LOCAL LEADERS.
—Local on first page.
—Business is improving.
—Note the card of M. P. Deschamps, the painter.

—Read Pardoning and Condoning Crime on first page.
—Alki's letter on the first page came too late for last week's issue.

—Mrs. L. Walker, of Pendleton is visiting her father, Mayor White.
—Prof. J. W. Rowland has opened a school in penmanship at Eugene city.

—Three hundred dollars to loan on first-class security. Apply at this office.
—Commercial travelers speak well of the Delmonico Restaurant, kept by Mrs. Powers.

—Mr. B. W. Myers, Probstel's Bros. efficient miller, has a prospect of leaving for Walla Walla or any other place.

—Mr. J. E. Jones has gone over to North Yakima to spy out the land with a view to locating. He may go as far as Ellensburg before he returns.

—There will be divine service at All Saints' church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Rev. C. E. Johnston officiating. Sunday school at 12 m.

—Mr. O. Miller who left Weston some weeks ago sends the LEADER an interesting letter from California for which he has our thanks. Next week it will be continued.

—Mr. Garnett, the furniture man, has been paid a nice and varied assortment of easy chairs, suitable for office or parlor. Call and see them. Corner of Main and Wall streets.

—Mr. Bonebrake, the painter has purchased the lots on the northwest corner of Bruce and Washington streets and is improving the same with the intention of building on them.

—We learn that Mr. Lobenstein of Vinton is a candidate for county commissioner. Perhaps he considers his services to the county among the rail-roads a few years ago sufficient to entitle him to the position.

—Mr. H. O. Marshall is fixing up his house which is to be occupied next week by a young couple that are to be married to-morrow in Walla Walla; but come to think of it, this wedding is a profound secret as yet.

—The trustees of the M. E. Church for Adams county, Columbia river conference, have filed articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State. Capital stock $2250. The incorporators are S. L. Burrill, J. F. Adams and H. B. A. Hales.

—Last fall Mr. T. J. Price lost a fine horse. Though he made diligent search and enquiry for him all winter he found no trace of him. One day this week he was brought in to him, having been found up near Prescott, W. T. Mr. Price feels as if he was just a horse ahead.

—We respectfully invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. B. F. Shoemaker. His pump is no new thing. One of proved excellence, as will be testified to by Messrs. G. A. Hartman, M. J. McDaniels, Jao. Fletcher and many others who have used the same.

—Mr. H. B. Nelson, the brick-man, is actively preparing for the big demand of the coming season. He is busy making mud mounds, brick mounds and wheelbarrows. Last year Mr. Nelson made and sold more than a half million of bricks. This year, the demand will be much greater. Weston brick is of a superior quality, the clay used being peculiarly adapted for that purpose.

—Some boys are noted for the amount of lip they possess. Frank McAllister and Al. Powell at this writing exhibit more labial development than is usually allotted to ordinary white folks. Indeed, very few Ethiopians can excel them in this particular. Trying to catch with their teeth a swift ball from the bat accounts for their open expression of countenance.

—Messrs. Dusenbury & Co. have purchased the lots on the northeast corner of Main and Franklin streets, upon which J. E. Jones' store formerly stood. They will at once commence the erection of a fine brick store. Mr. N. Diamond, of the firm, this week contracted for 130,000 brick to be used in the building. The counters and part of the shelving are already made. This looks like business, and the LEADER is glad to see it. Tally one more for Weston.

—George Starrett, seedman, Walla Walla, has for sale New Zealand oats, weighing 115 pounds per sack, two weeks earlier than common oats. Price, $3 per 100 pounds. Also, Evergreen Millet, 40 cents per pound.

—George Brown, of Pendleton, charged with selling liquor to an Indian, pleaded guilty in the United States court, and was fined $10, which he paid and departed to sin no more—till next time.

—Coyote hunt to-morrow! Meet at J. R. King's at 5 a. m. (sharp).

ADAMS, Mar. 13.
To the Editor of the LEADER:
Times are not as dull as they might be.

Mrs. Sim Barnes is here visiting relatives and friends.
Real estate is advancing. "Faith is lost in sight and hope ends in fruition." The universal opinion of travelers passing through is that Adams is the coming town of Umatilla county.

It is delightful to hear the songs of the robins and larks along the creek in the early morning, rare harkings of spring. (This I have from hearsay; I am not easily awakened.)

Rev. Mr. Driver of Pendleton has become a resident of Adams. He comes to take charge of the construction of the Methodist church building about to be erected here. Our cup of joy is made almost full by his arrival among us, as we have now one member of most of the professions. However, we lack a lawyer. Anybody of this, it was only this morning that I saw some parties who were searching all over town for a law book in order to get a form for a writ of mandamus, replevin, injunction, assumpsit, or something, and being unable to procure one a lawsuit was averted, as I understand the case has since been amicably settled.

