My Maryland!

One reader claims that Maryland is the state above all others for richness of commodities and genius in their midst. Chesapeake, home of the soft-shelled crab and of his hard-shelled brother! Diamond-back, composed as only Philadelphia cooks, or he of Baltimore, can blend their Maryland Fried Chicken. What an effort to spend one's days fishing on the western shore and one's nights feasting at the Baltimore Club! That, that were quite enough to induce blessed forgetfulness of swordfish and halibut to the north, of tarpon to the south, of tunny and salmon to the west. "Is it any wonder," demands the Baltimore "American," "that Maryland girls are fair?" No, no—a thousand negative nobs—and here we are, condemned to slave in a desert of alien Manhattan!—Collier's.

Economic Determinism.

An Atlanta man tells of this conversation between two dapper bucks of West town: "Bill, I hear that you're courting that Bette girl down my way." "She's a beauty. An' I was in love with her gal, too; only I hear that she ain't got a cent. So I says to myself: 'Bill, be a man.' An' I was a man, Henry, an' now I pass her by with silent contempt!"

Very Growsome.

Col. E. M. House, discussing his peace mission in Europe, said: "The French soldiers, by the way, are called poilus—whiskers, as we might say, in the trenches, you see, the way French soldiers all grow beards. To see a slender lad of 23 or 24 with enormous black beard covering his chest well, it's like the story: 'Willie, said an etymology teacher, 'give me a sentence with the word 'growsome' in it.' 'The soldier, Willie answered, 'stopped shaving and grew some whiskers.'—Philadelphia Bulletin.

GERMAN ATTACHE TO BE SENT HOME

German Minister at Washington Will Clean House.

WILL ASK SAFE CONDUCT FOR AGENT

Act of Embassy Believed Will Show Genuine Desire of Teutons for Friendship of Uncle Sam.

Washington, D. C.—These highly important developments took place Monday in connection with the events consequent upon the revelations in the Dumba case:

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, will call on Secretary Lansing and will intimate that Captain Franz Papan, German military attaché, will be sent home, if a safe conduct for him can be obtained from the British government.

Ambassador Penfield has called his personal impression that Austria-Hungary will comply with the American request for the recall of Dr. Dumba, leaving her interests here in charge of the counsellor of the embassy.

Count von Bernstorff will explain the exact connection of Captain von Papan with the Dumba strike plans. There is no question that the ambassador feels that members of his staff should have no connection with strikes or the creation of disorders in industrial factories. He does hold, however, that Germany, as well as Austria-Hungary, has the right to warn her subjects that employment in factories making munitions for the allies is a crime against the laws of their country and that if they should return home they will be punished.

Germany, it is pointed out in German circles, had the right to call home all reservists in the United States. She was unable to exercise this right because of the British command of the sea, and they have been forced to remain in this country. The right to tell these men that they must not work for the allies the German ambassador holds to be as sound as the right to tell them to return to fight.

However, it is apparent that the ambassador has no intention to make an issue in respect to Captain von Papan. If this government will obtain a safe conduct for the officer he will be ordered to Berlin. Such action would obviate a demand for his recall. It would do more. It would show conclusively the desire of Germany to remain in friendly relations with this country. It would also mean that the Dumba incident with Austria-Hungary will, in the end, be adjusted satisfactorily to the United States.

Washington Administration Thought Will Yield to Carranza's Views

Washington, D. C.—General Carranza's counter proposal to the Pan-American diplomats for a conference with him over international phases of the Mexican problem probably will be approved, according to opinion expressed here by officials in touch with the administration.

Although Carranza refused to yield to the appeal of Secretary Lansing and representatives of six Latin-American republics that he join his adversaries in a peace conference, it was pointed out here that military conditions in Mexico had undergone marked changes in the last few weeks, and in some quarters it was contended that Carranza's claims for recognition were entitled to investigation.

Since the Pan-American appeal was issued, Carranza's armies have pressed pacification of territory in Central and Northern Mexico, while some reports to the State department have declared that General Villa's forces are disintegrating. From authoritative sources advice has reached Washington that it would be difficult to conduct a convention to select a provisional government in Mexico without the participation of Carranza and his military commanders, who assert now that they control nearly all Mexican territory.

Russians Score Victory.

Petrograd, via London.—Near Tarnopol the Russians have defeated the Third German division, the Forty-fifth Reserve division and an Austrian brigade. Eight thousand prisoners and 30 guns, besides many machine guns, were captured, according to an official statement issued at the war office. Further south, near Trembowla, about 2500 Teutons, three guns and 12 machine guns were captured.

