LOCAL LEADERS.

—Fruit is plentiful and cheap.

—Note the announcement of the Walla Walla Business College in this issue.

—Nice clean mixed bird seed, only 15c per pound at J. J. Banta & Co.'s, Centerville.

—Wheat in the neighborhood of Milton is averaging over thirty bushels to the acre.

—Don't fail to call on J. J. Banta & Co., and get their prices an Machine Oils before you buy.

—Mr. N. Pierce, of Milton, is busy threshing. He expects to have 40,000 bushels of grain this season.

—Remember the cheapest place to buy your tobacco and cigars is J. J. Banta & Co.'s, Centerville.

—Ayer's Hair Vigor, is safe, agreeable and beneficial. It is the most elegant, and its effects are very lasting, making it the most economical of toilet preparations. By its use ladies can keep their hair abundant and natural in color, lustre, and texture.

—By the Council proceedings it will be seen that W. H. Getchell was allowed $5.70 witness fees. Is the city marshal entitled to witness fees every time he arrests a man—provided, of course, the man is brought to trial?

—The dyspeptic nincompoop of the Weston LEADER has a most diabolical hatred of Mr. Noltner, late of the Portland Standard, and of the editor of the Statesman. The paltry, deceitful scrub is not fit to black the shoes of either.—Walla Walla Statesman.

—When gayly the thermometer at ninety holds its place, and with your hat of straw you fan your mad-perspiring face, when every stitch of clothes you wear is sticking to your form, how soothing 'tis to have a friend inform you "it is warm."

—There is some adverse comment about the City's paying attorney's fees. What would those who object have? The City refuse to pay its honest debts? Whatever difference of opinion may exist about incurring the debt, there ought to be none about paying it.

—The New Zealand Loan and Mercantile Agency, at San Francisco, has received from New Zealand some famous Seed Oats, samples of which may be seen at the LEADER office. Parties wishing to purchase oats for seed from this Agency should do so before the middle of October. For prices apply at LEADER office. Orders respectfully solicited.

—The Weston correspondent of a Walla Walla paper is an ironical "cuss." Hear him: "Our citizens are now resting easily about fires. We have a hook and ladder truck and appurtenances, all cosily stowed away, awaiting a fire. If our gallant boys determine whether their shirts shall be blue or red this fall, they may possibly get out for drill."

—The town of Adams continues to improve and flourish. Its good location may have had something to do with its healthy growth, but the energetic enterprise of its founders and business men have done much to ensure its success. Nor is the place overdone. Business lots and residence sites may be secured by applying to Jno. T. Redman, Secretary of the Adams Real Estate Association, Adams, Oregon.

—"Still they come." J. S. White & Co. will have another invoice of Buggies and Hacks on the 1st inst., direct from the factory at Watertown, N. Y., made especially for this trade, and every one of them fully warranted. Farmers and others wanting anything in that line this fall, will make money by calling on them before purchasing elsewhere. Buggies from $125 to $170, Hacks from $125 to $160. Do not fail to go and see them before purchasing elsewhere.

—We are in receipt of the annual catalogue of the Portland Business College, A. P. Armstrong, Principal. Speaking of this school the Telegram says: This is emphatically the best institution of the kind in the Pacific northwest, and commends itself especially to the parents of the country who desire their boys and girls to have an education that shall be of the most practical benefit to them in after life.

—There must be something peculiar about attorney's fees. Some weeks ago the city of Weston was presented with a bill for attorney's fees for the following cases: "City of Weston vs. J. B. Montgomery, City of Weston vs. Henderson Clark and State of Oregon vs W. H. Getchell, $50. The bill was referred to Finance Committee. At the last meeting of the Council the committee reported in favor of paying fees in the first two cases (but not in the third) $45, and the warrant was drawn. How do lawyers divide up their fees, anyway?

—There will be a Mass Convention of all the Sunday School Workers in this county, held at Pendleton on Sept. 2nd and 3d in the Baptist church. At which time the County Sunday School Association will be perfected upon the International plan. A fine programme has been prepared. Mr. E. G. Wheeler, of the International Executive Committee, is expected to be present, together with Mrs. E. G. Wheeler, of the Primary Workers' Department. Other speakers have also been secured, and a grand meeting is arranged. Come! and bring a delegation from your school. Please extend the notice. The first session will be on the evening of Sept. 2nd.

—Read Ordinance No. 37.

—Adams needs a lumber yard.

—Cove cheese, the best, at Pauly's.

—Have your watch repaired, by Frank Manning, Centerville.

—The campers and rusticators have all returned from the mountains.

—Notions, etc., at your own price, at Pauly's.

—Largest and best assortment of boots and shoes at Saling & Co's.

—Pauly has a fine awning in front of his brick building.

—Mr. Rouanzoin of Milton has something new to say this week; look at his ad.

—Sack needles of the best quality at F. M. Pauly's.

—Reese & Redman of Adams are having the brick placed on the ground for their store building.

—Bird seed of the freshest and cleanest kind, at 15c., at Pauly's.

—Mr. Taylor Green, of La Grande, one of the early settlers on Pine Creek is in the city visiting old acquaintances.

