Second-hand furniture bought and sold. E. E. Zehm.
Mrs. Lizzie Mansfield of Athens is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Harris.
Dreamland motion pictures at Weston opera house next Monday and Tuesday evenings.
Watts & Rogers are hollering now about fixing up the streets. Others started it. Read big ad.
See E. E. Zehm at the Weston bakery if you want neat workmanship in shoe and harness repairing.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rogers have gone to Washburn, Wash., on a business visit, expecting to return tomorrow.
A small force of men were at work this week under the direction of City Marshal Wilson at the new water-works dam, stopping the leaks.
For Sale—The O. T. Douglas home, grounds 230x140 feet. It all goes. For terms, see owner, or Geo. Carmichael, 610 University street, Walla Walla.
Bert Winn, well-known young farmer of the Helix district, hobnobbed with Weston friends this week while convalescing after the loss of his appendix.
Miss Ida J. Narkaus has begun teaching in district No. 95 for the summer term, and has 15 pupils. This is her fourth consecutive term in her home district.
Owing to sickness it was impossible for Dr. Lowe & Turner to be in Weston Thursday, April 29; but they will be here Thursday, May 6, instead. Wait for them. (Adv.)
How many teams and days would it take to put the gravel that is under the street (bridge) on top of the street, and then a car of oil over a sand layer? Watts & Rogers.
Jim Jones killed a very obese bear last Sunday near his home on Weston mountain. Clay Smith, rural mail carrier, got a piece of the meat, and says that he never tasted a better bear.
Floyd Smith, Clay Smith's four-year-old boy, was brought back from Walla Walla this week. The youngster's case has been progressing very favorably since the operation upon his skull for the relief of brain pressure.
Vernie O'Hara drove in the other day with an automobile load of young coyotes which he dug out of their nest. They numbered eight in all, which means $24 at current rates. During this month the county has paid out $2000 for coyote scalps.
The Preston-Shaffer Milling company, Weston's large suburban enterprise in the Athens district, is reported to be grinding on an order for 20,000 barrels of flour from the National Biscuit company. Thus doth industry flourish in this particular commercial center.
Mrs. M. J. Marsh, Mrs. W. B. Mays and Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis of Pendleton motored to Weston Sunday and were dinner guests of Mrs. L. S. Wood. Mrs. Lillian McMorris accompanied them to Pendleton for a few days' visit prior to returning to her home at Portland.
George Kinnear lost a hob-nailed shoe on the road the other day and hurried to this office with an announcement to that effect. He recovered the shoe before the paper got out, but couldn't think he could rob us of an item and will be charged five cents per line as usual.
Services will be held at the Baptist church two-thirty o'clock next Sunday afternoon by Rev. Milo G. Bentley of Athens, and a cordial invitation to attend is extended to the people of Weston and vicinity. "What Baptists Believe and Why They Believe It" will be the subject of the sermon.
Mrs. Stillman Dempsey, formerly Miss Beattie Winn, was operated upon for appendicitis last Sunday at Walla Walla by Drs. Suttner and Smith. The result was favorable, and her early recovery is expected. J. V. Bell, who sustained a similar operation last week, is also reported to be getting along nicely.
Three general camps have been established by graders on the county road leading out of Weston down Dry creek to Milton, and 93 men are on the pay roll. The work is proceeding rapidly, grading having been finished nearly to the top of the hill beyond Dry creek along the new route selected for the highway, which is much more favorable than the one so long in use.
With both paid and volunteer labor the Saturday Afternoon Club is making a beauty spot out of the little public park in the center of town. It has been plowed and cultivated and sown to blue grass and clover, while bridge and arbor frame have been painted white. The arbor frame will be covered with wire to support a roof of green boughs. Much admiring comment has been heard as to the good work of the ladies' club.

