STREETS OF CHRISTIANIA.
The Most Tastefully Designed of Any Capital in Europe.

Christiania is probably the most tastefully laid out capital of any state in Europe. Paris itself not excepted.
It owes its foundation entirely to King Christian IV. of Denmark, from whom it takes its name, who in or about the year 1623 decided to erect for himself a new capital on the opposite side of the river to Oslo.

The whole of the main streets of the city run at right angles and are extremely wide. Indeed, it would hardly be an exaggeration to call them squares rather than streets. For the most part the architecture is rather heavy in design, but the clear air that comes from the fjords tends to give the whole place a tone of lightness that it would otherwise lack.

The river Aker contains a wonderful series of waterfalls in the upper courses some little distance from the city, where practically the whole of the necessary power for the ever growing manufacturing quarter of the Norwegian capital is generated. This quarter is rather rigorously restricted to the suburb of Sagene, on the north side of the city, since town planning is something more than a mere name in Norway.

The royal palace, which was built by Christian IV., is a handsome building of rather unattractive architecture.—Manchester Guardian.

PREDICTS THE TIDES.

One of Uncle Sam's Machines That Does Wonderful Work.

A machine known as the United States tide predicting machine No. 2 and which is in daily operation in the United States geodetic survey at Washington, makes mathematical calculations which would otherwise require 100 persons to do.

Its work is nothing less than the predicting of the times and heights of high and low tides a year in advance.
Its mechanism is of brass and steel, its house a huge mahogany and glass case and its tender one observer, who turns a crank and copies off on paper the reading of several dials and later removes from the machine a roll of paper on which is plotted the tidal curve for the particular spot along the coast the tides of which have been predicted.

Every year the United States issues a book of tide tables, primarily for the use of its navy and, secondly, for the use of all who go down to the sea in ships. This book of tide tables gives the time to the minute and the height of the nearest tenth of a foot of every high and low tide during the year for seventy of the world's seaports, and by means of an auxiliary table the same information for 3,000 other places.—

Useful Wives!

Equal suffrage has not yet penetrated Africa's jungles. A husband will send two of his wives out to plant and care for the cassava farm. Two more will be appointed to look after the rice farm, to plant, attend it, drive off the rice birds and animals, and finally to cut and harvest the crop. Two more will be delegated to the jungle to chop and bring home firewood. Another will be commissioned to carry water for the family. Another will do the cooking. Still another will shine her husband's sword, light his pipe and bring it to him, while he sits in the kitchen and talks any kind of palaver that his men friends care to quibble about. The husband works on the principle of "to every woman her work."—Christian Herald.

Hard to Explain.

Cummings and Weisner were business rivals. One day at the club they fell to talking.

"Do you carry any life insurance?"
queried Cummings.

"Yes," was the answer. "I have $10,000."

"Made payable to your wife?" asked Cummings.

"Yes," said Weisner.

"Well," asked Cummings, "what kind of an excuse do you give to your wife for living?"—New York Press.

Tight Screws.

If screws, gas fittings, the sides of bedsteads or anything else of the kind become tightly fixed and cannot be moved the following method will generally be found to loosen them: Pour a little oil on the tight parts and then hold a lighted candle underneath until it is warm. You will then find that it is easy to separate or unscrew the fixed parts.

Polishing Pearls.

Pearl ornaments may be elegantly polished by first rubbing with olive oil to remove the dirty appearance, then applying an erasor nail polish. This latter gives a burnished appearance, and with a little final rubbing the pearl takes on a brilliant glow.—Scientific American.

Germany on North Sea.

The border of Germany on the North sea, from the easternmost corner of Oldenburg to the northernmost point in Schleswig, measures some 200 miles.
The Kaiser Wilhelm (Kiel) canal is sixty-one miles long and cost $40,000,000.

Idle Curiosity.

For no reason at all we have wondered and wondered and wondered what motus ate before Adam and Even went in for dress reform.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Where life is more terrible than death it is the truest valor to date to live.—Browne.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Graham are going to Paget Sound to make their home, having sold their 40-acre farm south of Athena to E. A. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Key came in Saturday from the farm to consult Dr.
Smith, Mrs. Key having suffered severely of late from bronchial trouble.

C. M. Price and Lester Wiley disposed of their wheat crop Saturday to Frank Price, agent of the Weston Warehouse company, receiving $1.10 1/2 per bushel.

