INDIAN TEACHERY AGAIN.

An Innocent Man Foully Robbed and Murdered.

ANOTHER UMATILLA OUTRAGE.

Last Friday, June 12th, Edgar N. Hilton was killed by a Umatilla Indian. The dastardly deed was committed in the mountains east of Woodward's.

The tragic death of Mr. Hilton, who was an honest, industrious and highly esteemed citizen of our county, has sent a thrill of horror and indignation throughout the community.

From the evidence given at the coroner's inquest, held before Squire Jones, we learn the following: A party of four, consisting of Edgar N. Hilton, Frank Hilton, H. C. Wheeler and C. S. Richardson, left their homes on Cold Spring on June 8th on a hunting and prospecting trip to the mountains.

On the night of the 11th they camped at Woodward's, and next morning, taking with them only two pack horses, they struck out in an easterly direction. They were soon overtaken by two Indians on horseback. The Indians informed them that they knew where there was a good gold prospect and agreed to direct them to it, in consideration of twenty dollars and a share in the mine.

To this proposition Mr. Ed Hilton agreed, provided the mine proved to be as represented. The Indians then proceeded to act as guides. After the noon-day meal the Indians wanted to borrow the guns to shoot game. This was refused.

Mr. Frank Hilton agreed to give one of the Indians, who called himself Henry, his gun, provided the Indian would leave his horse with Hilton. This was done and five extra cartridges were given to Henry.

Mr. Ed Hilton was a great sportsman and insisted on accompanying the Indian Henry on the hunt. So they started off, the other Indian continuing to act as guide to the rest of the party, who had not gone more than two or three miles when it was evident that they had lost the trail.

The Indian said he was lost, and they concluded to wait for the return of the hunters. In a short time the Indian Henry, who had gone hunting with Ed Hilton, came running back, telling them that they were on the wrong trail and must go back.

When asked where Ed Hilton was, he said that he was waiting for them on the trail, and that he had both guns with him; that he had seen a deer and shot at it twice. As they started back, Indian Henry said he was tired from running, and would like to have his horse.

Both Indians were now mounted, and the others were on foot. After going a short distance, both Indians dashed into the woods at full speed and soon disappeared. The party halted, called, fired guns, but could get no response.

They then went back to the place at which they camped at noon, left their pack horses and proceeded to trace the trail of Ed Hilton and Indian Henry. Night came before they found a clew to the missing man. Early next morning the search was resumed. They found the trail, followed it until the two tracks separated. A little further on Ed. Hilton was found dead, lying on his face, his back and head showing bullet holes.

His money, about $40, the two guns, his knife, tobacco, cartridge belt and everything of value had been taken from his person. Acting coroner Jones having been notified, called a jury and proceeded to hold an inquest on the murder, but on the way were met by the sad party bearing his remains. The following is the verdict:

We the undersigned jurors having been duly sworn to investigate the cause of the death of Edgar N. Hilton, do find that said Edgar N. Hilton was born at the State of Michigan, was about 50 years old, and that he came to the death on June 12th, 1885, by gun shot wounds, inflicted by an Indian calling himself Henry and claiming to be a resident on the Umatilla Reservation.

What are the desirable qualities in a whisker dye? It must be convenient to use, easy to apply, impossible to rub off, elegant in appearance and cheap in price. Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers unites in itself all these merits.

The management of the new hotel at Centerville has been placed in the experienced hands of Mr. L. McNamee, who will surely prove a most popular landlord. The hotel is new and well furnished. Commercial travelers and others are referred to ad. elsewhere in this issue.

The eighteenth annual meeting of the Baptist Association, comprising the churches of Heppner, Pendleton, Centerville, Weston, Walla Walla, Dayton, Asotin and intermediate points, convened yesterday morning at Walla Walla. Rev. W. H. French and Mr. J. W. Miller of this place are in attendance.

We have before us another evidence of the unsurpassed fertility of the mountain farms east of Weston. The white-shouldered J. K. Saling has a valuable and generous box of the finest strawberries that ever tickled the palate of a fastidious epicure.

Indian Henry, who murdered Hilton, is well known on the Reservation. The horse which he rode, as well as the saddle used by himself and companion, are stolen property. The ear on Henry's breast is the result of a wound received in a fight with Yau-Sum-Kin, who lives just beyond Adams. The Indian who accompanied Henry is from Montana. Sheriff Martin has advice to the effect that the two of them have gone in that direction. If the Indian Agent and the Sheriff had been notified immediately after the murder and furnished a description of the Indians, it is more than probable that they would have been captured before now.

Waltersburg B. B. Tournament.

From Mr. J. M. Shields we learn that the closing game of the tournament was played last Saturday morning between the Dayton and Mill Creek clubs with the following result: Dayton 31; Mill Creek, 23, thus giving the game and second money to Dayton.

