

OUR AGENTS. The following are the authorized agents of the Leader in their respective localities: Pendleton: G. W. Walker, H. H. Haddock, H. H. Haddock, A. B. Erwin, Centerville: J. H. Stewart, Walls: J. T. Thompson, Hills: J. L. Carter, Walla Walla: A. Meschen.

LOCAL LEADERS. F. C. Campbell, dentist, Weston, for a few days. Mr. I. J. Cone is preparing to build a residence in Hartman's Addition.

Next Monday Miss Josie Miller goes to Vansycle to take charge of the school at that place. Mr. Neil McEachern is the best horse shaver in the county and he works for Jas. T. Lissalen, Adams.

—Dentistry. Dr. F. C. Campbell has an office with Dr. Epperson, and will remain in Weston about one week. —One of our correspondents writing from Washington under date of February 21st, gives us an elaborate description of the dedication ceremonies that took place the next day.

—The public school will resume operations next Monday. The Normal school resumed last Monday with a good attendance. The scarlet fever scare did not amount to much. —Squire Powers struck out boldly for Morrow county last Sunday. He is going to be a granger and with the grangers stand, for a season at least. He may return to law and Weston.

—George Starratt, seedman, Walla Walla, has for sale New Zealand oats, weighing 115 pounds per sack, two weeks earlier than common ones. Price, $3 per 100 pounds. Also, Evergreen Millet, 40 cents per pound. —The new two-story brick hotel on the corner of Main and Franklin streets is approaching completion. It contains about twenty-five rooms and is quite conveniently arranged. No one has yet been secured to take charge of the hotel. As it will doubtless prove a paying business, here is a splendid opening for some good hotel man.

—Young Chief is dead. He was a Walla Walla chief, high in rank among the Indians occupying the Unalakleet reservation. Young Chief was a very old man at the time of his death—no man knows how old. Young Chief was not a firm friend, of a suspicious nature, of the character of the man with whom he had dealings, his opinion of his pale face brothers was anything but exalted. Though in later years he wore white man's clothes, he regarded the average "Boston man" as a thief and a foe to his people. There are some sentimental people back east who have no higher conception of the people of the Far West. Nearly a century ago Young Chief was a warrior and man of considerable prowess, and he led a life of savage and cheerful activity. Of late years he has been of a melancholy turn, constantly repining over his leanness and consuming much cod liver oil and other "cleansing" in the vain endeavor to become fatter and more robust. But he is gone to the Happy Hunting Ground, and those redskins who inherit his property and some white folks seem mighty glad of it. In a few years he will probably be entirely forgotten. In a great many years he is sure to be. What should the spirit of mortals be proud of?

—The base ball rules of 1885 are not so well known perhaps as they ought to be to those oldish amateurs who are now making themselves conspicuous around the magic diamond. For instance, Mr. H. McArthur seems to have an idea that the proper way to corral a "fly" is to catch it in the neck or on the point of his chin. This misunderstanding of the rules may partially account for his indifferent success. Then, Mayor White, seems to think that the way to get home from the third base is to imitate the wicked serpent. Though his figure is not modelled for that method of locomotion, he sometimes makes it. Prof. Owen labors under the delusion that the more awkwardly he can grasp the bat the farther the ball will go; but as he has not yet succeeded in hitting the ball he has not been able to demonstrate his theory to the satisfaction of the club. To have real good playing there is too great a diversity of opinion as to the best method of stopping a ball. Mr. J. O. Moorehouse believes in and practices the plan of getting out of its way as quickly as possible so that it may reach a fence or some solid obstruction, that will make sure work of it. His motto is "never pick up a ball that is in motion." Dr. Williamson and Sim Barues believe that the proper way to catch the ball is on the points of the fingers. There are two objections to this: it is uniformly unsuccessful and it is hard on the ball; but these two persist in playing that way. Messrs. Geo. A. Hartman and D. D. Earp, two of the best on the field, have peculiar notions about catching a fly. They insist that one man should never try it, that it requires two to make a success of it. These two should run from opposite directions and meet with great force just as the ball is about to drop and thus wedge it in tight between the two men. Even when not successful this has a grand effect. Messrs. H. B. Nelson and W. Steinkner act on the principle that the best players are those who seldom move from their posts, and when they have to get out of the way of a ball, do so with great calmness and deliberation. Two much excitement has spoiled many a fine play. They make no such mistakes. Dr. McColl labors under the impression that because he has big feet that it is his duty to tramp on every opponent within an acre of him and thus disable the whole opposing force. Oh yes, the rules of 1885 should be posted in players' hats.