That was a vile and atrocious joke Mac perpetrated on our Major Reese some time since. It is an established fact that at least a quarter of a century Mr. Reese has annually enjoyed the very first spring vegetables, radishes, lettuce, onions, etc. Now I, along with the rest of his friends, think it is unkind of Mac, to say the least, to sport a few meagre onions and lettuce in his cellar and send them to the Major, ostensibly to show the superior mildness of the climate of Weston over that of Adams, but in reality to injure the Major's reputation as an early gardener.

A base ball club has been organized here. The boys have taken the more than ordinary precaution to enlist a physician among the nine. Dr. Williams took his case of instruments and hints for bandages when they go out to practice. Some time I may write a treatise on base ball for you. I think it is more than likely I will; but it will not be in commendation of the game. We have already a harsher unit for business, a doctor disabled, two carpenters in bed, several clerks in the hospital a condition to wait upon customers, and the boys have only practiced two evenings. Hallelujah!

"What is man if his chief good and market of his time be but to sleep and feed? A little more, sure he that made us with such large discourses, Looking before and after, give us not That volatility and quickness To rest in us is ours!"

But I am sure he never meant for us to occupy our time playing base ball, or farming ourselves into a regiment to hunt the poor coyote, which, if we were clever enough to wish to exterminate, we could come more nearly accomplishing with one bottle of strychnine than with two regiments of men, horses and dogs.

M. S. LEE.
Notice to Teachers.
Notice is hereby given that an examination of applicants for certificates to teach in Umatilla county will be held in the School Building at Centerville, in said county, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m. on Thursday, March 26, 1885, and continuing two days. Those who fail to appear on this occasion will find that they have lost by the neglect. There are now too many teachers in the county, and the standard has gone to East per cent. higher. Prepare yourselves accordingly.

JOHN EDGINTON, School Supt.
A Costly Misapprehension.
Mr. James Elgin was last year school clerk of district number sixty. A tax was voted by the district, which should amount as was supposed to $200 or a little more. Mr. Elgin collected the money and turned over $200, retaining $85, which he refused to account for. For this a warrant was issued in Justice Dwyer's court, and a large number of witnesses, being the taxpayers of the district, were subpoenaed. Before the examination took place, however, Elgin concluded that he had been laboring under a mistake in refusing to account for the money, and upon agreeing to pay over the $135 and all the costs, which amount to $119.20, was discharged. This is undoubtedly a case of costly misapprehension. —East Oregonian.

All the Rage.
To captivate the popular taste and surpass all previous efforts to please the palate, requires no small amount of knowledge and no little skill, and when we remember that the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is as beneficial to the system, as it is acceptable to the stomach, we readily understand why it is the universal favorite as a cure for Habitual Constipation and other ills arising from a weakness or inactive condition of the Bowels, Kidneys, Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles free and large bottles for sale by W. H. McColly.

MILTON, Mar. 18, 1885.
Elder Colebrook preached his farewell sermon on Sunday evening last to a crowded house.

Miss Olive White, we are pleased to notice, is in Milton again. L. Banks has also returned.

Mrs. J. Harrison of East Portland returned home yesterday after a short visit to her sister, Mrs. John Frazier.

Died—On the 11th inst, Little George, only son of John and Laura Frazier, aged 1 year and 8 months. He was a bright little boy and will be, oh! so sadly missed in the family circle.

Almost everybody in Milton is so busy this fine weather they have not the time or inclination for anything but work, farming, gardening, house and yard cleaning being among the chief occupations.

Mr. Walters and family have moved down to their ranch in the Sand Hollow country. H. Piper has also gone down to the same place to make some arrangements preparatory to moving his family down.

Also, on the 13th inst, Mrs. Evans, who has been lying very low with consumption for many months. Her funeral took place from the M. E. Church. Father Wilber preached the sermon to a large and attentive audience. Many relatives and friends sympathize very deeply with those who are bereft of a companion and a mother.

MORE ANON.
Now Mill and Farm for Sale.
A rare opportunity to obtain a good home and a paying business in a new and rapidly growing country. I will sell the mill alone, or the farm (of 500 acres), or both together, cheap.

Texas, one-half cash; balance on long time or in lumber. The property is situated on Diamond Prairie, Lower Walla Walla valley. For particulars call on or address H. K. Chamberlain, Walla Walla, P. O. Union County, Oregon, or J. K. Romig, Real Estate Agent, La Grande.

A BORN-THIEF BREAKS JAIL.
During December W. A. Wiley was arrested near Dayton, W. T., for having stolen a team and wagon belonging to J. H. Stanley, of Atwood, and lodged in the county jail awaiting trial.