In the afternoon a very interesting game was played between two aines picked from the Dayton, Waltersburg and Weston clubs, as follows: Dayton, F. M. McCully, J. F. Taylor, J. T. Burns and Jas. Berry; Waltersburg, Dr. Allen, E. L. Powell, A. L. Matheny, Del. Hart, Dr. Hudgin, Hale, Boothe, Barrett, Rabbits and Crawford; Weston, A. Deam, H. A. Nelson, J. M. Shields and Lee Beam. Mr. Lowell, of Waltersburg was the Umpire; Dr. Allen, captain of one nine and Prof. McCully of the other.

At the end of the ninth inning it was a tie game. The tenth inning decided it in favor of McCully's nine by one run. The following is the score: M'CALLY. ALLEN. R. O. J. M. Shields, p. 0 H. A. He Kept the Whole House Awake. WASHINGTON, D. C.—Mr. F. O. McCleary, a prominent solicitor of patents of this city, was troubled for several weeks with a severe cough, which not only deprived him of a sleep but annoyed others. The only thing which did him any good, he says, was the new preparation, Red Star Cough Cure, a purely vegetable compound, free from opiates, narcotics or poisons of any kind.

We are prepared to furnish wheat sacks in quantities to suit, and at lowest market rates, to our numerous customers. Will also buy wheat and pay the highest market rates at Weston, Oregon. N. DUSENBERRY & CO.

Chances for Health and Disease. Men are dependent upon his surroundings for the necessities of life. Air and water are necessities of life, but impure air and impure water are most prolific sources of disease. Food is also a necessity of life, but numerous diseases are traceable to both a lack of necessary food, and an over indulgence in special kinds of nourishment. Besides these external sources, disease there are other more subtle and internal causes. Each individual inherits from his parents a certain physical constitution. Each person therefore derives his chances of health or disease from a double source, namely his inherited constitution and his surroundings of life. Sanitary science directs attention to our surroundings. Medical science seeks to overcome the constitutional weakness by medicines that supply what is wanting in the system. Dr. Haven's Dyspeptic Cure supplies that which is wanting to ensure proper assimilation and digestion of food. Try it. Free sample bottles at W. H. McCleary's drug store.

Notice. My wife, Clara Stone, having left my bed and board without cause or provocation, I hereby give notice that I will not be responsible for any debts she may contract. JARVIS STONE. Dated at Weston, June 10th, 1885. 27-42

The Reputation of a Standard Article is seldom injured by surreptitious rivalry. Indicators of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have not only lost money by attempting underhand competition with it, but have actually contributed to enhance the estimation in which the genuine medicine is held. The public at large has for many years been acquainted with the marks that distinguish the real from the spurious, and cannot be persuaded that other articles, sold in somewhat similar guise are equally good. Fever and ague, constipation, dyspepsia and liver complaint are not cured by cheap low imitations, eye-spreaders and tonics, but the fact is too well known and generally known to admit of concealment. The great household medicine is safe and thoroughly reliable. Not only in the United States, but in Mexico, South America and the West Indies, its merits are widely recognized and its reputation too firmly established to be shaken.

Some boys stuffed a suit of clothes with straw and pushed the "man" under a bed in a hotel at Portland, Me. The guest who occupied the room put six bullets into the figure and then jumped twenty-two feet to the ground to call the police.

Don't forget that Rees & Redman are located at Adams, and do a "boss" business. Rev. Dr. Todd of New Haven would abolish all the colleges of this country. As the rector's desire could not be carried out without striking a severe blow at the national study of baseball there is little probability of its being gratified.

Steinaker & Co. keep the Buckingham & Hecht's boots and shoes. The announcement that a delicate pink shade will be used for the new postal card authorizes the Philadelphia Press to inform the public that the Postmaster-General thinks seriously of having the mail bags printed in old gold with a four-inch drape of bird's-eye blue and a large display in each corner.

Steinaker & Co. have the largest and best assortment of wall paper in Weston. Asking too much: A man applied at a house in San Antonio for aid. "You should go to work and earn a living," was the indignant reply. "Go to work!" It isn't bad enough that I am so poor that I have to beg, but here you come and want me to work besides.

For bargains in glassware and crockery go to Rees & Redman's, Adams. The Apaches are still operating in Arizona. A ranch near Duncan was attacked on the 14th. Rees & Redman, Adams, are paying the highest market rates for wheat. Rumors are prevalent that a vessel with cholera on board is on its way from Marseilles to Philadelphia. Steinaker & Co. make a specialty of gentlemen's clothing and furnishing goods. For a nobly suit call on them. A Western preacher once compared sewing to drawing spikes into polished redwood.

Bill-heads, letter-heads, note-heads, etc., printed and put up in tables at the LEADER office at Portland prices. Summer hotels furnished in "natural woods," safe from cholera, are among the advertised novelties of the season. The best quality of envelopes furnished and printed at LEADER office for $2 per box of 250. The Japanese cultivate the cherry mainly for the blossoms. We cultivate mainly for the robins and the neighborly ants and boys. The LEADER office does all kinds of job work in first-class style at Portland prices.

An up-country editor in Pennsylvania, writing about Victor Hugo, said he was the author of Leo's Miserables, "a very graphic description of the surrender at Appomattox."