Liner Offered Japanese.

Honolulu, T. H.—Siochiro Asano, president of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, who arrived here Saturday on his way home to Japan, announced that the Atlantic Transport company had offered to sell him the liner China, one of the first vessels recently bought by the Atlantic Transport company from the Pacific Mail company. Mr. Asano said that if the deal went through he would keep the China on the trans-Pacific run. The China is a vessel of 5060 gross tons register, is a single-screw steel vessel and was built in 1889.

Everett, Wash., Runaway's Goal.

Chicago—Richard Alpine, 15 years old, Pittsburg, an orphan, walked into the detective bureau Monday and asked Lieutenant Benjamin Enright to help him reach Everett, Wash. "I lived with an aunt in Pittsburg," he said, "but she abused me so I ran away. I am going to Everett to live with another aunt. My parents died several years ago." Lieutenant Enright sent the boy to the Juvenile Home and will communicate with his aunt in Everett.

New Melon on Market.

Tacoma—Another variety of melon arrived on the local produce market and is expected to step into line with the popular cantaloupes and watermelons. This is the casaba from California. In the last several years it has found an instant market here. Wholesale dealers ask 2 cents a pound. Reports from the South say the quality is excellent and the crop large.

Although the stiff advance taken in egg prices last week was expected to keep the market steady here for some time, an added scarcity of this commodity has caused dealers to boost the fresh ranch product.

Huckleberries are getting scarcer and prices are higher, the berries now demanding 5 cents a pound. The demand this season was brisk.

The fish market is well supplied with halibut and salmon and small fish. The demand is good. Butter and cheese are steady. No change was made in meat and poultry prices.

Crop Report Sept. 8, 1915.

Spring wheat—September 1, forecast, 3,690,000 bushels; final, 1914, 2,920,000.

Oats—Forecast, 14,200,000 bushels; final, 1914, 12,740,000.

The New REO the Fifth

The Incomparable Four

HERE ARE THE NEW REO MODELS AND THE NEW REO PRICES

Look at the cars, consider the values, and when your astonishment has somewhat abated, ask for a copy of the "advance catalog," and read the story of how these prices for these quality cars were made possible.

For without that explanation you could not understand, could not accept these values as genuine. It's an interesting story, too—absorbingly interesting and of vital import to you if you contemplate the purchase of a car this year.

It explains why, when it was impossible for the maker to materially reduce the prices of Reos without reducing the quality, Reo dealers found the solution, and by dividing their profit with the buyer, placed these remarkable values within your reach.

It gives you a glimpse into the inner workings of Reo—when you've read it you'll understand and the better appreciate the policy that has made the Reo success the most substantial and in many ways the greatest success in this industry.

As you read you'll feel as if you were talking with the Reo Folk—and when you've finished you'll feel as if you knew them personally.

And, finally, when you learn the facts that Reo Dealers having learned, made it possible for them to co-operate with the factory to make Reo values the greatest values, you'll conclude that a Reo is the car for you—"Reo the Fifth," the "Incomparable Four" at $875; or the new Sheer-line Reo Six at $1250—your purse and your preference must decide which.

Johnny Had the Proof.
In instructing a youthful class in mathematics the teacher turned to John Jones. "Johnny," she remarked, "can you tell me what an average is?" "Yes, ma'am," was the prompt response of Johnny. "An average is what a hen lays eggs on." "What?" exclaimed the amazed teacher. "What on earth are you talking about?" "That's right, Miss Mary," was the rejoinder of Johnny. "Most every lesson in our 'rhythmic starts' off 'it a hen lays three eggs a week on an average.'"

Eloquent Omission.
"That second speaker was quite extraordinary," "I thought his speech was about the dullest I ever heard." "His speech didn't amount to anything, but he failed, when he got up, to say that the toastmaster's introductory remarks reminded him of a story."—New York Sun.

He Found Out.
"And what has become of Jennie Smith, the village belle?" asked the man who was visiting his old home town. "Oh, I married her," replied the resident. "Then I suppose she is still the village belle," gallantly remarked the visitor. "I reckon she is," agreed the resident. "She is ding-donging from morning till night and I can't shut her up."

All was confusion and bustle. Wife was preparing to take a longish holiday.
As hubby was bidding her an affectionate farewell, she said: "You can expect a little letter from me during my absence."
How hubby's expression of face, which had hitherto been one of extreme gladness, doubtless at the prospect of being left alone for such a long period, took a decided change.
"But, my dear," he remonstrated; "surely I have given you enough money to see you through until you come back."