Hollis & Cleve, Centerville. —Additional local on first page. —The city of Weston has received its new charter, extending the limits. —Mr. H. O. Marshall is improving and beautifying his property on Water street.

—The Weston merchants have been receiving large consignments of new goods this week. —Mr. F. M. Pauly, clerk of school district No. 19, has given bonds to the amount of $3,000. —The lane north of town has been straightened so as to be continuous with Water street. Good. —A Mr. W. H. Morrow of Pendleton was married at that place on February 19th, and died on March 2d.

—Mr. B. F. Shoemaker, the pump man from Pendleton, was in the city yesterday. Look out for his ad next week. —Next Sunday there will be divine services at All Saints' church, morning and evening, Rev. C. E. Johnston, officiating. —David Brown, who has one of the best ranches in the county, on the Wild Horse, will plant about 150 acres in corn this spring.

—Old Squire Depay, after a long absence from the city, returned yesterday afternoon. He was cordially welcomed by his many friends. —Prof. W. M. Pierce of Milton was in the city yesterday. The Milton school, the first term of which closed last Friday will reopen next Monday. —C. P. Davis' labors as teacher in the Centerville public school closed last Friday, and Prof. Edington will manage the school alone during the spring term.

—Mrs. A. W. Stansberry, living between Echo and Prospect, has developed symptoms lately of violent insanity and has been taken to Portland for treatment. —Mrs. Joseph Morgan has been dangerously ill for the last week. We hope soon to hear of her recovery. The family have the sympathies of many friends. —A petition for semi-weekly mail service has been forwarded to Washington. Hitherto the mail has been brought in once a week by private carrier.

—Last Monday Mr. M. R. Young and family arrived here from Michigan, and will become permanent residents of Unatilla county. Mr. Young is a brother of our hardware man, Mr. J. W. Young of Weston. —At the inauguration ball at this place last Wednesday evening the young folks are said to have had a very pleasant time. About six couple from Milton were present. The supper gotten up by Mrs. Patterson was first-class.

—Rev. R. C. Oglesby, P. E., brought his family here last Wednesday. Weston will now be his home and headquarters during his stay in this district. Mr. Oglesby who lived among us once before for several years has a host of friends in this vicinity who will be pleased at his return. —On the south fork of Juniper Paine Brothers, of Walla Walla, have 1000 acres in fall wheat; Mr. Clark, 200; A. L. Gordon, 120; Dave Gordon, 120; E. H. Boyer, 120; J. B. Davis, 140; A. J. Long, 300; Thomas Nicley, 300; W. D. Long, 175; J. Cornelius, 110; Mr. Williamson, 60; Mr. Christensen, 160; Mr. Petrie, 60.

—Mr. David Pinkerton, of Weston, who has been spending the winter with his son-in-law, Judge J. D. Fenton, celebrated his 80th birthday on last Thursday. He is a life-long Democrat, having voted for General Jackson in 1828, and his last vote for Grover Cleveland in 1884. He and his aged wife, now 75 years old, will start home next Monday in company with Hon. K. A. Lockett, who is a relative of theirs.—Oregon Register.

PENDLETON LETTER. Pendleton, March 4. Inauguration day. Pendleton is again without a tailor. Lawrence Young was taken before Thursday night by Deputy Marshal Mersa charged with selling whisky to the Indians. The school election Monday resulted in the selection of P. Zahner as director and Let Livermore as clerk. The question of building a school-house was also voted on and carried by a unanimous vote, so in the near future we expect to have a school house which strangers will not mistake for a woodshed or stable as has been too long the case in Pendleton. Willard Walling who was brought in from Juniper and lodged in jail, charged with attempting to kill one of the Henck boys was released Monday having furnished bonds in the sum of $500. Mill Drown of your city was taken below Sunday night by Deputy Marshal Mersa charged with having blossomed into a wholesale liquor merchant (furnished bonds in the sum of $500).

