After an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Zehm, Mrs. M. C. Wade left this week to visit another daughter, who resides at Wallace, Idaho.
Bill Price, Bob Proudfoot, Clay Smith and George Mayhew went fishing Sunday to the Umatilla river. They found the trout to be biting well, and had no difficulty in filling their baskets.
Harry Shick, separator tender with John Banister's outfit, became entangled Saturday with a set screw and lost all of his clothing. At that he had a bit of the best of "September Morn." as his suspenders were left intact.
Front his home place northwest of town Alice Johnson harvested 2267 sacks from 125 acres. The same ground has yielded 2600 sacks, which indicates the degree to which Mr. Johnson's crop was damaged by this year's burn.

The peculiar taste of the local water has caused considerable regretful comment about town of late, and not a few families are resorting to wells for their drinking water. Pipes and reservoirs were cleaned out by Superintendent Wilson, but nothing of a suspicious nature was found. The taint is ascribed to the onkum used in caulked the new steel pipe laid in the creek bed three miles above town, and will have no effect, although from three to six months may elapse before its effect upon the water disappears. Consumers may at least console themselves over the fact that for the first time in years they now have plenty of water for lawn irrigation. Harvesting outfits have also been supplied from the main, thanks to Weston's new storage reservoir.
A remarkable yield for this season and an unusual one for any season, was obtained by William S. Ferguson, one of the East End's largest farmers, from a quarter section of the reservation land he is handling south of Athena. He had 145 acres of this tract in German red wheat which yielded 3895 sacks, of approximately 60 bushels to the acre. From a total of 350 acres in the same neighborhood he had an average yield of between 23 and 24 sacks per acre, the remainder being Jenkins club. Mr. Ferguson says that the German red stands up as straight as a pine pole and cuts better. E. A. Dudley planted more than 500 acres of it, and is also said to be getting a big yield.
J. M. Banister is getting a good crop this year from his East End holdings. Although pretty badly "down," 75 acres on the old home place west of town, threshed by Art Coppock, yielded 1797 sacks of club and red chaff. While this is by no means a poor showing, the same tract two years ago produced no less than 1840 sacks. He had a satisfactory yield from the Ginn ranch, and 89 acres of the Mrs. Taylor place averaged about 50 bushels to the acre. His own outfit is now threshing on the Richmond place adjoining town, which is yielding well. On the reservation he had an average of 35 bushels per acre from 240 acres.
J. N. York has housed his harvesting outfit, after a successful run of 14 days in his own grain. With a 24-inch separator and one 14-foot header he covered considerable territory, 48 acres being his best day's run. Mr. York cropped 2700 sacks of No. 1 wheat from 236 acres on the east side of Dry creek, 540 sacks from 23 acres on his home place, and 2974 sacks from 155 acres on the Bob Killgore place. He also had 35 bushels to the acre from 50 acres of spring-sown barley. While he has had a better average in other years, he is by no means dissatisfied with his 1915 harvest.
Thomas Calder, a brother of Jack Calder of this city, was drowned a few days ago while bathing in the Elbow river near Calgary. He was a member of the 56th Canadian Volunteer Infantry, enlisted for service in Europe, and was given a military funeral. More than 1000 people are said to have attended, including one battalion of troops, numbering 800 of the dead soldier's comrades. Mr. Calder was a native of Scotland, 21 years old.
A grain fire on the reservation Monday morning destroyed about 125 acres belonging to R. P. Kirkpatrick and 50 acres belonging to George Peninger. An automobile which had been driven rapidly for extra for Kirkpatrick combine and became very warm, was left standing in the field and caused the fire. It was also destroyed, but the combine was saved. Both farmers carried insurance on their wheat.
The Epworth League will be addressed next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. at the Methodist church by Mr. McCalland, who will speak of his missionary work among the Mormons. There will be preaching morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. N. D. Wood, who has returned from his trip to Redmond, Oregon. The usual union services will be held in the evening.
Benjamin Franklin DuPuis, who came to town the other day to gain a few metropolitan impressions, is rather inclined to congratulate himself that he possesses a homestead in the Oregon hills. From 100 acres of the "light land" near Vanaycia he had 25 bushels to the acre of good wheat. But for the burn his place would have averaged ten bushels more.
Mr. Stanley Neeland of Albany, Oregon, and Miss Iva A. Nolte, daughter of Louis Nolte of Weston, were united in marriage Saturday at Pendleton, where the bride has been employed in the restaurant annex of the Golden Rule hotel. After a brief visit with relatives of the bride in Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Neeland left for Albany to make their home.
The following motor car party was in Weston Sunday while on a trip through the East End: Mrs. Jane Hartman, Mrs. M. J. Marsh, Mrs. Lina H. Sturges, Miss Nason (county librarian) and County Judge C. H. Marsh of Pendleton; Mrs. E. P. Purdy and Miss Jessie Purdy of Medford, Oregon.
Fire broke out in a slashing at the Dr. Kern place on Weston mountains last week and raged for 24 hours. About 500 cords of wood was endangered for a time, but the fire was finally subdued by George Ferguson, who conducts the Kern place, and neighbors whom he summoned to his aid.
F. G. Lucas returned Tuesday from across the mountains, having taken Albert James and family to Wallowa county in his Maxwell. He reports a pleasant and successful trip, and fine fishing in the Wallowa river. Mr. James and family are now with the O. C. Turners near Enterprise.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bush motored from McKay Sunday to Weston, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewallen.
J. A. King went out of town recently with a Case separator for use in his grain fields.
Mrs. Charles Wicks of Lone Rock, Oregon, was a visitor during the week of Grandma Lewallen. Mrs. Wicks is an Oregon pioneer, and lived at Weston during the Indian war excitement of 1878.
Raymond McGrew came up from Portland this week to feast his eyes for a few days upon some real good country and to enjoy a season of bucolic activity at the McGrew ranch.
Charles English, the son of Ken English, formerly of Weston, died a few days ago at his home in Auburn, Wash., after a lingering illness. He was 22 years old.