—Go to Saling & Co. for your cold pressed castor and mineral oils.

—Our Adams correspondent failed to write up items for us this week, but just came along and told us "how it happened."

—A nice line of candies and nuts at J. J. Banta & Co., Centerville.

—Mr. A. J. Wise has rented his farm and will pass the winter with his family at Eugene City.

—Young men when you want a nobby suit of clothes go to Saling & Co.

—What do farmers want? Good times? Well that is just what Reese & Redman of Adams are offering them. Look at their ad.

—Watches cleaned $1.50. Main springs $1. Case springs $1. Clocks cleaned $1. All work warranted by Frank Manning, Centerville.

—"Uncle" Tom Fletcher of Walla Walla has put up a chop mill and wood-cutting machine at Adams which will be under the management of U. D. Erwin.

—Frank Manning watchmaker and jeweler is at McIlone's Hotel, Centerville.

—Mr. L. M. Simpson of Adams whose building was recently destroyed by fire has concluded to replace it with a two-story brick. The material is already contracted for. Such enterprise is commendable.

—When you visit Portland, remember that the best $1 per day hotel in the city is the INTERNATIONAL, on the corner of Third and Estreets.

—The LEADER gratefully acknowledges receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Walla Walla County fair which commences Sept. 8th; also one to the Portland Mechanics fair which commences October 8th.

—Adams has had another stabbing affray, the actors being Scott Gilson and Daniel Collins, men in the employ of the brickmaker, Mr. Sill. Gilson, who was provoked to the cutting, stabbed Collins thirteen times. Dr. Williams who attended the case says that the wounds, though serious are not necessarily fatal. Gilson was arrested, tried and acquitted on the ground of self-defense. An amusing incident occured in the middle of the ttial. The building in which the court was being held, is owned by Hank Vaughn, who it seems does not approve of its being used for that purpose, or at least without his permission; and this the Court had neglected to secure. In the course of the trial Bank stalked in, locked the back door, and then asked if they knew "whose court house that was" and then commanded them to "walk" and they all walked over to the hotel and finished the trial. Our informant adds "though Gilson was acquitted in the Justice's court, he was afterwards tried in the ecclesiastic court and bound over to appear for trial many years hence."

A Mother's Fears.

E. W. C.—We know that many children have died from the use of cough mixtures containing morphia or opium. But the new remedy—Red Star Cough Cure—is entirely vegetable and harmless, and eminent physicians testify as to its curative powers.

Read and Remember.

As some persons seem to entertain very mistaken views as to the law relative to newspapers and subscribers, we publish a synopsis of it, as follows:

1. Any person who recieves a paper, and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law as a subscriber.

2. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions.

3. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals or papers, the publisher may continue sending them until all arrearages are paid up.

4. Subscribers who move to other places and fail to inform the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former direction, are held responsible.

When she was a child, we gave her CASTORIA,
When she became Miss, she clung to CASTORIA,

Do Not be Deceived.

There is a firm in Walla Walla trying, (and partially succeeding) to steal a portion of my patronage, by putting out a sign "Davis Dentist," instead of their firm name. When you want dental work, performed and warranted by an operator who is responsible, and here to stay, go to the office over Rees & Winan's store. DR. L. M. DAVIS.

Cutex.

For the Leader.

Insinuate your slender bill,
And then proceed to drink your fill.
I well can spare one drop of blood
To give thee life-sustaining food
Thou tuneful zephyr, airy sprite
Industrious minstrel of the night!
How shrilly sweet the trembling note
The quivering wings send out afloat,
While glide you down the moonbeams pale,
As light as silken fairy's sail.
Pray, fold your wings, and loiter now,
Where purple streamlets limn my brow.
He's coming near, I'll catch him soon,
And make him sing another tune.
Yes, there, he's lit,
And now, he's hit,
By Jove, I missed him. There, he's gone,
You little miscreant, still buzz on
While I arise, do you still sing.
That blow hurts worse than would your sting,
It only I could find you now—
I'd mash you—if I quite knew how.

An Old-Fashioned Idea.

The old-fashioned idea that one should never enter a sick room with an empty stomach is a true one. The gastric juice is not secreted in an empty stomach; it is only when food is taken into the stomach and digestion commences that the gastric juice is present. All germs are killed by coming in contact with healthy gastric juice therefore a full stomach fortifies one against contracting contagious diseases. De Haven's Dyspepsia Cure is especially adapted to act upon the digestive juices of the system and keeps them in a pure and natural condition. In this manner it ensures proper digestion and assimilation of the food. It never fails to effect a cure in the most obstinate cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulency and Sickheadache. You are hereby notified that if the tax for 1884, and all unpaid taxes prior to that time, due to said county, are not paid by September 1st, 1885, mileage, etc., will be collected with said tax. I have waited because money was so scarce. Harvest has come. Farmers can get advances. Laborers can draw their wages. Why delay longer, as in many instances to wait will be to pay from two to ten times the amount you now owe. WM. MARTIN,
Sheriff.

Notice.

H. McArthur notifies those interested that he holds the books of the City Drug Store for collection, and all money due must be paid promptly.
