SPECIAL NOTICE.

LOCAL LEADERS.

For Lead, Oils and Colors, call at the City Drug Store, Weston.

SUN PRINTS .- For a good photograph go to Palmer's gallery at Milton. ST. JOHN HOTEL .- See the advertise of the new hotel in another column. CALLED. -Col. Parker of the W. W. States mun, dropped in on us last Monday. LADIES. -Bread at Pauly's four loaves for two bits. Much better than baking it. FARMER .- Mac, still clings to the idea that he is a practical, hard working farmer. ANOTHER. - At Cold Spring, Oct. 15th, to the wife of W. P. Cavenoss-a daughter.

Webfoot oil is the chief in putrid sore throat or diphtheria. For sale by McColl and Mil-

ILL.-We re, at to announce that the wife of our esteemed ... wusman, S. V. Knox, is quite ill. DIPTHERIA. - We learn that this dreaded disease is again prevalent in the vicinity of Summerville. WELCOME .- Steen, the invincible, has re turned from his trip to Salem, looking ha e and hearty as ever. STRANGE. - Money seems to be still in demand among all classes. Pay up is the watchword and reply.

SCHOOL .- Mrs. Frazier is giving excellent satisfaction at Milton, as teacher. But that has always been her record.

BRICK .- Mr. H. B. Nelson has turned out immense quantities of brick this season, equal in quality to any in the country.

REST. - Oh! for a lodge in some vast wilderness in which the garrulous drummer is un. known, is the refrain of our merchants.

LECTURE. - Next Monday evening Prof. Taylor, of Multon, will deliver an address at that place on Odd Fellowship.

RETURNED .- The genial counterance of I. T. Reese again greets us on the streets. Life at Salem seems to have agreed with him.

Good.-Mr. J. S. Morgan is building a cosy residence in McMorris addition. As seen as completed he will move into town to live.

Coin .- It is now after harvest! Mu-t have money. Call and settle. Your bill is J. E. JONES. ready for you.

Gorno.-Dealey's two-story brick on the corner of Main & Water streets, is going up rapidly. Who says Weston is a flourishing STYLISH .- McColl & Miller have just received a beautiful assortment of gold rings, cam-os, amethysts etc., also silver watches of the best make.

most extensive and varied stock of general merchandise in Umatilla county. No trouble to show goods. Call and see them.

TRAMS .- We were up at Proebstel Bro.'s grist-mill one day this week, and there were only 27 teams loading and unloading, or waiting for their turn; and it was not a good day for teums either.

YIELD. - Cn the farm of F. W. Johns, on Reed Mountain, is a field of about 50 acres. This was sown in wheat on the 1st of May. The yield is 34 bushels to the acre and 62 lbs to the bushel. This is a pretty prolific yield, considering the season.

CIRCUIT COURT .- When you go to court next week do not forget the old host, E. Baker of the Pendleton Hotel, who has made firstclass arrangements to accommodate his patrons Everything in this house is conducted in the best style, and the table is always RUNAWAY .- Last Wedne-day evening a span of horses that tired of standing before a saloon ran away. There were a lody and two or three children in the back at the time the team started. The lady lowered the children in the dust without any serious injury, but in attempting to jump out herself, austhined a severe sprain of the ankle.

REVEILLE, -We are in receipt of the first number of the Baker County Receille, pub. lished at Baker City, by Messrs. M. H. Abbott & Sons. It is well filled with good readable matter. The Reveille is to be "a firm and judicious advocate of sound morals, relig ion, the arts and sciences, agriculture and education." It is independent in politics. We wish it success.

Gen. Grant in 1831.

There is no doubt that those who so strongly advocated the nomination of Gen. Grant in 1880 have only postponed their hopes for four years and will then make a more determined effort to accomplish what they so narrowly missed at Chicago this year. The third term snake is only "scotched," not killed; but when a case of backache or kidney complaint gives way before the Oregon Kidney Tea, the surrender is final and complete, and it will never rise again. Sold by all dealers.

FROM MILTON.

MILTON, Oct. 18th, 1880. Editors Leader :

We give you a few items from Milton, that ou may know we still exist. Dr. Weston has almost completed his drug

We have a fine school in progress. Profesor Taylor and Mrs. Frazier know how to carry on a good school. J. Dustan is doing quite a livery business

The farmers are using every exertion possible to get in large crops.

Dr. Blalock & Son are putting in twenty-six aundred acres of grain in one body. J. B. Williamson is doing a thriving mercantile business.

There have been several weddings of late, and it seems to be contagious, for several more are in contemplation for the near future.

Well, what is the matter with Cox? Who threw that club into the bush and Cox jumped out instead of the rabbit ? Poor Cox ! we feel sorry for him. We think Mr. Cox rather broad in his hints about the man who went up to Blalock's precinct the day preceding the election. Everybody knows that Mr. Hungate did go there the day preceding the election, for the purpose of taking the election laws to that precinct that they might hold a legal election; but no person ever thought of Mr. Hungate's meddling with the poll books, and we think that Mr. Cox is entirely out of place to make any such intimation about him, for there is not a man in Umatilia county that is personally acquainted with Mr. Hurgate that would believe it. All we can see in Mr. Cox's letter is, that 'you are another."

The St. John Hotel.

This commodious hotel is now ready for the reception of guests. It has been fitted up with an eye to comfort, regardless of cost. The bedrooms are neat, well furnished and nicely carpeted. The dining room is spacious and conveniently arranged. No expense will he spared to furnish the table at all times with the best the market affords. The hotel will be under the management of Mrs. Raley, who e reputation as a landlady is a sufficient guarantee that travelers and others will recrive the best attention. The St. John is a credit to the city and we hope to see it liberally patronized.

The Way we do it in Pendleton.

PENDLETON, OGN. Oct. 20, 1880. Eds. Leader :- Doubtless. there are times in the career of every indivinual, when they stop short the great earnest work of life, to ask "What has the harvest been?" And we appre hend that few persons have better reasons for asking the question, or more cause for exp-cting a satisfactory saswer than our friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nye had on last evening.

On yesterday it became noised around among the large circle of Mr. and Mrs. Nyes friends, that their fifteenth marriage anniversery had arrived. So it was secretly-yes, we may say clandestinely-decided that the jolly couple were entitle to, and should receive a surprise that would force them to say, truly we have not lived in vain. In persuance of this idea, at an early hour in the evening, about fifty persons, members of the first families of our town, met at the house of Wm. Bengle, bringing with them rare presents, for the object of their consideration, and baskets well filled with all that is calculated to make a boy's mouth water. From here the march was taken up for Mrs. Nye's residence. On arriving they found their usual hearty wel come awaiting them. But imagine, if you can, the amazement of the Host and Hostess, when their visitors began to make them rich presents. We imagine they thought, verily, a crystal fountain had been opened up. The following is a list of the presents and by whom made: Mrs. W. H. Marshall, cake plate; Mrs. J. B. Keeney, set fine goblets; Mrs. B. Alexander, ruit dish; Mrs. N. Hendryx, fish globe; Mrs. E. Beagle, cake plate; Mrs. A. H. Starkwenther, preserve dish; Mrs. S. Rothchild, fine lamp; Mrs. Wm. Switzlar, fine lamp; Mrs. Chas Seeley, fruit dish; Mrs. Was, Leagle, gas pitcher; Mrs. 1. Hexter, frait dish; Ars. John Switzler, butter dish: Mrs. Dr. La Dow, butter dish; Mrs. Wm. Matlock, preserve dish; Ars. H. Slover, wine glasses; Mrs. Mattie La Dow, wine glasse-; and Mrs. M. Coffee, tine glasses: all of the above were extra quanty. After the presents were all made, and m ny hearty thanks given in exchange, the guests were ushered into the arlor, where Mrs. Starkweather, Mrs Beagle, Mrs Seeley and others, oispensed some very hne vocal and instrumental music. Then it was announced that refreshments awaited our attention. On repairing to the dining room, the table presented a richness and -plendor which it has sentom been our privilege to behold. In fact we would say, that it literally groaned under its load of good things, if it were not, that big newspaper Editors always say that on every securion that they are asked to dine. When all had partaken freely of the sumptous foat, a general good time was enjoyed until a late hour when the guests took their leave, with many wishes that the host and hostess might live to celebrate their diamond wedding. We seldom have met with so large an assembly, who seemed to evince so much real hearty good will and real friendship for The Wair is surely a bright lau-

KALKS KLAMES KORTEOUSNESS!

That Ematilla "Speech" Did It.

Who is Kocks? Whence came ha and whither doth he listeth? And why must we narvel all the day long at this outstretched snap-and-catchim carpet-stretcher, when we wot not why this is thus? 'Way over the hills and far in the heuce comes the sepulchural and everlasting tone, Kox! What is it, and who got it up? Is it a splinter from Cleopatra's needle, or an embryo churn-dasher, or is the E. O. just tampering guilllessly, so to speak, with our feeliuks? And if the "spinal-ceremen-brogentitus" should take this Calks, would there ever be any more little Cawkses? And if perchance (we like the way that perchance comes in) and if perchance there are some little ones, is it safest to can, or just pickle them, and how and when and where, as it were, would one best take hold of it? Did Darwin-I wish we had a pocket Darwin-Did Darwin ever see a Cawk-es evolved, or do they just come out of the Umatills river to bask on the banks, and eat buds and get caught in their boat just as they go to There must be something of it; for there vas a Washington, and there was the black 'African Mag:cian," and there was also an Alladin. So was there a hatchet and a lump! These were all "sons of the sires of '76-more or less. Therefore, every chubby one of them did it with his little hatchet. At this advanced age of Geological research, who then, and by what authority-I repeat the searching question-who can lay his horny palm on his bosom, and with well fei_ned virtue, veracity, faith, hope, charity and too numerous to mention; say there is no Calques? But cruel disgression! To our subject; there is of the Oak species-let me repeat it-there is the pinoak, (!) the black oak, (!) the white-oak, (!) the yellow oak, (!) the button-wood oak, (!) the pine oak, (!) and etcetera, &c., and might we not go on, and on and ON that way with just the simple oaks? then what, O, what we say, would be the grand glorious, healthy magnitude of the oak number did we ruthlessly venture to compound them, so to speak But the oak, gentle reader is not to be taken into immediate connection with the subject, for it isn't pertinent; its allegorical, understand. It is intended simply to illustrate the Cox! For instance, (now take up the measure and scan poetically) there is the chickencocks, (!) the ship-calks, (!) the-this doesn't just rhyme right-the cox-comb, (16)th, the weather-cocks, the Umatilla-Cox (1) and the stop-cocks! Now you catch the idea? Now to proceed with that, which is abso lutely pertinent to our subject, we shall quote, and also omit the paraphrase from part of columns 2nd and 3d, page 2nd, E. O. Oct. 16, 1880, but not in prose. Cox appears best in poetry, and while our muse hankers about, or oiters, as it were, we'll humor it. Here goes: The cause of their cumity towards my,

But before going on with it dear, forbearing reader,-and right here indulge us a little for explanation, as this Cox business is quite a lengthy affair, we were going to add, that as prose writing is not our forte, we'd rather continue in a poetical strain-but we needn't, really have thrown in that remark, for recognized genius needs no apology, owing to the fact that more pathos, requires us to do the 'clean thing" with Cox. For this is the Cox that made the speech, that Pendleton built, that sits on the river, that flows to the town, that built the school house, that Cox spake his spoke in.

Now to proceed with 3ft. verse, Trochee-Trochce is something that should be pulled by hand, not shook off-to-wit :

See! You notice the gliding? Pay no atention to the rhyme. O, one could make it rhyme, but that's not the essence of poetry. Our object in the main is to translate the author "Coques" in his sublimity-his greatness, aye! his auct. Now let us scrutinize :

"I renounce all communication by written or spoken word with them," says Cox: To renounce has its bearing. When a well cuitivated, and properly reared renunciation gets up a boom, it shows ear-marks of division, hence, let us hang our hopes on that word renovuce, they'll stick. Communication: Wel it has a tinge of vacancy about something akin to vacuity, or non-entity. We cannot so hastily drop it. Should we, however, we trust as a whole, the u-ual conveyance of ideas might, as would the State of Oregon in case Kox stepped off it, not tip up, at that end. STEADY-BY-JERKS.

P. S. This is not the "Coz" that went through Philadelphia with a roll of bread under his arm, and afterward killed ten thousand Philistines with the jaw-bone of another man's S. B. J. horse, is it?

MARBLE WORKS .- D. J. Coleman, Walla Walla, is proprietor of the Marble Works, and prepared to furnish Head Stones, Monuments and everything else in his line, at reasonable rates, B. F. Mansfield is agent for Center ville and Weston, and is authorized to take orders and give receipts.
