NOTICE TO PATRONS Electric Service

Our tariff has been filed with the Oregon Railroad Commission, and the following rule must be strictly observed:

RULE 2. Any bill not paid before the 30th of each month becomes delinquent and the supply of electricity may be discontinued without notice to the customer, in which case an additional payment of 50 cents will be required to turn electricity on again. The right is reserved to discontinue the supply or to refuse to supply anyone with electricity who is in debt to the Company.

We want to be square with our patrons and to give them good service, and only ask them to be square with us. If you are dissatisfied with your meter readings or for any other reason, kindly notify us and we will endeavor to make amends.

Any and all contracts for service must be made with the Company.

See that your receipts are countersigned by E. A. Zorba or by Laura Smith.

Our tariff may be found at the DeMoss Furniture Store or at the Weston Leader office.

iron lands elsewhere, Germany did not care for Paris, and won her first victory when she captured the iron mines of Belgium and France. Continuing he said:

"But Germany is destined to lose. When I think of the devastation she has wrought in Belgium I tremble for Germany. I think the United States made an everlasting blunder when she did not, with other civilized nations, protest against Germany's violation of Belgium."

If Dr. Hillis is right, then will all the iron she acquires enter Germany's soul in the loss of millions of her bravest sons.

Rather than rock the boat Mr. Bryan plunged overboard into the deep blue sea. - Exchange.

Put perchance the boat may have been rocking Mr. Bryan.

A foolish Oregon City man went to the trouble of hanging himself on the day he was to be married, when he could just as well have jumped over the falls.

Does the announcement that "stern measures will be taken to restore peace in Mexico" mean that Carranza will be attacked in the rear?

Mohammed must have to hustle for hours in the Muslim heaven, the Turks having lost 180,000 men in the fighting around the Dardanelles.

PREDICTS 4,000,000 BUSHELS.

Hyman H. Cohen, the Oregon Journal's market editor and crop expert, has this to say under a Pendleton date line:

"Umatilla county's wheat crop this season will be somewhat above normal, but slightly less than it was a year ago, indications pointing to a harvest of about 4,000,000 bushels. Ten days ago prospects were more encouraging. The so called better land sections gave promise of yields as high as 70 bushels per acre. The light land sections had prospects of from 25 to 40 bushels and more. Then came the hot winds, and high hopes went glimmering. The districts about Weston, Milton and Athens in particular, and the east end of the county in general, offer their full quota of this season's prospects. Wheat on the Umatilla reservation is good, and though it has fallen below the expectations of some, the showing is quite satisfactory, in view of the increase noted in the state at large."

THE SAVAGES OF VICE.

In view of the fact that the state-wide campaign of the Oregon Social Hygiene society has now extended to Weston, the following facts and figures furnished to The Leader by a gentleman who is thoroughly familiar with the work of the society may be of interest to our readers:

"Between 28,000 and 25,000 blind people in the United States are in that deplorable condition because of the mistakes of their fathers. Many more can attribute their suffering to diseased husbands who thought themselves cured. Thousands of abnormal children, enfeebled or idiotic, come into the world tainted by their fathers. Thousands and thousands of both sexes—unhealthy, inefficient, a menace to society—bear further witness to the ravages of venereal disease.

"If humanitarian reasons are not sufficient for fathers and mothers to instruct their children in the vital facts of physical development and sex life, there are others. It is reported that one-third of the girls and boys in the State Blind school became blind as a result of the germs of gonorrhea getting into the eyes at childbirth. The biennial report of the state board of control shows that each of these wards burdens the state to the extent of $55 every two years. The same report shows that 76 of 763 men in one of the state asylums for the insane have 'general paresis,' which is one of the final stages of syphilis and has no other cause than syphilis. These wards each cost the state more than $100 annually for their care.

"Those who follow the biennial appropriations of the state legislature know that the largest items of expense to the state are the state institutions. Those who look into the facts know that the greatest factor in peopling these institutions is immorality resultant from ignorance and lack of proper home training.

"Such meetings as are being held at Weston today are of significance to the taxpayer as well as the conscientious parent, and should be ignored by neither."

A NATIONAL CREED.