Henry Waddingham and his son Frank returned Sunday evening from a pleasant visit to the Wesley Larders near Ashland and to Geo. J. Wadding-ham at Portland.

Miss Nancy Stevens of Lexington, Nebraska, arrived Saturday for a Christmas visit with her sister, Mrs.
George Ferguson, at the Kern ranch on Weston mountain.

"Jimmie" Carden, an old pioneer on wheels, was up from Pendleton during the week. "Jimmie" lived at Weston in its stage coach days, and is still rather fond of the old town.

Weston students of the O. A. C. returning home Saturday for the holidays were the Misses Edna and Gladys Banister, Elmer Tucker, Herman O'Harra, Leonard Blomgren and Zane Lansdale.

For the first time in the history of the state a foreign market has been found for Oregon onions, ten carloads having recently been shipped to Eu-

This new outlet has caused a sharp advance in price.

Dick English left this week for a Christmas visit with friends in Portland and Ashland. Bennots are curious to the effect that Cupid has as much to do as Sant' Claus with the holiday pilgrimage of this popular mountain bachelor.

Loren Mayboc, Weston's young wireless operator who lately completed a station at his home, has received his government license from the radio inspector at Seattle, and is now ready to capture messages from out of the circumambient ether.

Much improved in health and minus about 30 pounds of surplus "embon-point," Joe Cledius returned this week from an extended stay at Hot Lake, Idaho, where he visited to his brother's home near Watsburg, accompanying his nephew in a motor car.

Mrs. Ross Kennedy and infant son left Monday for their future home at Fruitland, Idaho, after a fortnight's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. O'Harra, near Weston.
They formerly resided at Pullman, Wash., but Mr. Kennedy has taken a position with the bank.

If your property doesn't suit you, why not trade it for something that Weston people and they are satisfied.

Let me make a trade for you. I have buy write to Chas. S. Bassett, Wash-tucna, Wash.

D. G. Ross, a Umatilla county pioneer who resides at Milton and recalls the long winter of 1884, predicts a similar winter this year. "Present atmospheric conditions are similar in every detail to those which preceded the big snow of 1884," says Mr. Ross, "and unless I am badly mistaken we will surely get a big one this year."

O. E. Edson, for many years a leading miller of Hillsboro, Oregon, died recently of paralysis at the age of 73 years. Prior to moving to Washington county about 15 years ago, Mr.
Edson conducted a flouring mill at Weston. He served one term in the Oregon legislature, was a veteran of the civil war, and is survived by a widow and four grown children.

Rev. J. W. Goode, Free Methodist minister, called Saturday evening at the bunk house on the Dr. Kern place on Weston mountain and held a men's meeting. He had the largest congregation of 25, which included the Kern ranch force of wood-choppers and other mountaineers. The worthy man of God broke up a poker game, but the men say that his sermon was well worth the interruption.

Milton Engle: H. A. Williams, well known local sportsman, made a killing the other day which his friends think is worthy of relating. Two ducks were seen by him on his farm south of town. They flew into the Couze Creek canyon and alighted. Mr. Williams took a long range Winchester rifle he has and killed them both at one shot.
The bullet made a clean shot through the head of the one farthest away, having killed the first one in passing.

Sam Banister, whose only fault is that he deserted Umatilla county for Wallawa, came over last week on a business visit. He has several good words to say for Wallawa county prospects, commercially, industrially and agriculturally. Twenty miles have been graded, he says, for the big Eastern Oregon Lumber company's Trout creek road, and hundreds of men will be employed again in the spring.
While here Sam fulfilled an important duty by making his annual contribution to the Weston Leader.

A mad coyote caused a lot of trouble and excitement Friday night at the Decker ranch near Weston, farmed by Jim J. Culley. The varmint chased Mr. Culley's stock all over his field, and bit two dogs which sought to interfere with its activities. It also slaughtered eight or ten chickens. He took several shots at it, but owing to the darkness the bullets failed to find their mark. When day broke he was more successful, and the coyote met its death. It is thought to have been undoubtedly afflicted with rabies, as it paid no attention to the shots that were fired or to the efforts made to drive it off the ranch. As a measure of precaution the bitten dogs had to be killed, much to the sorrow of the Culley household. The farm stock showed no marks of the coyote's teeth, and it is thought that they escaped it.