A large crowd was present and enjoyed a most interesting program at the silver medal contest held Saturday evening at Weston Mountain school house by the W. C. T. U. Six girls and one boy delivered the contest selections, and each one showed skill in many ways in handling the subject selected. Miss Pearl Dow was awarded the medal, and each of the other contestants received a beautiful contest souvenir. One of the audience says: "The members of this class have the ability and show a good spirit to do much work along this line, and it is to be hoped the Mountain W. C. T. U. will continue the medal contests from time to time."
Hon. N. J. Sinnott of The Dalles, Oregon congressman from the second district and one of the ablest representatives from the Pacific coast in either house, has accepted an invitation to give an address at Weston on Friday, June 11, the first day of the twenty-third annual reunion of Umatilla county pioneers and the third annual reunion of their sons and daughters. As President Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural college will be Saturday's orator, the committee on speakers for the event feels satisfied that the reunion crowds this year will be especially well entertained in this particular.

Henry Luckenbill of Walla Walla coasted a half mile at top speed in his automobile Sunday down the Pea Ridge canyon grade, after a visit at the home of Lewis Klugore, and reached the bottom in safety. The key in the differential gear sheared off, and the emergency brakes wouldn't hold, leaving the car to its own devices on a steep and dangerous grade. Mr. Luckenbill was able to steer it, however, and used good judgment in the process. He had need to, for the car contained eight people, four of them being children.
Through one of those typographical lapses that sometimes occur in the best regulated newspaper shops, the names of two successful pupils in the division spelling contest at Weston were omitted from last week's list. They were Emma Thoeny in the fourth grade and Blanche Thomson in the third grade—and we are not only glad to print their names, but also congratulate them on their orthographical achievement. We admonish them to keep on and on, until they can spell as well as the local printer.
George Sowers lately bought himself into a job with the purchase of the Henry Stamper residence property on North Water street. As the house had been gutted by fire, leaving the brick walls only intact, there is much "fixing up" to do, and George has engaged himself to do it—feeling sure that he will not quarrel with his boss. Contractor Ashworth is exercising a nominal supervision over the building activities, which include a new porch and an addition as well as the renewal of the house interior.
The "widow parties" at Weston have already become a recognized social function—and a very enjoyable one. The widows met last Saturday in goodly numbers at the home of Mrs. Martha (Grandma) Van Winkle—who despite the fact that she has been more than fourscore years, was the guest of the day. The hours were pleasantly passed in social chat and in listening to tales by the hostess of pioneer days. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. L. R. Van Winkle.
Athens has decided to give a town picnic to replace its annual Caledonian event. Friday and Saturday, May 28 and 29, have been selected as the dates. The list of sports will include a baseball game Friday afternoon at the Athens and Weston league teams. Athens will play a return exhibition game at Weston on Friday, June 11, the first day of the pioneers' reunion. Each team will pay its own expenses and keep its home town gate receipts.
Fred DuPuis, Geo. B. Carmichael, Bob Prouditt and Lee Craigen indulged in picnicking pleasures Sunday last on the north fork of the Walla Walla river and returned with well-filled baskets, despite the fact that the river was rather high for first-class sport. They took a few rainbow trout measuring twelve inches and better in length.
The Crow (Black Crow) auto is surely proving all claims. Four-cylinder engine motor with Atwater-Kent ignition; four speeds, full floating axle, and the easiest running car of its size on the market; 27 horse power. See me for Lee tires. A. Phillips.
The Pendleton, Adams, Athens and Weston auto stage leaves Weston twice daily for Pendleton at 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. Round trip, $1.75. Headquarters at Goodwin's drug store. A. M. Boyden, proprietor.
All labor towards fixing the streets with gravel and oil would be a good investment—all gain, no loss. Not so with water sprinkling. Watts & Rogers.
Motor car service to all points, day or night. Also livery and feed stable opposite the Lauenlen blacksmith shop. Lefe McBride.
Earl Rose has returned to Weston for a period of rest and relaxation, after a few hours with old Mr. World at Portland and other points.
Harve Read and family arrived yesterday from La Grande for a visit with his mother and other relatives.