The Chicago Herald suggests the following as a National Creed by which the men, women and children of America may affirm their Americanism:

I believe in the United States, one and indivisible; in her mission as the champion of humanity—as the friend of the weak and distressed; in the singleness, dignity and inviolability of American citizenship; in the validity of our national traditions; in peace with honor; in friendship with all nations that respect our rights; in entangling alliances with none; in reasonable preparations for national defense by sea and land; in shirking no sacrifice needed to hand down to the future the priceless treasures bequeathed to us by the past; in the necessity of keeping the western hemisphere free from the intrusions of European institutions and ambitions; in the capacity of free men for self-government; in the love of home and country; and in the inflexible resolution that government of the people, for the people, by the people shall not perish from the earth.

The Freewater postmaster gets an increase in salary from $1500 to $1600 a year, and the Echo postmaster from $1700 to $1800. A drop from $1300 to $1200 is noted at Athens.

ODD BITS OF NEWS.

Lancaster, Mo.—J. Kelly Wright, lecturer for the state board of agriculture was here last week inspecting the elephant farm of William F. Hall, (Diamond Hill). Although not genuine (susuuuuuu) the elephant appears since the war, the largest in either Europe or America. He controls the elephant trade of this hemisphere.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Old Doctor Stork is doing his best to maintain his average at the home of Michael Klina. Five years ago he left at the Klina home a tiny girl that weighed but 1 1/2 pounds at birth. Last week the Klina became the proud parents of another child, this time a boy weighing 22 pounds. Both children are thriving and the Klina can now boast the smallest girl and the fattest baby in a great state.

Washington, D. C.—W. J. Bryan is against voting on prohibition in 1918, and predicts that neither the republican nor democratic parties will put a prohibition plank in their platforms, although he wants the latter to be known as a dry party. He believes that the other issues will out-ribe prohibition at that election. Personally he would like that plank inserted, but does not believe that it is possible to do so.

Hazleton, Pa.—Jacob Getaki, an armless man, has been arrested for beating his wife. Mayor James Harvey is wondering how the wife will prove her charge when the case comes to trial.

Seattle, Wash.—Miss May Stehle in charge of the cloak room at the hotel here, is untippable. If she would take tips, she could make $2500 a year in addition to her salary. "But," she says, "I would lose my self-respect." The hotel management could, if it desired, fire Miss Stehle, and save her salary, and to boot sell the cloak room "privilege" for $150 a month.

Wapakoneta, O.—A pebble, pinched between the pavement and an automobile tire, was hurried against a nearby plate glass window with such force that it pierced the glass in the same manner as if a bullet had been fired through it.

PASS A LAW!

Are your neighbors very bad?
Pass a law!
Do they smoke? Do they chew?
Are they always bothering you?
Don't they do as you would do?
Pass a law!

Are your wages awful low?
Pass a law!
Are the prices much too high?
Do the wife and babies cry
'Cause the turkey ain't roost high?
Pass a law!

When M. D. finds new diseases,
Pass a law!
Got the mumps or encephalitis,
Measles, croup or "expertitis"
Lest we all fly to pieces,
Pass a law!

Are the lights a-burnin' red?
Pass a law!
Paint 'em green, or paint 'em white;
Close up all them places tight,
My! Our town is such a sight,
Pass a law!

No matter what the trouble is,
Pass a law!
Goodness sakes, but ain't it awful,
My! What are we going to do?
Almost as dangerous as a bullet,
And the judge is human, too.
Pass a law!

A Word or Two About Revolvers.

A revolver is a nickel-plated substitute for bravery, which has practically driven the original article out of the market. The revolver gives a puny man with a 3/4-inch brain and the pluck of a coyote a 100-yard reach and makes him more deadly than a buck Mormon. There was a time when this country had no dangerous animals, except bears and wolves, and White Slavery and life was safe, except on certain of the frontiers, but now vast hordes of 16-year-old boys who use their skulls for a dime novel bookcase, roam the streets with cigarettes in their face and portable cannon in their hip pockets, producing obituaries with the skill and enthusiasm of a cholera microbe. Revolvers are now so generally used in debate, domestic quarrels and repartee of all sorts that 8,000 Americans die of them each year.—Mitchell, S. D. Gazette.

And Maybe They Can.

One-third of the fools in the country think they can beat a lawyer expounding the laws. One-half think they can beat the doctor in healing the sick. Two-thirds of them think they can put the minister in the hole expounding the gospel, and all of them think they can beat the editor running a paper, says a grouchy exchange.