Mrs. Lillian Fredericka returned Tuesday from a visit to Portland and the beach.
A fine line of Box Stationery at Kirkpatrick's Confectionery—going at half price.
Watts & Rogers still have grain sacks for local people at one cent below market.
Mrs. Alice Kirkpatrick was in Athena Tuesday, visiting her niece, Mrs. R. A. Thompson.
Mr. and Mrs. William Walling of McMinnville are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Graham, Jr.
Mrs. Will B. Ains came down from the mountain this week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Kate Beath.
Best assortment of pipes in town at Kirkpatrick's Confectionery. Also a complete stock of glass and porcelain.
A mountain dance will be given at Camp Cold Spring tomorrow evening, with music by Charles Keen's orchestra.
Clarence Bischoff returned to Walla Walla Tuesday, after visiting his father, D. Bischoff, and sister, Mrs. J. Wurzer.
Mr. and Mrs. M. J. NorDean have become residents of Normal Heights in a cottage purchased by them of Mrs. Cora Tucker.
Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fontaine and Mr. Craig Driskell of Dayton, Wash., have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Driskell.
Mrs. F. L. McNiff of Conley, Oregon, has been the guest of Mrs. Harry Warren while on her way to Prescott, Wash., to join Mr. McNiff.
Miss Daisy Waddingham of Weston, was among the seven Umatilla county teachers receiving life certificates as a result of the last June examinations.
Lot Livermore, Pendleton's first mayor and one of its earliest postmasters, has just celebrated his 80th birthday anniversary. He crossed the plains in 1850.
Miss Virginia Funk of Walla Walla is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. I. E. Saling. Miss Funk motored to Weston with her cousins, the Misses Saling of Pendleton.
Countless yellow jackets are causing much trouble for campers in the Blue mountains, according to Martin Unser of the Forestry office, who has just returned to Walla Walla from the Wenaha reserve.
Two young burglars were caught looting a house of J. B. McCook, Pendleton bank cashier, and confessed to the police that they and two other boys had been systematically robbing North Side residences. Much plunder which they had cached away has been recovered.
During the past week Watts & Rogers delivered to G. W. Queener in Leavenworth, 5000 lbs. of Nitro gas and oil engine, 12 h. p. portable, and the same firm delivered to Linus Anderson and Robert Blomgren a threshing operated by gas engine on the same truck.
During the past week S. A. Barnes has purchased about 25,000 bushels of wheat at a range of prices between 90 and 95 cents. This constitutes the sum total of local transactions, as the majority of farmers are waiting to see which way the feline will project itself. Yesterday the local wheat market closed at 95 cents. Barley is strong at $23 per ton.
While driving his Metz car on the Athena-Weston road last Wednesday, Worth Watts reached out casually to feel of the sprocket chain to see if it needed oiling. His hand came in contact with the sprocket wheel and he lost the ends of three fingers. Jimmy Reed, who was with him, drove the car to town, and the wounded youngster reported at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. P. D. Watts. Dr. Watts, assisted by Dr. Smith, trimmed and dressed the mangled digits, and a sadder but wiser boy will drive that nifty little car in future.
A car containing Lizzie Rothrock, a half-breed woman of Pendleton, and Orville Jackson of Echo, plunged 12 feet into the Byers mill race Monday night and turned completely over, alighting in the water with wheels upward. Jackson, who was driving, mistook the outlines of the headgates for a wagon bridge. The escape of both occupants of the car from death is considered miraculous. The woman is in the hospital with injuries that are not thought to be serious, and Jackson escaped with a few slight bruises.