Despite the fact that considerable sentiment was encountered to the effect that "charity begins at home," and that the warring nations of Europe ought to care for the hungry Belgians, the local committee succeeded in raising $25 for Bright and Albert, in the central part of the state, by draft to the state committee appointed by the governor. The subscribers were: L. R. Van Winkle $2.50, Clark Wood $2.50, J. A. McRae $2.50, Earl Dudley $2.50, J. M. Banister $2.50, P. T. Harbour $1, J. H. Price $2.50, L. I. O'Harra $2, W. M. Blomgren $2.50, A. McIntyre $2.50, Joe Key $1, H. Goodwin $1, Watts & Rogers $2.
Local people who wish to give but were not seen by the committee may forward their contributions to the Oregon Belgian Relief Commission, Samuel Hill, chairman, Portland, Oregon.

After lying idle for centuries and of late years being the subject of numerous controversies, Lakes Sumner and Abert, in the central part of the state, have been leased to a New York syndicate for a term of 45 years. Mr. J.
C. Moore, head of the syndicate, states that his company will spend $5,000,000 for development work within the next two years, and that if the results meet expectations the syndicate will employ $1,000,000 in the next year. Under the terms of the lease the state will receive royalties of not less than $25,000 per year, the royalty to be based on the tonnage of salts extracted from the lakes. The present development plan includes the construction of a pipe line down the Deschutes valley to some point on the Columbia river, where a plant for extracting the salts will be erected.

There will be big doings in Odd Fellowship at Weston February 25, 1915.
At the county convention of the order will be held in this city. It is expected that between three and four hundred visiting brethren will be here, and Weston Lodge No. 55 will do its best bit and tucker for their entertainment. There will be competition between degree workers between three teams, representing Enterprise Lodge of Pendleton and the Frewater and Weston lodges. The local "three-linkers" are practicing assiduously for this event and hope to make a creditable showing. The Grand Master, the Grand Worthy and other Odd Fellows of state-wide prominence are expected to be present. The convention will close with an elaborate banquet.

Mrs. Melissa Price, wife of Hon. A.
R. Price, state senator from Umatilla county, died December 22 at her home near Pullman, Wash. Mrs.
Price was formerly Mrs. Rogers, and lived for many years near Weston.
She was among the most highly respected pioneer women in this part of the state, and the Umatilla County Pioneers Association loses an honored member. Mrs. Price was born in Illinois in 1840, and crossed the plains by ox team with her parents as early as 1852. She is survived by her husband and seven children, Lovell and Frank Rogers of Pendleton, Mayor Fred Rogers of Colfax, E. C. Rogers of Weston, J. L. Rogers of Lewiston, Mrs. George McDonald of Pullman and Mrs. Ed.
Sause of Walla Walla.

Weston High school lost both of its basket ball games to Watsburg High —the boys at Watsburg, 65 to 5, and the girls in the local court, 11 to 10.
The boys admit that they were hopelessly outclassed, but say that they had a splendid time, nevertheless, and that it was some distinction to lose a game in Watsburg's $41,000 hall. They say that they went against a team of human thunderbolts, perfected by constant practice. At Weston the Wats-burg girls took a long lead in the first half, but in the second the locals were likely have passed their opponents with a few more minutes to play. All of Weston's points were scored by its star forward, Miss Gladys Smith.

Mrs. J. M. Ashworth of this city has received news of the death of her father, Mr. J. Whit Price, an aged and highly respected citizen of Stoneville, North Carolina. Mr. Price, who for two years had been a sufferer from heart trouble, was found dead in his bed. He is survived by a widow, five sons and three daughters. The Stone-memory.

LOCAL TALENT PLAY FOR DECEMBER 30

Weston possesses some unusually good dramatic talent, and it will be seen to excellent advantage in "A Daughter of the Desert," to be presented at the opera house Wednesday evening, December 30, under auspices of the Epworth League and under direction of Mrs. J. J. Beeler.

The scenes of the play are located in Arizona at the time of the Apache raids in 1892, and it is replete with dramatic incidents and stirring climaxes, relieved by a pleasing vein of comedy. It is said that "A Daughter of the Desert," in fact, will prove to be one of the most fascinating plays ever presented here, either by local or professional talent.

The cast follows:
