France.
Two months ago a good-looking young airman was giving exhibition flights at Niort. A pretty governess fell in love with him and begged him to take her up in his aeroplane. A few days later the airman eloped with her in the machine, and did not descend until he reached Issy, 250 miles away.
The girl's father has now lodged a complaint against the airman, whom he accuses of having abducted his daughter and detained her against her will. The governess, when she appeared before the police commissary, said that she had eloped with the airman of her own free will and declared that she would be eternally grateful to him for flying away with her. She added that, as she was of age, she was free to do as she pleased.
The father's complaint was dismissed.

GIVE UP WORK GRADUALLY
Man Accustomed to Regular Duties Makes Mistake When He Suddenly Ceases All Labor.

Many business men at the age of fifty or fifty-five work eight hours a day and enjoy it. They will tell you they feel as young as they did ten years before.

Then some of them conclude they have enough of this world's goods and retire.
It is a well-known fact that brain or muscle work forms in the system a poison, and if we keep on working a condition which doctors call auto-intoxication is produced. Which means that the antitoxin nature has produced in our bodies has not been enough to offset the poison of our burned up energy.

Rest and deep sleep are supposed to clear the body of all poisons and waste. But it has been proved in the cases of persons who use drugs that after they have taken into their system a certain drug in increased amounts for some months they can stand an amount which would kill a dozen persons not accustomed to the drug.

From the minute the drug was in their system nature started to work to produce in that body an antitoxin to fight the poison they were taking. Nature gets many habits of her own, and she gets into the habit of expecting to form an antitoxin to battle with that poison or drug which that body has been taking daily, and she produces it daily.

Now suddenly let that same body stop taking into it the drug it was used to; nature does not stop forming the antitoxin. No indeed; she goes right on for weeks and months forming the antitoxin she has been accustomed to form, and the little fighting army to fight and being of a poisonous nature themselves, turn from little workers, when they have their own work to do, to bad workers, with no work, and start fighting the good cells of the body, producing a self-poisoning which is likely to cause death.

If a man has been working daily for years and the energy used up by work has produced a sort of poisonous waste, enough to cause auto-intoxication if not cleared out by rest and sleep, would it not seem reasonable that nature had daily in that man's system been forming an antitoxin to offset the poisonous waste and that when he suddenly stops work the same condition takes place as with a person who takes poison? The antitoxin cells, finding no poisonous waste to work on, turn and work on the good cells of the body, causing auto-intoxication and sickness and many times death.
It would seem that a man giving up work should do so gradually.

Sacrificed All for Hobby.
At Ivry, a Paris suburb, has just died a remarkable old man, a septuagenarian, named Fraissard. He died in poverty, but had he chosen he could have become one of the most famous European sculptors. As it was, he finished life as he began it—more or less penniless. When a boy he was apprenticed to a marble cutter, and he at once discovered his powers in this direction. For fifty years he had continued to execute the most beautiful works of art, mostly in mosaics. M. Fraissard's masterpiece took him nearly twenty-four years to perfect. It is a black marble table. In the middle is a chessboard, on either side of which are playing cards arranged as fans. On the table are dominoes and dice, cigars and cigarettes, and several coils in gold and silver. All these are, of course, inlaid. The materials in the table, beside the black marble, are agate, onyx, porphyry, malachite and lapis lazuli, the tones of which are black, red, orange, blue and white. Ninety different kinds of marble were also used.

Make Hair Grow Restore Color
Dandruff is a disease that does positive injury to the hair follicles and hair roots EVERY DAY if it is permitted to exist. Unless you can afford to be bald JUST A LITTLE LATER ON you cannot afford to neglect dandruff or falling hair for ANOTHER DAY. But don't use any hair tonic without KNOWING FOR YOURSELF just what it contains. The safest way is to either mix your own tonic or go to a druggist whom you know to be reliable and have him mix it for you. An absolutely safe and unquestionably the most efficacious formula you can possibly use is this very simple one: 6 ounces Bay Rum, 2 ounces Lavona de Compose, 1/4 drachm Menthol Crystals. Mix thoroughly, and after standing half an hour it is ready for use. If you choose, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. Apply night and morning, rubbing into the scalp with the finger-tips. Insist upon this exact formula, if you have your druggist mix it for you, or you will have a tonic that you can depend upon for quick and lasting results. It will not only rid your scalp of dandruff and stop your hair from falling, but it will cleanse and beautify the hair to a remarkable degree. It contains an ingredient that stimulates the growth of hair and which also is believed to stimulate the activity of the pigment-forming cells so as to partly or fully restore prematurely gray hair to its natural color without the use of any dye.

Woman Is As Old As She Looks
No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor's" prescriptions. Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store. Beauty depends upon health. Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irritabilities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step. To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for
DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription
This famous medicine strikes at the very root of these enemies of your youthful appearance. It makes you not only look young, but feel young.
Your druggist can supply you in liquid or tablet form or send $5 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and trial box will be mailed you.

Frenchwoman a Cave Dweller.
A woman of forty-five has been found living in a cave in the forest of Fontainebleau. Snakes and rats were her co-tenants. She subsisted on raw vegetables, and was clad in rags. She was reluctant to leave the cave.—Paris Cable to the New York Times.

She Remembered.
Minnie, aged two years, asked her mother's permission to throw away some flowers, as they were dead, she said. Her mother corrected her and told her to say "withered," not "dead." The following day a military funeral was passing and the baby astonished everyone by saying: "Come here quick, mother; someone else has withered!"

Mother's Way.
A friend of mine, a teacher, had just received a very handsome fan, and took it to the classroom for the edification of the children. Selecting one of the pupils, she asked what the lovely thing was. The child did not know. "What does your mother use to keep her cool in summer?" asked the teacher. "Beer," was the reply.

Embarrassed Police Sergeant.
"She caressed me," was the blushing admission of a police sergeant at Tottenham, England, when a married woman was charged with obstructing the sergeant while he was taking her husband into custody, the woman fingering her arms round the officer's neck and crying, "Take me, too!"

Cause for Worry.
Friend—"Why, Elvira, what's the matter?" Elvira—"Oh, I don't know, only I'm worried to death! I've had the same girl six weeks, and she doesn't talk about leaving yet!" Friend—"She doesn't?" Elvira—"No, not a word! She must be in love with my husband!"—London Opinion.

Sick-Room Light.
If there are electric lights in the sick room they will generally be found too brilliant, hurting the eyes of the patient, and not every sick room has the electric lights that can be turned up or down. Make a little green silk bag and fasten it over the incandescent bulb and it will give a good but subdued and harmless light.

Courage Not Needed.
The greater part of the courage that is needed in the world is not of an heroic kind. Courage may be displayed in every day life as well as in historic fields of action. There needs, for example, the common courage to be honest, the courage to resist temptation, the courage to speak the truth, the courage to be what we really are, and not to pretend to be what we are not, the courage to live honestly within our means.—Smiles.

Wholesale Invitation.
There have been many innocent mistakes made by persons. Among them in one told of a certain clergyman who left a notice in his pulpit to be read by the preacher who exchanged with him. The minister neglected to denote carefully a private postscript, and the people were astonished to hear the stranger end by saying: "You will please come to dine with me at the parsonage after service."
