Mountain Correspondence.

MOUNTAIN, July 29, 1880. EDG. LEADER: Everything is lovely and the goose hangs high. A new road was surveyed out here on the mountain last Monday, which gives good satisfaction to all with one exception. We are having fine times here now. One day hot, next day cold, next rain, and what fine crops of grain we will have if nothing befalls us more than we know of now.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune is published at Pendleton—that is, part of it. The young men of that sheet deserve credit for their strenuous efforts to issue a good paper, and certainly the "out-ride" is pretty good. In the last issue they made one of those wild attempts to write in an easy, off-hand way about the LEADER. Now, as far as the LEADER is concerned, we don't care a bit. But the effort looks so simple, and they always get off the track. They say, "the fact of the matter is no line was agreed upon" at the Pendleton Division Convention. W. M. Steen, Chairman, and W. T. Cook, Secretary of that convention, signed the report we published, stating that a line was agreed upon.

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA.

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well-known and trust-worthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office: PORTLAND, Or., July 31, 1879. The OREGON KIDNEY TEA has cured my back and kidneys, and I am at a loss to express my gratitude. I shall always remember the OREGON KIDNEY TEA with pleasure and esteem, and highly recommend it to all my friends and acquaintances. J. H. P. DOWNING (at P. Selling's).

August Flower. The immense sale and great popularity of Green's August Flower in all towns and villages in the civilized world has caused many imitators to adopt similar names, expecting to reap a harvest for themselves at the expense of the afflicted. This medicine was introduced in 1868, and for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, with their effects, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Stomach, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Palpitation of the heart, vertigo, etc., etc., it never has failed to our knowledge. Three doses will relieve any case of Dyspepsia. Two doses will relieve any case of Liver Complaint. Price 75 cents. Samples 10 cents. GREEN'S ATLAS AND DIARY ALMANAC, the most expensive free Almanac ever published, sent free on receipt of two cent stamp. G. G. GREY, Woodbury, N. J., U. S. A.

Accident. Last Monday a young man named Thomas ... was riding a horse which had been bucking ...

BRUTES.—Two well-known grass widowers whose wives and babies are about to return from a visit, were overheard to sympathize with each other thusly: "Our happy days are over. No more can we jump over the chairs and receive our friends sans ceremony."

TRAMPS.—The Walla Walla Statesman is indulging in a vigorous war against tramps and dead beats. The latter are "kicking" about it, some inside the calaboose, and others in their respective spheres. Society should frown on such characters.

DEMOCRATS.—Turn out and organize a Hancock club next Monday. This matter should be attended to by men of all parties who desire to see "Clear Record" Hancock elected.

Lots and Farms for Sale. I have a house and lot situated in the central part of Weston, for sale. Also two large farms. Terms easy. A. MEACHEN, Att'y-at-Law.

Born. To the wife of Rev. R. C. Oglesby, of Heppner, July 27th, a son. Weight, 9 1/2 lbs. Father, mother and child doing well. Good for the west end.

SAY.—Did you read the plan in the E. O. that was adopted that Pendleton would be enabled to evade the result of its own effort in calling a Division Convention? They mistake the people of this county for servile school children.

CHANGE.—Service at All Saints Church tomorrow at 11 A. M. instead of 7.30 P. M. as heretofore, by Rev. J. D. McConkey. The Holy Communion will be administered.

APOLOGY.—We must apologize to our Democratic friends for having omitted the call for the organization of a Hancock club in weston Precinct. It appears in this issue, however.

GIRL.—It seems that the son and heir of the house of Chamberlain is, after all, a girl. Girls are always much nicer than boys, anyway. J. S. VanCleave has about eighteen fine horses of all ages sick with the distemper.

NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that my wife, Sarah E. Parmenter, having left my bed and board without just cause or provocation, all parties are hereby cautioned that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her from this date. WANTON E. PERMENTER, WESTON, July 13, 1880. 4w

WORKING!—A man rushed into town Thursday saying Hugh McArthur was at work in the hay-field. A crowd soon congregated, and a committee of three most reliable citizens dispatched to the spot. They returned saying it was actually so, on the strength of which we give it.

STRANGE.—Of the many persons who refused to assist our Marshal in making a lawful arrest, not one of them has been punished. When the Marshal himself shows so little respect for the dignity of the office, it is not surprising that others treat it with the utmost contempt.

MONEY.—Parties would do well to patronize Hofflinger in getting freight from Blue Mountain Station, as he gets it immediately, and thus saves storage.

FARE CHANGE.—Two heavy draught mares and also two colts for sale. Apply at this office.

HOME.—The patrons of S. A. John will find him next Monday at his new shop on Main street.

JACOB Probstel has gone below on business. He is one of our best citizens and a fine business man.

HEAT.—The thermometer indicated 98 deg. in the shade last Saturday, being the hottest day of the season.

UNIVERSALISM.—The Rev. Paul Smith will preach at Dealy's Hall to-night at 7, and to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

THE editors of the E. O. have turned Catholics. It will be an edifying spectacle to see Turner telling his head.

SALTS.—Salts as well as hay has gone up since those horses changed owners. There is no telling how things may turn out.

WANTED.—Weston wants a good baker; German preferred; but he must be one who understands his business. A splendid opening.

FARMERS.—Go to D. C. Lounsbury for all kinds of turning, such as pulleys for headers and all other machinery. Steam engine power.

VISITED.—D. P. Dwight, of the firm of Dwight & Bailey, End agents at Pendleton, visited his old friends at Weston, and everybody was glad to see him.

FOR JUSTICE.—W. R. Jones, one of our best justices, is getting ready for legal business. He will have a comfortable office in his new house. Bring on your claims.

SEVENTH ANTI-SLAVERY.—The female help who promenade at unreasonable hours and keeps the family from retiring until 11 P. M., should keep earlier hours.

IMPORTANT.—When you visit Walla Walla be sure and call at the San Francisco Restaurant on the north side of Main street. Messrs. Brush & Cranston, the proprietors, spread the best table in the city. Don't fail to give them a trial. Everything about the place is neat, clean and attractive.

M REBE WORKS.—D. J. Coleman, Walla Walla, is proprietor of the Marble Works, and is prepared to furnish Head Stones, Monuments and all things else in his line, at reasonable prices. W. F. Mansfield is agent for Centerville, and is authorized to take orders and give receipts.