Judge Lucy accompanied by J. H. Parkes left for Salem Tuesday night, having in charge Robert Southern and Emanuel Boggs, two insane men. —Camp-meeting Johnny is now holding forth to the natives at the M. E. Church. Sheriff Martin returned from Grant County Monday having in charge Ed. Harbin who is accused of stealing a horse from Wm. Rector. On Tuesday he was brought up for trial but waived examination and in default of $300 bonds was committed to the classic shades of the county cooler. Prof. J. D. McCarty's dramatic troupe went out and played at Helix a few days since. W. H. Morrow, who was married about two weeks since, died Monday night of consumption. Mrs. Morrow is also very ill and not expected to live. The hall above the Post-office is being fitted up in elegant style and will hereafter be occupied by the Knights of Pythias as their lodge room.

J. E. Miller, Esq., has received his commission as D. D. G. W. C. T. and will soon start on a trip through the county lecturing and organizing the California Fig Syrup Company. Knowing that any remedy truly beneficial in its effects on the system, and at the same time pleasant to the taste, will meet with a rapid sale, the Company, through its agent for Weston, Mr. W. H. McCoy, gives away sample bottles free of charge. Try it and judge for yourself. Large bottles fifty cents or one dollar.

ADAMS Correspondence. Adams, Mar. 4. To the Editor of the Leader: "Amphib, that man is sure to lose who folds his hands with dirty feet; For where no boots to be called 'Dynamite' has gone off again with a loud detonation, and with an object apud to all who have been bored by this foolish correspondence. I will, in justice to myself and a few friends, reply for the last time. The object of the last explosion was as transparent as the first, being most evidently 'to feed fat the ancient grudge they bear' some of my friends. This is a phase of the business that is very distasteful to me, as I have no desire to cause my friends annoyance through fault of mine. And yet I feel no great uneasiness, for 'When satire flies abroad on falsehood's wing, Short is her life and impotent her sting.' And besides, it is a very unwieldy weapon in the hands of such as they. I can only reiterate my statement of last week. The fellow 'has me on the hip.' He continues to ask me to prove something he knows I will not do, and feels perfectly safe with his taunts. But, after all, what does all this mean? Who is 'Dynamite'? What has he to do with the objectionable paragraph? What is objectionable in it anyway? Who is hurt by it? What have my friends to do in the matter? Why deny a thing that you know nothing about, and are in no wise concerned? If you are interested, please state to what extent. Suppose I should now inform you that the little ludicrous incident occurred over in Union county, about two miles or so from some place. Would it not place you in rather an awkward predicament? Your conduct in this case reminds me very much of a story Ruby Baskett used to tell. He said that there was at one time, back in Missouri, an old saw that had for several months gained a livelihood by forging around a hotel, where she was stoned and maltreated so by cooks and scullions that at the slightest noise she would run and squeal like one possessed. It happened at one time that there was an old drunken tramp skulking around the back part of the hotel on much the same errand as her louship, when becoming terribly frightened at his approach, she made a frantic effort to escape, and ran directly between the fellow's legs and carried him into the middle of the street, when the tramp jumped to his feet and yelled at the top of his voice: 'Any one that says I was eating swill with that saw is an infernal liar!'

I quit you, Dynamite, with this injunction: be careful next time not to kick before you're spurred. There may be a physician over in Union county at this moment congratulating himself that you have taken a disagreeable job off his hands. Thanking you kindly for the compliment you pay my letters, when you mistake them for retouched articles from the gilded pen of my 'friend,' I drop you, as I would any disagreeable thing, exclaiming to myself: 'Hold thy pen; do not honor him so much to prick thy finger, though to wound his heart. What value were it when a cur doth grin For one to thrice his hand between his teeth, When he might spurn him with his foot away.'

There was a party given at Simpson's Hall Friday night by the young people of the town and surrounding country in honor of the wedding of our young townsmen, Frank Holman and Miss Inez Williams of Cold Spring. Frank has drawn a handsome prize from out the matrimonial lottery. At the party she was beautifully dressed in pale pink satin, and there my description must stop, which will prove to you what a poor fashion reporter I would make. I only know she looked very handsome, and that Frank seemed very proud of her. Frank was dressed very much as the rest of the young men were, with the exception that the suit he wore was broader than the average. It was feared by his most intimate friends that Frank was destined to become a confirmed bachelor, but Inez' black eyes soon did the business. I hope they may always be as happy as they deserve to be. M. S. LEE.