Last evening about 7:30 o'clock when J. H. Stanley, the turnkey, went into the jail to lock the prisoners in the cells, Wiley had secreted himself in the corridor behind the sink. While Stanley was placing the locks on the cell doors the prisoner sprang on his back and effectively held him from using his pistol. After fighting out of the corridor into the jail, Wiley got hold of a lock, each using a heavy Yale lock with all their force on each other's head. All this time the prisoners in the cells kept crying "Wiley! Kill him, and let us out!" Laury succeeded in keeping him from the lever holding the cell doors in place, and nearly succeeded in getting the door open shot on him. The last blow seems to have stunned Laury, and Wiley pushed his way out and made his escape. Laury made a giddy fight, and deserved credit for succeeding in keeping his assailant from liberating the other prisoners. He called at the E. O. office a short time after the escape and gave an account of the affair. His head presented rather a "used up" appearance, being covered with blood.

Captain Martin immediately took steps to recapture Wiley, offering a reward of $200 for his return. He is described as a man of about 35 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches tall, weight, 150 pounds; dark hair, cut short; mustache and moustache, dark; chin smooth shaven. When escaped, had on no clothes except a pair of red drawers and undershirt; no hat or boots. He has the name of being a tough customer. At this writing, Friday noon, nothing has been heard from him.—East Oregonian.

Powell Again to the Front.
WESTON, March 18.
To the Editor of the LEADER:
Dr. George Washington King, in your last issue, tries, like the great overgrown child that he is, to crowd out of the right place that he is in by affecting dignity and swamping denouncing everything as "lies." That dodge is a little too old, however, and as he dragged us into this discussion, stating that I was the author of the articles written to the  Tribune over the signature of "Copa Nica," I propose to make his position clear to the public, as everybody around here knows that he made a most unparadiseable blunder regarding that "mixture," and he dare not deny it in your columns. Further, I am not "Copa Nica," and don't even know who he is. Now where are the lies? No wonder Dr. George Washington King would like to dodge the issue by claiming that no "gentleman" would dispute with me, after he has been doing it for the last two weeks himself, until it got too hot for him. It is too late for him now. But the next turn he takes is to move I would advise him to keep his mouth shut and his pen quiet, and try to look wise, and he may pass for a gentleman much longer than he did here. I notice he advertises the City Drug Store for sale in the E. O. Now why does he not borrow money from a defamed girl, giving promise of marriage as security, and buy it himself? In writing about the Irving Club having the Normal Monthly for its organ, he displays an evident evidence of his intelligence. Has this would be "gentleman" any sense or has the fact of his having been black-balled in that club anything to do with it? Perhaps the bigger it gets, and soon he will believe that the Irving Club is stirring up war between England and Russia, or fitting up a volunteer force to ride on donkeys to Egypt, in which case he could continue to act as a donkey during the day, and "reduce dislocations" at night.

Now, G. Washington, come on again with more "blunders." A. L. POWELL.

Did you Suppose Mustang Liniment only good for horses? It is for inflammation of all flesh.

Card of Thanks.
I take this method of tendering my sincere thanks to those friends and neighbors whose considerate aid during my recent affliction, was an appreciated kindness.

S. F. WALLACE.
FOR SALE.
Mr. James Royce has on Wm. Leach's farm, about five miles east of Weston a number of young horses mostly four years old, which he will sell at reasonable terms. If you want a bargain in horse flesh call on him at once.

Agreeable to Everybody.
Colonel Robert G. King, for ten years Deputy Collector Internal Revenue, Baltimore, Maryland, writes: I endorse the Red Star Cough Cure. I have used it in my family for a violent cough and found it excellent. It was entirely free from the depressing effects of other cough remedies. It can readily be taken, and agrees with and benefits everybody suffering from throat and lung troubles. The relief is permanent, and there is no reaction.

WHO KNOWS WHEN Steamboats will sink or burn? Railroad trains will be wrecked? Boilers or lamps will explode? Horses will take fright and run? Bricks or timbers will fall? Fire burn or lightning strike? Machinery will crush or mangle? Tools or glass will cut? Splinters or nails will wound? Slips or falls will happen? Hammers and weights will bustle? Ladders or staging will give way? Animals will kick or bite? Limbs will be sprained or broken? Fatal or disabling injury by accident may be caused in any one of a thousand ways. As no one knows, the only safe and sure way is to insure in The Travelers of Hartford. G. P. McCall, agent.

A Great Discovery
That is daily bringing joy to the homes of thousands by saving many of their dearest ones from an early grave. Truly it is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Loss of Voice, Tickling in the Throat, Pain in Side and Chest, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs, a positive cure. "Did you ever see a woman play whist?" asks the Boston Post. "No, but we've seen a good many of them try."