One of the friends up this way who especially rejoiced with Karl Gulott of Pendleton in the restoration of his vision is Logan Galbraith, who has been wholly blind for five years. Mr. Galbraith is led to hope that in the course of time a similar blessing may come to him. His misfortune was due to rheumatism affecting the optic nerve. Just now he is doubly unfortunate, having been crippled about eight weeks ago by a horse stepping upon his right foot. An old injury was thus aggravated, causing intense pain. Amputation of part of the foot may become necessary.
The International Sterling threshing outfit taken into the foothills this week by Robert Blomgren and Linus Anderson is reported to be doing admirable work. The outfit is easy to transport and to handle, and is thought to be especially well adapted to threshing bound grain in the mountains and foothills. A six-horse power gasoline engine drives the separator, with which it is directly connected on the same trucks, and the outfit will easily handle 500 sacks daily or better. Watts & Rogers expect to place a number of orders for this Sterling combination next year.
Milton Eagle: There is now in operation a right Mountain siding on the O.-W. R. & N. between Milton-Freewater and Weston, the first private grain elevator to be built in this end of the county, owned and operated by Grant and Will Steen. It has four bins in the main structure with a capacity of 600 bushels of wheat each, and a fifth bin with a capacity of about 4000 bushels, besides two dumping bins under the platform that will hold 1500 bushels or more. Motive power for the conveyor is furnished by a 7-horse power Economy hopper-cooled gasoline engine. It takes less than one minute to dump a load of wheat into the bins.
Carnerio, Kas.—Following strictly the scriptural injunction, Roy Harris, 20, amputated his right hand at the wrist, claiming it was a devil. The operation was performed in a pasture at midnight.

SAVING IS EARNING

Your time can not be employed to better purpose than by taking advantage of Davis-Kaser's GREAT AUGUST SALE. You can make worth-while savings by buying now at Red Tag Prices the things you would have to buy very soon anyway. You can make a double saving by buying now, for you not only save the big Sale reductions now in effect, but you also save the advance in price on many things which must become effective very soon. Spelter has gone from 5 to 30 cents a pound; copper has doubled; aluminum is much higher—carpet wool and dyes and many other items also. The result is that goods made of these things are advance right along. Manufacturers have advanced prices of galvanized tubs over $3.00 per dozen and further advances are predicted—and so it goes. There is every indication that it will be a long time before we can again maintain the low level of prices of the past few months. So we say, buy now and save. A bushel of wheat never bought so much as right now, and may never again.

If you do not know the saving possibilities of a DAVIS-KASER SALE, by all means investigate. Come in and read the Red Tags—they tell the story. You'll find that Red Tag Prices will save you from $15.00 to $50.00 from our own low prices on every $100.00 worth you buy, and proportionately on smaller purchases. You owe it to yourself to grasp this opportunity to save. Over 50,000 items bear the Red reduced price Tags. You cannot fully appreciate the importance of this sale until you see for yourself—so come.
