Rollin McSherry of Prosser was a business visitor Saturday in Weston.

Mrs. Lella Goldsmith has purchased the cottage property of A. Phillips on Washington street.

Mrs. J. O. Davis and her two sons were visiting in Weston this week from Washuena.

Keep your eyes open for the young Crows. They will come at near flying as any other automobiles. A. Phillips.

Motor car service at all points, day or night. Also livery and feed stable opposite the Linnell blacksmith shop. Late McBride.

Mrs. J. E. McDaniel has returned to her home on Weston mountain from Pendleton, where she has been under medical treatment.

Mrs. Sidney Warren and infant son are leaving tomorrow for Snake River, Wash., to join Mr. Warren, who is conducting a warehouse there.

John A. Read visited Tuesday with relatives and friends at Weston while on his way to Blitsville, Wash., where he will engage in harvest work.

A special meeting of Pedora Circle No. 146 was held at the lodge hall Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of greeting Mrs. Jennie Green, an organizer for the order.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Boyden returned this week from their camping trip, and Mr. Boyden is again at the steering wheel of his auto stage between Weston and Pendleton.

The Misses Anita and Odessa Kirkpatrick, Mr. Earle Kirkpatrick and Master Allen were among the Weston folk who went to Walla Walla Monday to see the Liberty Bell.

Have you tried some of Zehm's Milk Bread? The good—put seed. Hot at 8 o'clock every morning. Help your own taste and buy the bread that's made at home. Weston Bakery.

Isaac Howard and family of Jone, Oregon, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Horseman. Mr. Howard is a brother of Mrs. Horseman, and is a Morrow county farmer and stockman.

Lee Wilson, Weston's faithful chief of police and waterworks superintendent, has gone to Anacostia, Wash., for a vacation visit with his brother, Frank Skinner, who is wearing the star during Chief Wilson's absence.

Rev. Charles H. Powell of Cove, general missionary of the Episcopal church for Eastern Oregon, will conduct services at All Saints' church in Weston next Sunday evening, July 15, at 8 p. m. All are invited to attend.

Louis Christenson, who was in town Wednesday from Reed and Haxley mountains, reports that the mountain apple crop promises well this year. The trees are free from blight and scale and are well loaded with young fruit.

Don E. Bennett, a railroad man of Illinois, Oregon, arrived Thursday to join Mrs. Bennett and little daughter, who have been visiting relatives at Weston. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett contemplate a trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Athena Press: E. A. Dudley brought the samples of some good wheat in to town Wednesday. The heads were well filled and showed no sign of injury from the recent hot winds, and Mr. Dudley said he expected to harvest a good yield.

Local sportsmen may be interested in knowing that both the grouse and the deer seasons open this year on August 15 and close October 31. The grouse season begins two weeks earlier and the deer season two weeks later than formerly.

William MacKenzie and family, who left Weston June 21st by automobile and have been journeying by easy stages through Oregon and California, arrived yesterday in San Francisco and are now enjoying the glories of the exposition.

John Reynolds has been doing some work for the city in liquidation of a fine imposed upon him for engaging in a belated argument with Henry Stamper. Mr. Stamper was called upon for a similar contribution, which he settled in coin of the realm.

Walter Adams, who became known this season as the barley king of the East End, motored to Weston Tuesday on a business visit. Mr. Adams kept enough barley to make several loaves of beer or more, but looks just as cheerful as though he had sold it at top prices.

The application of J. B. and Jennie Farrens of Weston for a writ of habeas corpus to secure the custody of a minor daughter of Mrs. Farrens, was dismissed Monday in the circuit court at Pendleton. A satisfactory settlement between the disputing relatives was made out of court.

Earl Kinneer met with a serious misfortune Monday, which will "lay him up" for a month or more. While hauling hay for his brother, Ralph Kinneer, at the Kinneer farm on Course creek, he was thrown about 30 feet from the top of the load as the wagon entered a chuck hole in the field, and sustained a fracture of the left thigh.

The first act of vandalism in connection with the trip of the Liberty Bell occurred between Pendleton and Walla Walla. Boys standing on a high bank by the side of the track threw rocks at the bell, and one hit it squarely, but apparently did not damage it. Officials accompanying the bell say this was the first unprovoked act that happened during the 2500-mile trip.

All of the children of Mrs. M. J. Maybes are expected to assemble in Weston next Sunday, and a family reunion will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Price. Those residing here are Mrs. Price and G. W. Maybes. Those coming from other points are Mrs. A. F. Turner, of Grandville, Idaho; Mrs. Geo. B. Martin of Mabton, Wash.; Charles E. Maybes of North Bend, Oregon.