Much improved in health, D. H. Baulster has returned from Sulphur Springs, Wash.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. King and son Lester were in town Tuesday from Pendleton, the guests of Mr. King's brother, R. H. King.
J. L. Abrams, well known photographer of North Yakima, announces that he will be in Weston about the third of May, prepared to do high-class work in his line.
W. A. Healy of Healy Bros., prominent furniture men of Portland, was here yesterday to see E. O. DeMoss. He reports a marked recent improvement in Oregon business conditions.
The Misses Ada Decker and Irma King motored up from their home in Pendleton in company with Mr. DeLano, representing the Overland Car, to be the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Joe Lauenlen.
Umatilla county horsemen and horse and mule breeders will meet at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Commercial Club rooms at Pendleton to organize a county branch of the Oregon Horse Breeders' association.
Wanted—100 to 200 acres good farm land—no mountain land—too far from Weston or Athens. No fancy price considered. State price and location in first letter. Address Box 228, Pendleton, Or.
This week's casualties at the ball park included a wounded optic for J. A. Hough which required three surgeon's stitches, and a dislocated wrist for Larry Blitchell which required three plates. The local magazine informs us that he is beginning to regret the tremendous power behind his infield drives.
Snow and rain fell at Weston yesterday in unprecedented volume for this season of the year. The total precipitation for the day was 1.42 inches according to Herbert Baker, government observer. Last night the mercury registered three below freezing. Some six inches of snow fell on the mountain eight miles east of town.
John Bonevitz lately received a letter through the local postoffice which contained a silver dollar and the following message written in a sprawling hand: "I stold 2 chickens from you here is the pay, forgive me to your God." Mr. Bonevitz says that he has often read of conscience money, but this is the first time he ever received any. He feels grateful for his unknown correspondent's contrition—for he needed the dollar.
Death of Charles G. King.
Charles Grant King was born in Harrison county, Missouri, December 2, 1865, and died of brain hemorrhage in Pendleton, Oregon, April 24, 1915, at the age of 46 years, four months and 21 days.
Mr. King was married to Miss Letha Stamper October 4, 1895, in Weston, Oregon. To this union were born nine children, six of whom, together with the widowed wife and mother, survive. He is also survived by four brothers and sisters—Frank, William, James and Roscoe King, Mrs. Joe Lauenlen and Mrs. B. H. Decker. All but William King, who lives near Portland, are residents of Umatilla county.
Mr. King was only six years of age when he came west with his parents to Umatilla county, wherein he had ever since made his home. In recent years he resided at Hermiston. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World, but was not connected with any church. He was a kind and sympathetic man, especially in sickness and trouble. His illness was brief, and his death has caused much sorrow to his friends and loved ones. But—the silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken. The pitcher is broken at the fountain and the wheel is broken at the cistern. The dust returns to the earth, from whence it was taken, and his spirit has returned to God who gave it.
And Wilson Says He Had no Support.
The Weston Odd Fellows were taken into camp by their Milton brethren Monday in a ball game which is said to have been odder than the three-linkers themselves. The contest took place at Milton, and provided amusing comedy for a large crowd of spectators as well as players. Bartholomew and Renick were in Milton's line-up, but Weston overcame this handicap by insisting that every player be allowed to pitch one inning and one only. Weston led by a wide margin until Chief Wilson took the mound and permitted seven or eight runs to the opposition. Harry Beathe asserts that the chief purposely threw the game for the price of his dinner, but we never did think that he could be bought so cheaply. Anyway, Weston lost by a formidable score of seven to one. Its list of baseball stars included Beathe, Blomgren, McConnell, Read, Turner, Wilson, Goodwin, Shick, James and Van Hoy. (Shorty James, not the redoubtable Bill James of the Boston Braves.)
Galesburg, Ill.—A lady in this city, cleaning a silk dress with gasoline, took the garment out into the yard to dry. She began brushing the silk with her hand, causing a spark of static electricity, which, igniting the fumes, burned the lady severely and destroyed the dress.
Hampton Roads, Va.—In the list of supplies requisitioned by Capt. Thierichens, of the German raider, Prince Eitel Friederich, was an item of 50,000 bottles of beer. 100 bottles for each man on board. The naval board cut down every item on the list except this one.