WESTON. A Thriving Town on the Beautiful Unatilla Plains. A little over a year ago nearly the entire business portion of the town of Weston was destroyed by fire, the elements clearing out four blocks entirely with the exception of one brick building. Since that time thirty new buildings have been erected, many of them being handsome and substantial brick structures. The country is sufficiently rolling to afford good drainage, and the soil is unexcelled in the world for its richness and productive qualities. What is the chief product, the average crop being from thirty to fifty bushels to the acre. But corn, oats and barley do well, and potatoes grew as big as boulders, and yield four and five hundred bushels to the acre. All the hardy fruits are grown in quantities, such as apples, pears, cherries and plums, and the small fruits, strawberries, raspberries, etc., produce large yields and are exceedingly fine in flavor. The water is particularly healthy, and is to be had in plentiful quantities at but little trouble and expense. The climate is mild and very healthy, severe cold, when it comes, being of short duration. What better country could any one wish for? The wonder is that more people do not take advantage of the immense opportunities offered by it.

Weston has a population now of about six hundred, and is composed of a moral and refined class of people. They take especial pride in their educational advantages, having a well conducted public school with an average attendance of 150 pupils, under the charge of Prof. Owen and two assistants, and a normal school conducted by Joseph M. Taylor. This latter institution is becoming quite popular, and is doing good work. There are two churches, Baptist and Episcopal, and the following branches of business are represented: 3 general stores, 2 drug stores, 1 notion store, 1 butcher shop, 2 blacksmith shops, 2 furniture stores, 1 wagon maker, 2 livery stables, 1 flouring mill, 1 hotel, 1 saloon and 1 skating rink. The prospects are favorable for large crops this year, and it will not be long before people who are now complaining of hard times will be enjoying wealth and happiness.—Portland Oregonian.

A. L. Powell Defends Himself. Weston, March 5. To the Editor of the Leader: Last week Dr. King of this place wrote to the E. O., making certain statements concerning me which were false, and which he knew to be false while writing them. I replied to that paper, but its editor said he "had to draw the line somewhere," and so refused to space to defend myself against charges which he had not published. Any other paper in the United States would allow a person at least one chance to reply to personal charges, but that is his idea of fairness. However, Dr. King proceeded to "tell Dr. Williamson and others why I was led to conclude that a cat-paw of his wrote the squibs about me in the 'Oregonian' paper." The above is his language. Further on he says that I am the "cat-paw." Allow me to say that the statement is false. I saw the item charging him with getting a rupture a dislocation of the hip and his calling a physician and another physician to help him fix it, but the other physician told him what it was to do to prevent any damage, and while I find by investigation that the item was STRICTLY TRUE, I did not write it and had no idea who did. Of course a physician who makes such blunders in his practice can be excused for other blunders not so serious, still I don't think any gentleman will publish names and charges without knowing what he is talking about. Again, to state that I was trying to get any of my patients for another doctor is untrue, and would be a terribly mean thing if true. But the idea of any of the other physicians trying to get any of my patients is just a funny joke for those who know anything about it. It would be very nearly as mean as trying to steal the money from the eyes of a dead man. But what has Dr. Williamson got to do with it, even if I had written it? I have sold thirty relatives and I never ask any of them what I shall eat, or write, or say. It might be a good thing for Dr. King to act differently, especially when he floods a rupture. Dr. Williamson in this is simply a cowardly attempt to stab him in the back over my shoulders. Dr. King sold in the E. O. as before; my sweat all the places over his battery as he exhibits it to an admiring group of awe-stricken county boys; he may stand half a day on the street corners with his hands on his shoulders after a visit to the country, but I trust he will learn to leave me alone when I am not guilty. Now let him pitch into some one else, and he may blunder on to "Copa-Nica" yet. A. L. POWELL.

What the Sexton Said. Mr. Lewis Edwards, Sexton of Mt. Vernon Place Church, Washington, D. C., certifies that for several months past he had been suffering with a very severe cough which distressed him day and night. He was very much debilitated, with constant pains in his chest. After trying various remedies he used the Red Star Cough Cure, which gave him entire relief.

