LOCAL LEADERS.
16th.
Autumn.
Nights cool.
As you like it.
Politics boiling over.
Bread, cheese and cigars at Pauley's.
Dessner & Co. will spread themselves in the brick.

"Suggs" has "just cause" for showing his teeth next week.
Shumway bought the Benjamin place for $750. Worth $1,200.
Col. Curry faded away before the inevitable statistics of Col. Fulton.
For Lead, Oils and Colors, call at the City Drug Store, Weston.

Welford oil is the chief in putrid sore throat or diphtheria. For sale by McColl and Miller.
Geo. F. Thompson is one of the most popular men in Walla Walla. He is the "white-headed" boy for prosecuting Attorney.

If the person who stole Griff's young dog has a conscience, it is about time he returned the animal.
Rev. E. W. Morrison is well again, and everybody glad of it. He thinks of leaving Weston, but we hope he will not.

One of our bridges broke down the other day, and in five minutes Marshall Wood was hard at work repairing it. Good officer.
THANKS.—We thank Col. Larrabee for the gift of Hancock badges.

BELL.—The bell for All Saints' Church has been shipped. Weight, 298 lbs.
LITIGATION.—Lockard vs. T. O. Davis, assault and battery. Verdict for defendant. It was a jury trial.

FRECKLES.—They mar the beauty of many an otherwise pretty face. Try Redington's Florida Water. See ad.
VISIT.—Mrs. Harvey Caton, of Walla Walla, has come to spend a few weeks in the city with relatives and friends.

CITY HALL.—The work on our City Hall is progressing rapidly. The structure will cost in the vicinity of $4,000 before completed.
BRICK.—The prospects are that Mr. Dealey will immediately push to completion his projected brick store, corner of Main and Water streets.

DEPARTURE.—Rev. E. P. Warren and wife have taken their departure for Dayton, whither they carry the good wishes of this entire community.
APOTHECARY.—We understand that Weston is about to have another drug store. Good. There is room here for one more of each kind of business.

GAME.—One day this week a pheasant came whizzing up street and struck its head against the corner of Mr. Steele's store. It fell stunned on the sidewalk, and was picked up.
HARDWARE.—Mr. Kason Smith, of Centerville, has now on hand a full line of parlor stoves. He is also agent for the "Superior" stove, the back of which is warranted for 16 years.

N. T. CATON.—This "ledge-hammer orator" of Walla Walla, will address the citizens of Centerville this evening, and Weston next Monday evening. It was our mistake giving an incorrect announcement in last issue. Republican speakers are invited to divide the time with him.

Col. James Fulton.
This gentleman, democratic elector, visited Milton, Weston, Centerville and Greasewood, where he addressed the citizens. He is full of facts and events—so much so that Col. Curry, republican elector, preferred the scenery of the Willamette Valley to his company while speaking. Col. Fulton is doing good work, and has a whole host of acquaintances in the upper country.

Col. Larrabee.
This talented speaker gave Weston a two hours and a half flood of facts, figures, fun, history and oratory, that was highly appreciated. He took the government from its inception, laid bare its contending principles, contrasted the doctrines of Jefferson with those of Hamilton, the Democratic with the Republican party, investigated Grant's administration, his effort for third term, his dangerous orders to the Boys in Blue, and exposed Judge Williams of our own State. The effort was masterly. He was greeted with enthusiastic applause throughout.

THAT SIDEWALK.—H. B. Griffin has built a sidewalk from Water to Washington street, as an act of enterprise. He asks the City Council to complete the job by putting in a cross-walk at the intersection of Washington and Main streets, and the request is not granted. The Council has been building all crossings, and it would only be a tribute to Mr. G.'s energy to do this. The new walk is a great convenience to the attendants of All Saints' Church.

Drunken Indians.
From Mr. Turner and others residing between here and Milton we are repeatedly informed that drunken Indians still continue to harass and annoy those living near the road. In more than one instance they have been insolent and threatening. One old lady living on Dry Creek was so badly frightened by them that she has not yet recovered from the effects. Drunken Indians well armed with knives and guns, with which they menace people are not pleasant visitors. If this is not stopped, it will result seriously. Some insulting Indian will "bite the dust" for his temerity, and then a howl of indignation will go up all over the land on behalf of the poor "red man." Let the proper authorities see to this in time, and thus prevent the spread of sensational stories derogatory to our people.