We have a bargain in a portable gas engine bundle thresher. Capacity 40 to 60 bushels per hour. Move anywhere with a four-horse team. Four men to operate, and does excellent work. Come and see it.
Three or four Banner buggies left, at bargain prices. A carload of Weber wagons, some Winona and John Deere.
Alfalfa seed still going at 18 cents.
The current Triangle announces that the Hudson Six wins the title of Lightweight Champion of the World—at Roadside, Boulevard Park, Everywhere. Points: Economy of fuel, tires and upkeep, service and comfort. Certified railroad weight less than 2900.
We also offer the Ford—the universal car—on one condition, viz: If we can get the cars. The rebate is now a certainty.
Now let's get together and fix up our streets with a good layer of creek gravel and then a carload of oil. We can do it in less than 10 days. Car of oil for about $200, and that beats sprinkling 5 months at $40 per mo.

are being founded every day upon small savings from slender incomes.
The savings fund, started today and built upon faithfully, creating eventually a working capital; then investment directed with the good judgment which the savings bank implants—thus destinies are wrought.
Your working capital can be built safely and surely by depositing your savings in this bank.

ODD BITS OF NEWS.
Clarksburg, W. Va.—Mrs. Kathie Dent was struck and fatally injured at Barnes Crossing near here by the same engine that struck and killed Ulysses E. Waters at a neighboring crossing the same day.
Los Angeles, Cal.—William Flynn, 37 months, and Alene Houck, 17 months, "eugenics babies" have been betrothed by their parents. They were winners in the recent baby show here.
Binghamton, N. Y.—After giving all his wages to his wife every week for 25 years, R. H. Walker is now suing her for a share of the money. She refuses to split up with him, even though she has now eloped with another man.
New York—Mary Gunos asked her teacher to excuse her for being tardy. She was delayed in reaching school by saving her three-year-old sister and 18-month-old brother from suffocation in a fire.
Washington, D. C.—Few people realize how many women hire out on farms for field labor. In this country there are a million and a half women field workers, more than all the women dressmakers, milliners, women tailors, hat, cap, collar, cuff and shirt workers combined.
Turbotville, Pa.—William Grittner, a shoe dealer, fitting a shoe on John Barlow, a customer, grasped the upper and made Barlow "push hard." Barlow pushed hard, Grittner's grasp slipped, the heel of the new shoe struck Grittner's body, breaking three ribs and causing internal injuries.
To the Public:
Inasmuch as a rumor is going the rounds to the effect that J. S. Seacrist of Olympia, Wash., is coming to Weston to hold some meetings, we want the general public to know that J. S. Seacrist is no longer either a minister or member of the Church of the Brethren.

We Simply Ask the Men to Stay Sober
OUR factory rules demand "sobriety," not "abstinence." What our employes do after knocking off work is up to them. We don't tell them they can't go into a well-run saloon under penalty of being discharged. If we did, they'd be justified in leaving us.
Our best men are those who drink their healthful, stimulating beer. They are the ones that punch the time clock promptly in the morning and do the most work during the day. They are good boys and know that drinking beer moderately means True Temperance. If we told them they couldn't drink after work, we'd drive them to secret indulgence and deprive them of useful, harmless pleasure. Result—materially diminished mental and physical buoyancy and low efficiency during working hours.
Our men pursue their own lives and gratify their own tastes without molestation. Most of the officials of this factory drink beer moderately because it is beneficial and refreshing. They wouldn't ask the boys to give up what they themselves wouldn't think of quitting.