The following officers of Hiawatha Rebekah Assembly No. 88 were installed today evening by Ethel Snider, district deputy noble grand, assisted by Eliza Morrison, district deputy marshal; Ruby James, noble grand; Anna O'Hara, past noble grand; Maud Stanfield, vice grand; Celeste Duncan, chaplain; Odessa Kirkpatrick, recording secretary; Lettie Brandt, financial secretary; Doris Barnes, warden; Mabel Graham, conductor; Mary MacKenzie, treasurer; Maggie O'Hara, outer guard; Zena Smith, inner guard. Sherbet and cake were served during an enjoyable social session which followed the ceremony.

Both the women's and men's meetings held here in co-operation with the Oregon Social Hygiene society, were largely attended, and the local campaign of sex education was launched under very favorable auspices. Strong and effective speeches were made by Dr. Snyder and Dr. McNary of Pendleton. Dr. Snyder addressed both meetings, and did not hesitate to call a spade when plain language became advisable to drive home his points. At the conclusion of the men's meeting the local committee was made permanent, on motion it consists of E. M. Smith, J. M. Hamilton, E. W. Rogers, I. O'Hara, C. F. Hultfinch, Dr. C. H. Smith.

By Tuesday night about 1400 feet of ditch had been dug and pipe laid for the waterworks extension above town by the contractor, Frank Parsons & Co., who is in charge. Unusual progress has been made for the number of men employed—some four or five. As the total length of the extension is 2478 feet, the task will soon be completed and Weston will then be supplied with clear mountain water piped from its new storage reservoir. These contractors have had much experience in ditching and pipe-laying, and are doing their work with neatness as well as with dispatch.

The famous Liberty Bell was seen at the Weston depot Monday evening while passing through town on the Spokane branch. Weston folk who went down to the depot got a good view of the bell and of the early decorated locomotive which has drawn it all the way from Philadelphia. We understand that the bell was permitted to remain for an hour or two in such bucolic villages as Pendleton and Walla Walla, and feel that this particular metropolitan has been the victim of unjust discrimination. We have just as much liberty here as anybody, and probably more.

Whenever a prominent Weston citizen has anything better—or worse—to do he goes over and thoughtfully inspects the progress of the work on the new store building at the corner of Main and Broad streets, with every appearance of satisfaction. Any number of more or less competent material men are hired by Dr. Watts at a very reasonable wage by the hour or day. The Leader man himself would be willing to devote a little more time to this job if it paid a little better.

The concrete garage building on West Main street has been leased from A. Phillips by Homer L. Hedrick of this city and Howard E. McDorman of Portland, who have been associated in the garage business heretofore conducted here under the management of Mr. Hedrick. Mr. Hedrick will at once move the equipment to the new location, where he will be better prepared than ever to take care of the wants of the automobile owners of Weston and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith are preparing for a vacation visit soon to the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Tracy Inman, Mr. Smith's relief as agent at the O-W-R & N. depot, is already here, and he is merely waiting to be "checked out" by the company auditor. Mr. Smith may not return to Weston, as there is prospect of his transfer to the Walla Walla branch. He is a popular and accommodating agent, and his departure will be viewed with regret by the company's patrons and townspeople in general.

Henry Pinkerton, now of Athena, was a recent caller at The Leader office, and very sensibly renewed his subscription. We then learned for the first time that Mr. Pinkerton has been a constant Leader subscriber since its foundation in 1878. He thus shares this distinction with Frank O'Hara of Pendleton. Should either of them ever quit—which he won't!—The Leader would feel like wrecking its hand press and retiring to the journalistic boneyard.

Curtis P. Coe, professor of commerce and education in McMinnville college, was in town Monday recruiting students for that well-known institution. He says that several contemplate attending from this neighborhood. This is the college attended by Ruth and Hugh Dowd, and of Henry and Della Pruitt, who were former students. It has won two of the four Rhodes scholarships offered Oregon during the past five years.

A petition attesting the good behavior of Lester Carlin prior to the trouble in which he became involved at La Grande, and asking the trial judge that he be paroled, was quite largely signed at Weston. Carlin was convicted of a statutory charge and was sentenced to from six months to two years. His wife has sued him for divorce.

J. B. Horner, professor in the department of history at the Oregon Agricultural college, will be in Weston July 30, from nine to eleven o'clock in the forenoon. Mr. Horner writes that "it will be a pleasure to meet as many as possible of the alumni, students, prospective students and other friends of the Oregon Agricultural College."

The following hours have been set for lawn irrigation by the Weston city council: Normal Heights, 8 to 10 p. m.; remainder of the city, 8 to 9 p. m. Irrigation is unlawful at any other hour, and in case this rule is broken the water will be turned off at the mains. R. L. Wilson, superintendent.

