The Mexican situation is nearly al-think of nothing to say this week ex-

Speaking of dromedary dates, we

President Wilson is about to marry

We would even be willing to accept an apology from Colonel Boyd, and end our long hostility with that low-browed

Ode to an Auto.

(Mulligan Stew in Athena Press.) I heard a fellow ruminating out loud like this the other night, and I give it to you straight: "My auto, 'tis of thee, short cut to poverty—of thee I chafe. I blew a pile of dough on this two years ago, and now you refuse to go, or won't or can't. Through town and countryside, you were my joy and pride, a happy day. I loved thy gaudy hue, thy nice white tires so new, but now you're down and out for time in every way. To thee, old rattle box, came many bumps and knocks, for thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn, frayed are thy seats and worn; the whooping cough affects thy horn, I do believe. Thy perfumes swell the breeze, white good-folks choke and wheeze, as we pass by. I paid for thee a price, 'twould buy a mansion twice, now everybody's yelling "Joe"—I wonder why? Thy motor has the pip, and soe is thine; I, too, have suffered chills, ague and kindred ills, endeavoring to pay my bills since thou wert mine. Gone is my bank roll now; no more 'twould choke a cow, as once before. Yet if I had the mon, so help me John, amen—I'd buy myself a car again, and speed some more."

Unlike the late Mark Twain, King Constantine of Greece—who married a

SEATTLE YOUNG MAN TAKES HOME A WESTON BRIDE

Pretty Wedding is Solemnized Wednesday at the MacKenzie Residence.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William MacKenzie was the scene of a pretty wedding October 6, 1915, when their daughter Agnes was married to Mr.
Clarence Prentice of Seattle, the Rev.
W. S. Payne officiating.

The bridal couple with their attendants, Miss Josie Lavender as maid of honor and Mr. Earl MacKenzie as best man, entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Gladys Smith. Just before the nuptial knot was tied Mrs. E. M. Smith sang, "I Love You Truly." The beautiful ring ceremony was used. The bride looked charming in white crepe de chine over mesaline and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. Many beautiful and costly presents from friends and relatives were exhibited in the library.

Mrs. Prentice is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William MacKenzie and has spent the greater part of her girlhood in Weston, where she has many friends. She is a graduate of Weston High school and of the Behne-Walker business college. Mr.
Prentice is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prentice of Seattle.

The young couple departed on the evening train for Seattle, where a wedding reception was given them at the home of the groom's parents.
They will reside on an extensive dairy farm conducted by the groom.