The Popular Approval. Of the now famous Syrup of Figs as the most efficacious and agreeable preparation ever offered to the world as a cure for Habitual Constipation, Bilio-nousness, Indigestion and kindred ills, has been won by the wise plan pursued by the California Fig Syrup Company. Knowing that any remedy truly beneficial in its effects on the system, and at the same time pleasant to the taste, will meet with a rapid sale, the Company, through its agent for Weston, Mr. W. H. McCoy, gives away sample bottles free of charge. Try it and judge for yourself. Large bottles fifty cents or one dollar.

MILTON LETTER. For the Leader. MILTON, Mar. 4, 1885. Quite a large number of visitors were out last Friday afternoon to witness the closing exercises of the school. The tables were brought down from upstairs about noon and placed together to form large tables. These were loaded with good things which had been prepared with special reference to this occasion. Of this, visitors, teachers and scholars partook quite cordially. Of the literary exercises which followed we would say that the essays by the young ladies and gentlemen were most excellent. The protracted meeting closed Sunday.

Between fifty and sixty voters attended the school meeting on the 2d, which resulted in the re-election of Mr. N. Pierce as director, and the election of F. Hall as clerk. Some money was subscribed for the purpose of having the school house repainted and other needed improvements. Mr. Sturgeon, the barber, has again left us for Ellensburg. W. T. Phelps & Arthur are moving their stock of furniture into the building just vacated by the barber, it being more commodious than their former place of business. Many of our citizens have no doubt forgotten that to-day their President was to be inaugurated, as they made no demonstration to that effect. Some of the 'fantastic jokes' were seen to start Westonward just as "the shades of eve were falling." The W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday at three o'clock. One of our saloons has closed on account of hard times. And still there are more to follow. Rev. W. H. Pruet is announced to preach here next Sunday at eleven o'clock. We are ever pleased to welcome him to Milton.

THE YORKVILLE ROAD CART. Perfection at Last. That will ride as easy as a four. Good and strong, with phaeton body good, full large back—and the rider can use and feel no more horse motion than in a four-wheeled vehicle. Has all the conveniences for a doctor's box, for a chest, storm apron, and is as easy to get in and out of as a buggy; nothing to climb over in getting in. See what is said of it: TESTIMONIALS.

"It is the best cart in our city."—H. H. MATLOCK, Ottawa, Ill. JACKSONVILLE, ILL., March 28, 1885. W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir—I am greatly pleased with your two-wheeled vehicle. It does exactly what I want. It is certainly the best and most convenient thing I have ever used for four-wheeled buggies in my business. A. W. TITCOMB, M. D. MARTINS, S. C., May 29, 1885. W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir—The Cart ordered from you came yesterday. It is all and more than you claim for it. It is much better and more convenient than any other vehicle in my practice now. Yours respectfully, O. E. BLANCHLEY, M. D. CLAYTON, MISS., April 20, 1885. W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir—I have used one of your Road Carts since last February. I am well pleased with my Cart. I think it well worth the cost. Would not be without it for any price. O. N. RICE. W. R. CHURCH, Yorkville, Ill.—Dear Sir, I have used one of your Road Carts since last February. I think it superior to any Road Cart I have examined. It is THE thing for the "heavy" traveler. W. R. BISHOP, M. D., Yorkville, Ill. PAW PAW, May 1st, 1885. W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir: You wish to know how I like my Cart. I cannot say much in its praise. It is simply perfect. L. H. BRAFFITT, M. D. MARSHALL, TEXAS, April 30, 1885. W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir—I have used your Cart about ten days, and must say it stands the test admirably. It is admired by everybody. Send me a top for it. Yours truly, B. F. KADS, M. D. DYERBURGH, TENN., April 7, 1885. W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir—The Cart is as good as I like. It is simply perfect. I use it like the better I like it. Yours truly, J. A. FOWLER, M. D. LANSDALE, PENN., April 20, 1885. W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir—The Cart is as good as I like. It is simply perfect. I use it like the better I like it. Yours truly, J. A. FOWLER, M. D. W. R. CHURCH—Through you have not asked for a recommendation of your Cart, I think it my duty to give one. For once and send it can't be beaten.