An Astonishing Fact.
A large portion of the American people are to-day suffering from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a nifty bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the Western Continent.

FROM MILTON.
MILTON, Oct. 12th, 1880.
Editors Leader:
GENTLEMEN:—When a timid person like your correspondent devotes so far from one's custom as to attempt a newspaper correspondence, and finds the effort pounced upon by such an unsmooth name as "Suggs," the desire to know who said "Suggs," is natural. Even if his letter had not been dated from Washington Avenue I would have made a pretty good guess at the author. Be my surmise right or wrong I desire to apologize to "Suggs." He says my article "bamboozled his mind." I am very sorry. It is evident that he is in earnest; for his whole reply is indicative of mental bamboozlement of the worst type. It is really too bad about "Suggs," and I am ever so sorry I wrote that naughty article. "Suggs" talks incoherently about Webster, Greeks, Moses, hounds, Parson Brown, Sister Smith, tom cats and Morpheus; but never says a word about the sham admiration of music. He tells us of his own honest admiration of caterwauling, even when laboring under the erroneous impression that a feline concert is expressive of pain, sorrow or revenge, but says nothing of the moral obliquity of pretending to appreciate what we neither understand nor enjoy. But he is slightly ironical, and calls me a "musical paragon," and asks me to "strike the dividing line between the good and bad music." Judging from his last sentence "Suggs" strikes it some where between here and Weston. But as I merely wrote this to apologize to "Suggs," and to express my sympathy for Mrs. "Suggs," during her husbands mental bamboozlement, and to hope that "Suggs" neighbors did not suffer from "Suggs" concerts of high toned cats, I will not further notice the production of his bamboozled mind, for who can minister to a mind bamboozled? Yours truly,
STACCATO.

Eastera Tourists.
Probably more Eastern tourists have visited this Northwest Coast during the present season than ever before, and they all bear testimony to our unsurpassed natural advantages and great resources and are enthusiastic in regard to our future when railroads shall have superseded the tedious ocean steamers and population comes pouring in. The proprietors of the Oregon Kidney Tea are equally sanguine of its future, for it has thus far cured every case of backache or disease of the kidneys and urinary organs that it has been tried on. Sold everywhere.

The Ester Organ.
This fine instrument is now offered for sale on easy terms, delivered to customers in any part of the country, and fully warranted for five years. The WEBER and other first-class Pianos at the lowest prices.
Also sheet music and music books. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention. Instruments tuned and repaired. Price list sent on application. Address all orders to A. B. Stanley, Walla Walla, W. T.

COLUMBIA CONFERENCE.
The annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, met in Weston, on Wednesday Oct. 4th 1880. In the absence of Bishop D. S. Doggett, who is hopelessly ill at his home in Richmond, Va., Rev. J. B. Bell was elected President, and J. W. Compton, re-elected Secretary. After a pleasant and harmonious session, the Conference adjourned to Saturday evening October 9.

The following resolutions were offered, and passed by a rising vote:
Resolved, That we, the Columbia Conference of the M. E. Church, South, in session at Weston, Oregon, recognize and gratefully acknowledge the courtesies extended by the O. R. & N. and the O. & C. R. R. Co.'s for half fare rates over their lines of travel, to the members attending the Conference.
Resolved, That we hereby tender our acknowledgments as a Conference to our brethren of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches of Weston, for the use of their houses of worship.

Resolved, That we are in deep sympathy with our beloved Bishop Doggett in his sickness, and that our hearts go out in prayer to God that sustaining grace may be administered to him.
Resolved, That we welcome among us our beloved General Missionary Secretary, Dr. Wilson. His presence has yielded us substantial comfort and encouragement, and his assistance in the Conference sessions, the stationing room and pulpits have contributed to the interest and good of the Conference.
Resolved, That the Weston, Walla Walla and Pomeroy papers be respectfully requested to publish the above resolutions.