Steinaker & Co. keep two Buckinghams & Hecht's boots and shoes.
The Baltimore says "a clerk is like a gun because he can be discharged." He may also get loaded without the knowledge of the proprietor and go off unexpectedly.

For bargains in glassware and crockery go to Reese & Redman, Adams.
Fakir—Don't you want to pay something? Dude—No, I've got everything I need. Fakir—Don't you want to pay a fine now? Dude—I never shall. Fakir—Put maybe you want to commit suicide some of these days.

Steinaker & Co. have the largest and best assortment of wall paper in Weston. Egotism is generally pretty unanimous—All I's and no knowers.

—Reese & Redman, Adams, are paying the highest market rates for wheat.
"Who is that across the street?" "Oh! that is a very close friend of mine." "Indeed?" "Yes, never lends a cent."

Don't forget that Reese & Redman are located at Adams, and do a "boss" business.
In 1812 the tax rate in Boston was $3.70. Now it is $17, and yet the people do not seem to be altogether happy.

—N. Dusenbury & Co. is selling lumber at $18 per M. for cash or good notes. Also wood at $4 per cord.
A poet says: "Tis more brave to live than to die." That's the reason poets and their effusions to the editor by Steinaker & Co. make a specialty of gent's clothing and furnishing goods. For a nobly suit call on them.

He—Don't you go sleighing with me this evening? She—Have you a gentle horse? He—Yes, indeed; I can drive him with one hand. She—I'll go.

—The LEADER office will do all kinds of job work as well as and as cheap as can be done in Portland.
Secretary Bayard has done more to discourage applicants for office than any other member of the cabinet. Several influential democrats called upon him and presented a petition bearing a long list of distinguished names and urging him to make a certain appointment to a consulate. Secretary Bayard looked at the paper and then said: "This is a very strong petition. I will have it properly filed and promise to give it my consideration if a vacancy occurs."

—Mrs. Jones, Where did you buy that handsome Dolman? "Why, at the Great L. X. L. Store, Walla Walla." Taylor & Evans of Milton have always on hand a fine assortment of books, stationary and notions.

—Ladies, have you been to see the fine bargains going away at the Great L. X. L. Store in our Cloaks Dolmans and Suit Departments.

THE
YORKVILLE ROAD CART!
Perfection at Last.
That will ride as easy as a four. Good and strong, with phaeton body good, full, large back—and the rider can use and feel no more horse motion, than in a four-wheeled vehicle. Has all the conveniences for a doctor's box, for a chest, storm apron, and is as easy to get in and out of as a buggy; nothing to climb over in getting in. See what is said of it:
TESTIMONIALS.

YORKVILLE, ILL., Dec. 12, 1883.
"I have been using one of these Yorkville Road Carts for some time, and am well pleased with it. I have practiced medicine nearly twenty-five years, and have had almost every kind of vehicle on my route, which I have seen, but this is the only one of convenience of description that I have ever used that I can heartily recommend." W. T. SHERWOOD, M. D.
PLANO, ILL., Dec. 5, 1882.
W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir:—The Cart ordered from you, some time ago, and now delivered to me, is as easy as any four-wheeled buggy, and I most heartily recommend it. O. P. BLANCHARD, M. D.
CLAYTON, MICH., April 20, 1883.
W. R. CHURCH, Yorkville, Ill.—Dear Sir: I am well pleased with your Cart; think it well worth the cost. Would not be without it for any price. O. N. RICE.
W. R. CHURCH, Yorkville, Ill.—Dear Sir: I have used one of your Road Carts since last February. I think it superior to any Road Cart I have examined. It is the thing for the "busy practitioner." W. E. KINCAID, M. D., Yorkville, Ill.
PAW PAW, May 1st, 1883.
W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir:—I have now used your Cart about ten days, and must say it stands the test admirably. It is admired by everybody. Send me a top for it. Yours truly, E. F. KAIS, M. D.
MARSHALL, TEXAS, April 20, 1883.
W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir:—The Cart is at hand and I like it splendidly. It is simply perfect. I could not make any alterations. J. A. POWELL, M. D.
LANSDALE, PENN., April 10, 1883.
The Cart arrived today, and I am greatly pleased. Being anything in this section of the country, I wish you would send me the Editor and Publisher of the Medical Summary. W. R. CHURCH—Dear Sir:—The Cart is the lightest to draw in the United States. The more I use it the better I like it. Yours truly, F. FRIEDRICH, M. D.
MARLIN, TEXAS.
W. R. CHURCH—Though you have not asked for a recommendation of your Cart, I think it my duty to give one. For ease and speed it can't be beaten. With a $50.00 price I think I can go with any high-priced horse. S. P. MICE.