G. W. Staggs & Son began threshing Wednesday at their lower ranch on Dry creek, where their barley is yielding around 18 to 20 bushels per acre. They have not yet gone into their wheat, which looks to be rather badly burned.

Work is in progress on the 45x80 extension to the Weston Warehouse company's warehouses below town. When the work is completed and the partition taken out the company will have a room for grain storage 300 feet long.

Wanted—Woman to do family washing. Inquire at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler have located in Pasco, Wash., where Mr. Wheeler will conduct a confectionery and cigar store.

Our candy special continues at the Weston Bakery. Never before were fine, fresh chocolates and other sweets quoted so cheaply. E. E. Zehm.

C. D. Gabrielson, special agent of the Royal, was here for several days this week helping the local agent, Frank Price, in writing grain insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kinder and family of Dayton and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hodge of Wainburg motored down Sunday for a visit with the R. W. Browns.

Wheat is "going up" in both the Chicago and Portland markets. Portland yesterday was bidding 90 cents for club and $1.00 for bluestem. Chicago quotation for July option, $1.15.

The late G. A. Hartman left an estate valued at $25,000, principally in Portland real estate. His will has been filed for probate and bequeaths $100 to each of his four children. The residue is left to his widow.

J. F. SLOVER GOES EAST TO BUY FOR WESTON STORE

J. F. Slover, manager of the Weston Mercantile company, left Thursday for the east on a buying trip and will purchase the stock for Weston's new store.

The stock will be selected with care, with a view to meeting the wants of this field, and that it will be comprehensive and satisfactory is assured, in view of Mr. Slover's well-known experience and judgment as a buyer. It will be bought direct from the factories, thus eliminating middlemen's profits, and bought for cash. By this means the Weston Mercantile company will not only be able to meet the competition of neighboring towns, but also that of catalogue houses. Mr. Slover says that he is in a position to buy and know how to buy to as much advantage as the largest mail order houses in the United States, and will be able to compete with them on equal terms for the trade of the Weston district.

The merchandise will be of top-notch quality, sufficient to please the most discriminating patron—and Weston buyers are known to use discrimination. Here are a few of the standard brands that will be stocked by Manager Slover:

Hart, Schaffner & Marx, and Clothcraft clothes for men.

Tiger and Stetson hats.

Richardson's silk and messaline.

Kirkendall E-Z Walker, and Hamilton-Brown shoes.

The G. Edwin Smith shoes for women—said to be the best American make.

A good line of ladies' coats and suits and an invoice of specially imported linens will be included in Manager Slover's purchases. Every article essential to a "1915 model" dry goods store will be stocked at Weston.

"We expect to be able to cater to the fastidious and to those who want substantial stuff," says Mr. Slover.

Manager Slover will visit such commercial and manufacturing centers as Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia and New York, and will seek out the best goods in going to merchandise. From prior experience in buying for his Milton store, he knows what he wants and where to get it.

Concerning the Crop Outlook.

Appearances are deceptive with regard to Umatilla county's grain crop this year. Notably is this true in the Pilot Rock district, where seen from the road a field of wheat looks good for forty bushels to the acre. It stands well and has a rich yellow color, but when entered the heads are found to be full of shriveled berries. Barley around the Rock is much better than wheat, that being a good barley district.

Favorable weather for the past week or so has helped mature the Weston crop without further injury, and the wheat is much better than on the lighter lands. It not only looks good from the road, but is good. This is true except in isolated instances of burning. The yield will probably run from 30 to 40 bushels per acre. It would have been 10 bushels more had not the hot wave struck the grain at a critical time.

Barley is also said to have suffered some damage in this locality. One small crop has been threatened north of town and made an extra good yield, but as it was seeded last December and "beat out" by the hot weather, it cannot be taken as a criterion for this district. His crop was on the Harry Turner place, recently bought by William Ferguson. Thirty acres of barley is said to have produced 1-100 sacks, or an average of about 30 bushels per acre. Ferguson tried out a new Oregon Special Holt combine.

St. Louis, Mo.—Billicious and kissless is the way Mrs. Eugenia Koch Anderson, 18 years old, describes her married life with Arthur R. Anderson, pastor of the Central Christian church of Granite City. Two kisses in the last two months and $20 in seven months, according to Mrs. Anderson, make a good recipe for a love extinguisher.

Pueblo, Colo.—A patient at the state asylum is suffering from the hallucination that the wireless stations of the world are drawing their electricity from him and sapping his strength. He wants to form a union to abolish radio communication throughout the world.
