One evening recently Andy Long, says the Salem Statesman, an ex-convict who was sent to the penitentiary several years ago for stealing cattle, but who was pardoned recently by Governor Thayer, attempted to have a little sport of his own, and he realized his highest expectations. In Clackamas county there lives a family with whom he was acquainted. Knowing the man of the house to be absent at work on the railroad, Long concluded he would give the ladies a scare by playing ghost. Accordingly just before dark he crept around the house, and getting into the yard, concealed himself in a sheet which was hanging on the clothes line. There he stood until one of the women came out and discovered him. Instead of giving the usual women squeal and fainting, as he expected, the lady paid no attention to him, but returning into the house, quietly got her little pistol, and returning to the door, commenced a lively artillery on the would-be ghost. At the second shot the ghost dropped and a man bounded over the fence and sped away across the field. The next morning Long was at a neighbor's with a bullet in his leg, stating that he had shot himself accidentally the day before.

Our next President will be somewhat heavy. He will be a big man. Garfield is six feet high, and weighs two hundred and forty pounds. Hancock measures six feet two inches, and tips the beam at two hundred and eighty pounds.

The steamers of the O. R. & N. Co. are now arriving at and leaving Wallula daily. Two boats a week go to Lewiston. The travel is quite large.

NATIONAL PLATFORM.

ADOPTED BY THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION. The Democratic party of the United States in convention assembled, declare:

First—We pledge ourselves anew to the constitutional doctrine and traditions of the Democratic party as illustrated by the teaching and examples of a long line of Democratic statesmen and patriots, and embodied in the last national convention of the party.

Second—Opposition to centralization and that dangerous spirit of encroachment which tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever be the form of government, a real despotism; no summary laws; separation of church and State for the good of each; common schools to be fostered and protected.

Third—Home rule, honest money, the strict maintenance of public faith, consisting of gold, silver and paper convertible to coin on demand; the strict maintenance of the public faith, State and national, and a tariff for revenue only.

Fourth—the subordination of the military to the civil power, and a general and thorough reform of the civil service.

Fifth—Right to a free ballot as the right preservative of all rights, and must and shall be maintained in every part of the United States.

Sixth—The existing administration is representative of conspiracy only, and its claims of right to surround the ballot boxes with troops and deputy marshals, to intimidate and obstruct the elections, and by unprecedented use of the vote to maintain its corrupt and despotic power, insults the people, and imperils their institutions.

Seventh—The great fraud of 1876, by which, upon a false count of the electoral vote of two States, the candidate defeated at the polls, was declared to be President, and for the first time in American history, the will of the people was set aside under the threat of military violence, struck a deadly blow at our system of representative government. The Democratic party, to preserve the country from the horrors of a civil war, submitted for the time, in the firm and patriotic faith that the people would punish this crime in 1880. This issue precedes and dwarfs every other. It imposes more sacred duty upon the people of the Union than was ever addressed to the conscience of a nation of freemen.

Eighth—We execrate the course of this administration in making places for political criminals, and demand a reform by statute which shall make it forever impossible for a defeated candidate to bribe his way to the seat of a usurper by villainies upon the people.

Ninth—The resolution of Samuel J. Tilden not again to be a candidate for election, the exalted place to which he was elected by a majority of his countrymen, and from which he was excluded by the leaders of the Republican party, is received by the Democrats of the United States with sensibility, and they declare their confidence in his wisdom and patriotism and integrity, unshaken by the assault of the common enemy, and they further declare to him that he is followed into the retirement he has chosen for himself by the sympathy and respect of his fellow-citizens, who regard him as one who, by elevating the standard of public morality and adorning and purifying the public service, merits the lasting gratitude of his country and his party.

Tenth—Free ships and a living chance for American commerce on the sea and on the land, no discrimination in favor of transportation lines, corporations or monopolies.

Eleventh—Amendment of the Burlingame Treaty; no more Chinese immigration except for travel, education and foreign commerce, and therein carefully guarded.

Twelfth—Public money and public credit for public purposes solely, and public lands for actual settlers.

Thirteenth—The Democratic party is the friend of labor and the laboring man, and pledges itself to protect him alike against the corner-men and the combine.

Fourteenth—We congratulate the country upon the honesty and drift of the Democratic Congress which has reduced the public expenditures to $40,000,000 a year; upon the continuation of prosperity at home and the national honor abroad, and above all, upon the promise of such a change in the administration of this government as shall insure its genuine lasting reform in every department of the public service.
